THOUGHTS FOR YOUR HEALTH

"For every disease there is a cause. That cause must be corrected if health is to be restored. Just as normal, healthy expression of life depends upon forces within the body, so abnormal expression of life (disease) results from the inability of these internal powers to properly express themselves. It is this knowledge that leads us to that fundamental truism

'HEALTH COMES FROM WITHIN'

"Not until it is understood that every vital organ in the body is connected with and controlled by nerves from the spinal cord and brain, can one fully understand why Chiropractic methods can relieve so many human ailments." This drugless profession is the logical method of treating human ailments, concerning itself with the prime factor of obtaining and maintaining Health by way of a normal, healthy working of the forces within the body.
