The TIMES is requested to state to the Superintendents and Teachers of Franklin County to let Mrs. G. W. Barnes know whether they can attend the Schoolmaster's Banquet in Youngsville, not later than the 22nd of March.

O'HENRY BOOK CLUB

The O'Henry Book Club was entertained on March 5, at the Franklin Hotel by Mrs. J. A. Wheelless.

The program for the afternoon consisted of papers on "Patterns in Old Glass" by Mrs. Cecil Sykes and "Unusual Pieces of Chinar and Glass" by Mrs. Geo. Oliver.

A tempting two course dinner was served in the dining room where "St. Patrick's Day" colors were used for decoration. Other members present were Mrs. Geo. Davis, Mrs. Dick Yarborough, Mrs. J. E. Fulghum, Mrs. E. F. Griffin, Mrs. Earl Murphy, Miss Katherine Rogers, Miss Helen Smithwick, Mrs. Robt Smithwick, Miss Camille Swindell, Miss Elizabeth Timberlake, Mrs. F. L. O'Neal and Mrs. Geo. Weaver.

Vegetable supplies for the late winter and early spring are expected to continue short until the first of April, due to the winter frozes which destroyed a large acreage of tender vegetables.

THREE RECENT BRIDES HONORED IN LOUISBURG

Mrs. A. W. Person and her daughters, Mrs. Randolph Trow of New York City, and Mrs. Julian Heron of Washington, D. C., were joint hostesses Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. G. M. Beam when they gave a bridge party complimenting three recent brides. The honorees were Mrs. Hobart Roberson, formerly Miss Hazel Allen; Mrs. E. S. Ford, Jr., formerly Miss Lucille Hudson; and Mrs. John Williamson who was Miss Evelyn Jenkins of Franklinton.

The three brides received gifts from the hostesses. Mrs. C. W. Lea won the top score prize, and the traveling prize was awarded to Miss Lola Mae Phillips of Washington, N. C., house guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Fuller, Jr.

Mrs. G. W. Cobb and Mrs. G. M. Beam assisted the hostesses in serving a refreshment plate and coffee to the honorees and the following players: Mrs. W. E. Uzzell, Mrs. Frank Wheeler, Jr., Mrs. Frank Rose, Miss Frances Turner, Mrs. Louis Wheelless, Mrs. W. H. Shelton, Mrs. Alec Wilson, Mrs. W. B. Tucker, Mrs. Edward Stovall, Miss Ruth Jenkins, of Franklinton, Mrs. Numa Freeman, Mrs. J. R. Allen, Miss Ida Mae Yow, Mrs. W. R. Hartness, Mrs. A. F. Perry, Mrs. R. G. Bailey, Miss Gertrude Winston, Mrs. Marion Grainger, Miss Helen Reynolds Allen, Miss Susie Meadows, Mrs. B. N. Williamson, Mrs. George Weaver, Miss Mamie Davis Beam, Miss Lonie Meadows, Mrs. K. K. Allen, Mrs. Douglas Perry, Mrs. J. R. Earle, Mrs. W. L. Lumpkin, Miss Rose Malone, Mrs. W. C. Perry, Miss Peggy Ford, Mrs. W. N. Fuller, Jr., Mrs. Clyde Burgess, Mrs. Winfield Jordan of Burlington, Mrs. C. W. Lea, Mrs. E. F. Thomas, Mrs. H. C. Taylor, Jr., and Miss Lola Mae Phillips.

Members of the Greenhill Chapter, D. A. R., met at the home of Mrs. Ben T. Holden Thursday. Mrs. Missouri Alston Pleasants and Mrs. H. J. Lewis were designated to represent the chapter at the Continental Congress in Washington in April. Presenting the program for the meeting were Mrs. S. P. Boddie, Mrs. Ben T. Holden and Mrs. H. J. Lewis.

The average person does not know what he wants, but he is doing his darnest to get it.

MISS FLEMING ENTERTAINS

Miss Jean Fleming entertained her bridge club and several additional guests on last Monday evening at her father's new house on Sunset Avenue.

The St. Patrick's motif was exemplified in tallies, table covers and favors. A salad plate, with a drink and home-made mints was served the following club members: Miss Peg Ford, Mrs. W. E. Collier, Jr., Miss Jane Fuller, Mrs. W. C. Boyce, Miss Allean Crowder, Mrs. W. R. Hartness, Mrs. H. H. Hobgood, Miss Rose Malone and Mrs. Douglas Perry. Visitors present were Mrs. W. V. Avent, Mrs. Ernest F. Thomas and Miss Camille Swindell.

Mrs. Douglas Perry was awarded a double deck of playing cards for club high score; and Mrs.

Thomas received a box of Yardley's sachets for scoring high among visitors.

A wife wants her husband to be BLAMELESS—but all on earth the poor fellow desires is to be BLAMED LESS.

Doctor—You are on the verge of a long illness. Patient—Oh, doctor, I haven't as much money as you imagine.
