A driver or a pedestrian who had been drinking was involved in one out of every 4 fatal accidents during 1939.

Despite the European war, there are matters that should engage the attention of the people of Louisburg; they have nothing to do with war but much to do with living.

A total of 24,595,000 acres in the United States was planted to cotton and in cultivation at the end of June, according to a late report on the size of this year's crop.
