LOUISBURG METHODIST CHURCH

Sunday School will begin promptly at 9:45 next Sunday morning. The morning preaching service is to be dismissed in order that all may attend the dedication services at Prospect Church at 11:00 A. M. The members of the Louisburg church are urged to attend these dedication exercises.

Epworth League will be held at 7:15 P. M. Last Sunday evening the Epworth League gave a musical program before an unusually large group. Mrs. F. M. Fuller was the leader of the program, and musical numbers were given by the following: Talmadge Thomas, Billy and Jane Moon, Jane Fuller, Jean Fleming, J. G. Phillips, Billy and Bobby Andrews, Dan McFarland, Rose Malone, Al Hodges, Jr., and May Davis. The closing number was a group song in the nature of a special Epworth League song, arranged by Mrs. William Andrews, to the tune of "Sweet and Low."

LOUISBURG BAPTIST CHURCH

Dr. G. H. Gorrell of Wake Forest preached at the 11 o'clock worship hour in the absence of the pastor who is on his vacation. Dr. Gorrell based his message on James 3:17. He set up, according to James, several characteristics of the ideal Christian. Among the characteristics were peaceableness, gentleness and above all purity. All who heard were challenged to live out these ideals.

Dr. J. D. Simons, Pastor, will preach at the 11 o'clock worship hour and again at 7:45 evening worship hour.

Sunday School at 9:45 A. M. and B. T. U. at 6:45 P. M. You are invited to attend all services of the church.

REVIVAL AT YOUNGVILLE

Revival services will begin at the Youngville Baptist Church on Sunday evening, July 31, at eight o'clock, and continue through the following Sunday evening. Dr. Carl M. Townsend of the Hayes Barton Baptist Church in Raleigh will do the preaching. Services will be held throughout the week at 3:15 in the afternoon, and 8:00 each evening. The music will be under the direction of Mr. C. E. Jeffreys of Youngville. Mrs. Arden P. Blaylock, of Little Rock, Ark., will be at the piano. Several extra musical features are being planned for the evening services. We extend to all who will come a cordial invitation to be with us in these meetings and hear Dr. Townsend present the Gospel in his own fine way.

MRS. A. C. ZOLLICOFFER

Henderson.—Funeral services for Mrs. Temple Boddie Perry ZollICOffer, 79, were held at Holy Innocents Episcopal Church Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock, with the rector, the Rev. Isaac Wayne Hughes, conducting the services. Burial was in Elmwood Cemetery.

Mrs. ZollICOffer died at her home Wednesday afternoon after having been in ill health for several years. She was a native of Franklin County, a daughter of Dr. Alberton Sidney Perry and Martha Lea Perry. She had made her home in Henderson for 57 years. Her husband, the late A. C. ZollICOffer, was a prominent attorney, and Mrs. ZollICOffer was active in social and church affairs until ill health curtailed her activities.

She is survived by three sons, J. P., A. A. and J. H. ZollICOffer, all of Henderson, and a sister, Mrs. W. H. Nicholson, also of Henderson.

You can't find a man foolish enough to think his wife married him for his faults, but you can find a lot of them who think she married him just for a chance to talk about them.

The higher a man climbs, the larger the audience which gazes hopefully, though secretly, that he may lose his hold.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The marriage of Mr. A. Mangum Massenburg and Mrs. Pearl Sprouse, which was solemnized Sunday afternoon at Roanoke, Va., in the Green Memorial Methodist Church, Dr. Nabel Harmon, officiating, is announced.

The bride is a popular lady, of Raleigh, where she has been employed by the Revenue Department. Prior to this she held the responsible position of Secretary to the Vance County Superintendent of Schools.

The groom is one of Henderson's popular young business men and a former Franklin County boy. He was a son of the late Ben B. Massenburg, Sr., and is a brother to our townsman, Mr. B. Massenburg.

They left immediately for Henderson from which place they left for a bridal trip through the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia and Washington City.

They will be at home to friends in Henderson after August first. Their many friends extend congratulations.

Soda may sweeten the stomach, but a man with a sour disposition must work on himself if he ever hopes for a cure.

Nothing is more annoying to a motorist than to drive ten miles into the country on Sunday to see a friend and then find his spring chickens are not large enough to fry.
