The storm of wind, hail and rain on Wednesday afternoon of last week seemed to be worse here than elsewhere. The top of Mr. Spencer's strip room was blown off and the top of one of the tall chimneys of the Charles Macon home was leveled with the roof. It is said the chimneys, up to the present time, have stood in tact for at least 100 years. Several trees nearby were damaged.

The writer thinks he has discovered a pretty good double of the late Will Rogers, and bearing the same name as the lamented comedian. He is B. W. Rogers, Liberty Street, Durham.

Ingliside residents, who had been watching the heavy rains of Tuesday, were surprised to see quite a fall of "the beautiful" snow at 1:30 P. M. Some think it would have covered the ground completely but for the preceding rain.

The Warren Record reports a brief visit from Major Sam Martin Connell in his huge plane. Major Connell is a nephew of Mrs. A. W. Wilson.

What is regarded as probably the largest airplane to ever land at the government airport near Warrenton was brought to ground there on Monday afternoon by Major Sam Martin Connell who stopped here for a visit of approximately 30 minutes with his mother, Mrs. W. A. Connell, and other members of the family.

The plane was one of the government's large warships, equipped with machine guns and for dropping bombs. The fast ship with its triple motors carries a crew of seven, including a pilot, a co-pilot, a bomber, a machine gunner, and a radio operator.

A number of persons drove to the field to view the plane.

Mr. Henry C. Dickerson, came home last week from Richmond, Va., where he was a patient in a hospital, nearly four months. He is slowly recovering from a gunshot wound in the head by a negro bandit in a robbery attempted at a Service Station of which he was the attendant.

At the trial in Hastings Court recently the robber drew a sentence of 10 years in the penitentiary. The three other negroes involved in the case were sentenced to 2 years each. They also were sentenced to serve a term of eight years each on a previous charge of holding up S. M. Cantor, a storekeeper, on West Leigh Street.

The Singing Class from the Methodist Orphanage, with Miss Nellie B. Rives in charge, carried out a most excellent program at Trinity M. E. Church last Sunday. The exercises were very much enjoyed by all present. The Trinity ladies served a good dinner to the visitors, in keeping with their usual custom on such occasions.

The class went from here to Louisburg where they appeared at the Methodist Church.

FROM INGLESIDE

Daily average sales of general merchandise in small towns and rural areas for March were about 17 per cent above March, 1938, and 15 per cent above February of this year.

Jimmie—Does your father object to my staying so late?
 Frances—Oh, no. He says it serves me right for letting you hang around so much.

PURE SEED
 Greene County 4-H Club members are realizing the advantage of planting pure corn, as increasing numbers use certified seed, says J. W. Grant, assistant farm agent.

Lydia had four children and named them Eenie, Meenie, Minnie and Edgar; because she didn't want no Moe.

UP

CORN DEMONSTRATIONS
 Two corn variety demonstrations, using 14 varieties, have been started on the farms of Malcolm Williams and Hurley Ray, Cumberland County growers.

Visitor—Why are you watching me so closely, Bobby?
 Bobby—I was just waiting to see you tackle your glass of water. Daddy says you drink like a fish.

They look alike --- but
 ALL insurance policies look very much alike but the real test is the service that you receive after you have had a loss, or an accident, and present your claim. Wise property owners are "company conscious"—they look into the stability and reputation of the company back of their policies.

MRS. E. E. DENT
 Mrs. E. E. Dent, died suddenly at her home near Franklinton early Thursday night, April 27.

Funeral services were held in the Flat Rock Baptist Church, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The final rites were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Carter, of Youngsville. Music was furnished by the church choir.

Burial was in the cemetery. Pallbearers were: Messrs. Lonnie White, Kenneth Shearin, B. L. Bragg, Ben Perry, Hobson Moore. Interment followed in the church cemetery.

The floral tribute was large and especially lovely, bespeaking the love and high esteem felt by the many friends for the deceased.

Mrs. Dent is survived by two sons, B. P. Hinton, of Franklin County, and A. S. Hinton, of Zebulon; a sister, Mrs. W. B. Murray, of Morganton; two brothers, Norfleet Jones, of Rougemont, and J. A. Jones, of Bunn; and five grandchildren.

Yes, of course, there are hypocrites in the churches, but there would be more if outsiders who are eternally talking about church hypocrites would join the churches.
