LOUISBURG BAPTIST CHURCH

The pastor spoke for the first time in several weeks from his own pulpit. The subject for the morning worship hour was "A Religion That Costs Nothing". The text was taken from 2 Sam. 24: 24. "And the king said unto Araunah, Nay; but I will surely buy it of thee at a price; neither will I offer burnt offerings unto the Lord my God of that which doth cost me nothing. So David bought the threshing floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver." He named three classes of religionists: those who put in to get out, those who put in for love's sake, those who do not put in but expect to get out. Of the first group he said, "They are the Pharisees, the legalists, Judisers, Unitarians. Cain is their father and disappointment their reward" of the second group, "They are the Christians. God is their Father and a rich, crown their reward" of the third group, "They are the selfish, unthankful. Ballam is their father and destruction their reward."

In further discussing the last point he submitted that this religion was unmanly, unsatisfactory, unproductive and unchristian.

Last Sunday evening the Every Member Canvass was initiated with a Stewardship program. Members of the Advisory Board and W. M. S. presented the program. The canvass will be taken again at the morning hour and completed on Sunday afternoon. It is important that all group leaders be present at the morning service, and they should have as many of their group present as possible.

Sunday morning at eleven o'clock the pastor will speak on "Colling A Spade A Spade". Sunday evening at seven-thirty he will speak on "Young People and Their God."

CLARENCE BASS TAKES LEAD

(Contribution to the Franklin Times)

Louisburg might indeed be proud of her son at Campbell College. When the Campbell College Debate Team goes to Rock Hill, S. C., the senior member of the negative side will be Clarence Bass, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Bass, of Louisburg. Young Bass has the distinct honor of being the first freshman to ever make the debate team at Campbell. Young Bass won the vote of all the judges in the try-out. He was competing against 47 who tried out. Young Bass began his debate by debating on the Mills High team. Clarence has already won three declamation contests and two debates at Campbell.

Through the course of the year Young Bass will debate at the Dixie tournament in Rock Hill, at State College, at Wake Forest, at Duke, at Davidson, at the State Forensic Contest, at the Eastern tournament at Springfield, Mass., and at St. Louis, Mo.

Clarence has taken an active part in the activities at Campbell.

Onions Gain Good Graces With Stuffings

1 onion takes a new lease on life, and now it's the hit of the table. A jar of deviled ham and a bottle of chili sauce do their stuff—for the secret is in the stuffing. A time saver, too, for you can prepare them in the morning and bake them just before serving with a vegetable dinner or with simple salads. The way to do both is this way:

Baked Stuffed Chili Onions
6 large onions
2 tablespoons butter
2 teaspoons minced parsley
1/2 jar (2 1/2-ounce) deviled ham

1 cup soft bread crumbs
1/2 cup chili sauce
Dash of pepper
1/2 cup buttered bread crumbs
Peel onions and parboil in large amount of boiling, salted water until almost tender. Drain, reserving water. Cut out centers, chop, and saute 1/4 cup in butter. Add crumbs, pepper, parsley, and deviled ham, mixing well with fork. Stuff onions with mixture and place in shallow baking dish. Top each with 1 tablespoon chili sauce. Sprinkle with buttered crumbs and pour 1 cup reserved water around them. Bake in hot oven (400° F.) 20 to 30 minutes. Yield 6 portions.

THANKSGIVING

- 1939 -

It is again our privilege and pleasure to extend to you, our customers, our sincere thanks for the generous cooperation you have given us this year.

We have many things for which to be thankful. Our health makes it possible for us to be in position to enjoy the many blessings around us. Therefore we are thankful for that.

We should be thankful for the privilege of living in a land of plenty.

And above all we should be thankful that our Country is at Peace and not torn up with Wars and controlled by Dictators.

Let's be thankful that these conditions will continue.
