

Cherry Pie Queen.

CHICAGO, Ill. . . . Miss Ruby Hudson, 16 year old girl of Smithton, Missouri, who was selected among her competitors as the best baker of cherry pies in America. Miss Hudson is a 4-H Club girl. A committee of a dozen or more famous cooking experts judged the pies baked by the finalists, who represented champions of eight states.

Receives Baronetc.

LONDON . . . King George VI has conferred a baronetcy of the United Kingdom on 5-year-old Andrew Ashon Waller Hills, shown above. He is the son of the late John Waller Hills, Frivy Councillor. When informed of the honor by his mother, he thought it was something to eat and asked, "When can I have it?"

40 PERCENT

Statisticians of the U. S. Department of Agriculture estimates that farmers received only 40 cents of every dollar paid across the counter in 1938 for farm products.
