

Louisburg College Items

The Senior Class of Louisburg College has chosen the following for its officers for the scholastic year:

President, William Spence, of Suffolk, Virginia.
Vice-President, James Durham, of Durham, North Carolina.
Secretary, Miss Mary Ellen Shaw, of Mebane, North Carolina.
Treasurer, Miss Rachel Fox, of Roxboro, North Carolina.

At a recent meeting, the Freshman Class elected the following officers to pilot the class through the scholastic year:

President, Rodman Lancaster, Vanceboro, North Carolina.
Vice-President, Troy Barrett, Fayetteville, North Carolina.
Secretary, Miss Mary McArtin, Dunn, North Carolina.
Treasurer, Miss Mary Bryan, Wilmington, North Carolina.

Alpha Pi Epsilon

The Alpha Pi Epsilon Secretarial scholastic fraternity of Louisburg College held its annual Christmas party on Thursday evening last. Miss Alice Cahill, the President, was in charge of the program which consisted of a round table discussion of the Christmas customs of the people of other lands than ours. After the program, the group joined in singing carols and playing games. Each member received a gift from the lighted Christmas tree and the club presented the sponsor, Mrs. Margaret Kilby with an ice cube tub filled with candy. Light refreshments were served.

Those present were: Miss Alice Cahill, Miss Della Mae Lewis, Miss Laurel Ballard, Miss Edna Gillis, Mr. Joseph Newsum, Mr. Isaac Reynolds, Miss Louise Turner, and Professor and Mrs. V. R. Kilby.

The Faculty

The faculty as well as the students of Louisburg College will, in general, be away from the college hill during the Christmas holidays. However, Dr. and Mrs. Walter Patten, Prof. and Mrs. I. D. Moon, Mrs. Stella Culpepper, Prof. and Mrs. J. L. Cameron, Prof. and Mrs. W. J. Shope, Mrs. Elsie Craig Yarborough, and Professor J. B. Woodall, will have their headquarters and will spend the greater part of their time in and about Louisburg. Because of the fact that Prof. Woodall is the proud possessor of a new flying machine, the gift of his students, he is expected to take a trip to Massachusetts, and elsewhere.

Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Amick will join their foster daughter, Miss Frances Devincy, at their home at Elon College, from which place, as headquarters, they plan to go to Black Mountain and other points of interest on the way. Prof. James E. Byerly may be reached through 502 at Lexington, North Carolina. Prof. Willard H. Clatworthy is spending his holidays at Lackey, Kentucky. Prof. and Mrs. V. R. Kilby and Bobby Joe may be found on the bank of the Pamlico River at a place called Bay View by way of Bath, North Carolina. They will spend the greater part of their time in boat riding, fishing, hunting, and eating the results of their catches. Misses Alice Kramer and Miss Rose Marciole will be at their respective homes, 96 Jackson Street, Passaic, New Jersey, and at New Plymouth, Massachusetts. Prof. and Mrs. George Oliver will be in Yanceyville, North Carolina. Prof. Oliver took his gun along and expects to spend the time hunting and enjoying the glories of out door life after having been housed in the class room for nearly four months. The genial college treasurer, Mrs. Genevieve Perry, with her daughter Miss Janice will be visiting and their friends should address them at 520 Summit Avenue, Hagerstown, Maryland. Miss Virginia Peyatt will be found at her home in Liberty, North Carolina. Our Dean of Women, Miss Lula May Stipe and Miss Alice Cahill, the Secretary to President Patten will spend their holidays in Winston-Salem, North Carolina and their addresses will be 725 South Main Street and 903 Gales Avenue, in Winston-Salem. They will be happy to have friends passing that way to visit them. Prof. L. R. Taff expects to be browsing around the University of North Carolina during the next two weeks and his address will be Chapel Hill, North Carolina. Mrs. Grady Hardin and her son Jimmie, will be found at Mount Airy, N. C., and Rev. and Mrs. William R. Dixon will be pleased to have their friends call on them at 315 East Marion Street, Shelby, North Carolina.

The Appella Choir

On last Sunday evening, December 15th, at 8:00 to 8:30 o'clock, the Louisburg College Appella Choir, under the direction of Prof. James E. Byerly, Professor of Music at Louisburg College gave a broadcast from WPTF at Raleigh, North Carolina.

The Christmas Dinner Party

On Tuesday evening, December 17th, at six o'clock, the Junior Class of Louisburg College gave a formal dinner in honor of the faculty and senior class of the college in the college dining hall. The dining hall was attractively decorated to carry out the Christmas motif. The following program was carried out during the dinner:

"Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow."

Welcome to faculty and seniors, Troy Barrett, President Junior Class.

Response, Bill Spence, President of Senior Class.

Song to Dr. Patten.

Response, Dr. Patten.

Song to Louisburg College Faculty.

Response, L. R. Taff.

Toast to Seniors, Miss Lula May Stipe.

Song, Jingle Bells.

Song, Alma Mater.

Following the dinner the faculty and students gathered in the social hall where a large Christmas tree had been erected to add to the holiday spirit. Santa Claus was present and distributed a large number of gifts to students and to the faculty.

EPSOM BEATS EDWARD BEST

Henderson, Dec. 18.—Epsom High School boys defeated Edward Best High boys tonight by a 22-17 score. Medlin with 7 points lead the Epsom troupe while Thorne with 5 points lead the Edward Best.

The girls' teams tied the score 13 all.

This is the second victory of the season for the Epsom boys out of the same number of starts Epsom boys having defeated the Franklinton boys the night before by a 30-9 score.

Craven County farmers have already begun to make inquiries about the control of blue mold as they get ready to prepare their plant beds for the 1941 tobacco crop, says Assistant Farm Agent, P. M. Cox.

SOUTHERN COOKING

DOLLY VARDEN CAKE
Cakes that melt in your mouth are almost synonymous with Southern cookery. At meal time on old plantation homes it was a frequent occurrence to find half a dozen varieties of cakes on the table. Here is one of the best of them—
Dolly Varden Cake

- 2/3 cup margarine
 - 2 cups sugar
 - 3 eggs
 - 3 cups flour
 - 2 teaspoons baking powder
 - 1 cup milk
 - 1 teaspoon vanilla flavoring
- Cream the cottonseed oil margarine, add the sugar gradually and cream well. Add well-beaten eggs, and mix thoroughly; add flour, sifted with baking powder, alternately with milk. Add flavoring. Divide the batter into two parts. Bake one-half of the batter in two 8-inch layers. Into the other half mix the following ingredients:

- 1 tablespoon molasses
 - 1 teaspoon cloves
 - 1 teaspoon nutmeg
 - 2 cups chopped raisins
 - 1 teaspoon cinnamon
 - nuts if desired
- Make two 8-inch layers of this batter and when baked put the dark and light layers together alternately with white icing. Yields one 4-layer cake.
- Other favorite Southern recipes are presented in a large, full-color, 100 page free cook book, "100 Southern Recipes." Send to National Cotton Council, Box 18 Memphis, Tenn.

Cabarrus County 4-H Club boys are showing an increasing interest in the production of purebred swine with 13 now owning registered Berkshire gilts or sows, says Assistant Farm Agent W. H. Williams.
