LOUISBURG DEFEATS WARRENTON

The strong Louisburg golf team continued its winning streak on Wednesday afternoon by defeating the Warrenton Club by the score of 27 1/2 to 8 1/2 in a tournament played on the Warrenton course. The Louisburg boys literally burnt up the Warrenton course. Webb Loy led the semi-dog leg No. 6 hole, which is a 288 yards, 4 par hole. This gave Loy a low score of 73, 1 under par, which was tied by Buddy Beam. Runner-up for low score was William Barrow, Jr., who parred the course, with a 74. Joe Barrow made a 75; Snooks Collier, 76; and Ed Owens, 77. Barker Williams and Cy Nunn tied at 76 for low score for Warrenton.
 On the first nine holes, Snooks Collier was 3 under par; but the heat, coupled with the fact that he is having teeth extracted, caused him not to be able to keep the pace on the second round. Buddy Beam and Webb Loy each played the second round with 2 under par.
 Those making points for Louisburg were: Buddy Beam, 2 1/2; Snooks Collier, 1 1/2; William Barrow, Jr., 3; Joe Barrow, 2; Higgins, 3; Loy, 3; Dr. Bagby, 3; Napier Williamson, 1; Cox, 2; John Tucker, 1 1/2; Dr. Wheelers, 2; Owens, 3.
 This gives the Green Hill Country Club seven victories against two defeats for the season. Today, they take part in the Invitation Tournament, which is being played at the Carolina Country Club in Raleigh. Twelve Louisburg players will compete for the Dillon Trophy.

JAMES EDWARD PLEASANTS

On Feb. 5, 1940, God in his love and wisdom sent a little Angel with golden curly hair and bright smiling eyes, to bless and brighten the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Pleasants. This angel was in the form of a little baby son, James Edward. He was truly a ray of sunshine with his sweet and loving disposition. He had learned to walk and was learning to talk in his baby way, so loved by every one, when on May 13, 1941, God again using his great wisdom and love, called little James Edward back into his fold. His baby mission on earth was ended.
 James Edward leaves to mourn their loss besides his parents, one sister, Margie Lee, two brothers, W. P., Jr., and Cash; besides his grandparents and a host of other relatives. Rev. S. E. Madren conducted burial services by the grave in the Mt. Gilead Church cemetery. Pallbearers were William Duke, W. H. Medlin, Jr., David Pleasants and David Cyrus. Flower girls were Dorothy and Ethelene Medlin, Helen and Marie

Neims, Listine Wester and Nadine Joyner

The entire community is in sympathy.

BISHOP PENICK WILL PREACH SUNDAY AFTERNOON 3:30

Sunday, June 1st being Whitsunday, services in St. Matthias Episcopal Church will be as follows: 11:00 A. M. Morning prayer and message. 2:30 P. M. Church School. 3:30 P. M. Visitation of the Bishop The Rt. Rev. Edwin A. Penick, D. D. He will administer the right of Confirmation to several candidates, after which he will preach. We extend a very cordial invitation to all of our friends to hear this gospel message which will be beautiful, instructive and impressive. We are anxious to have a large congregation at this hour. We are asking for a liberal offering to be used for Missionary work in the Diocese of North Carolina.
 GEORGE C. POLLARD, Missionary.

Private in the Dole Army—Kin you give me some work?

Citizen—Yes, but I won't.
 Doleist—Shake hands, mister. You're O. K. I was terrible skeert that you was goin' to offer me a job.
 Lady—You would stand more chance of getting a job if you would shave and make yourself more presentable.
 Tramp—Yes, lady, I found that out years ago.
 Tourist—Do you get much in the way of motor traffic down here?
 Native—No, sir; I wouldn't be past 84 if I did.
 Modern Ode: "Mary had a little lamb; it doesn't follow far, for Mary does not walk to school, she has a motor car."

Fond Mother—Well, son, what have you been doing all afternoon?

Tough Youngster—Shootin' craps.
 Fond Mother—That must stop. Those little things have as much right to live as you have.
