LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Next Thursday is Thanksgiving.

Cotton was worth 9 1/2 cents a pound in Louisburg yesterday.

The cloudy overcast yesterday was very suggestive of snow.

The big improvements on the graded school grounds is attracting much attention.

J. H. Sills, of the eastern portion of Louisburg township sent in a cotton branch with a bloom on it on Saturday, Nov. 12th. This is quite late for cotton blooms.

Coleman Merritt lost a barn and two mules by fire at his home near Ingleside Wednesday morning. The origin was unknown to the ones bringing the information to Louisburg.

J. L. Swanson, of near Cedar Rock, brought in a sample of May Cherries on Monday. These cherries are of the second crop and were ripe. He thinks he has at least three quarts on his trees.

Constable Sam Weathers reports that he and Constable Fred Frazier captured a 100 gallon copper still outfit, near the water plant at Franklinton on Thursday of last week, and destroyed about 10 barrels of beer.

The Fruit Service Station operated by James Bledsoe, was badly damaged by fire early Wednesday morning. The fire practically gutted the building. The fire company went to the scene, but could not save the building.

Mr. Fred C. Hight, proprietor of the Service Dry Cleaners, has purchased the lot adjoining the H. C. Taylor and Mrs. J. L. Bartholomew on Nash Street, and will soon begin the erection of a 22x65 foot brick business building for his dry cleaning plant. He expects to get this completed early in January.

The TIMES is requested to announce that an old time Fiddlers Convention will be held at Youngsville in the School Auditorium on Friday night, Nov. 18th, 1938, at 7:30 o'clock. All musicians are invited to attend and compete for prizes. The Convention is sponsored by the first and second grades of the Youngsville School to which the profits will go. All are invited to go out and enjoy the evening.

But It's True

Hurlburt was walking across a hill when a sudden gust of wind threw his shoulder out of joint. The Troughac river, narrow and short, passes through a series of grape arbors. At that point there is a rapids. The grapes are so great a number that the volume crushed on the rocks turns the river to the color of wine. The taste is actually that of grape-juice.
