

YOUNG PEOPLE'S ASSEMBLY

Opened Past Week With Mrs. Grace Sloan Overton Leading First Week; Other Noted Workers Taking Part

The North Carolina Methodist Conference Young People's Assembly opened Thursday of last week at Louisburg College, under the leadership of Mrs. Grace Sloan Overton, noted religious leader of Adams, New York. Following the general theme of the assembly "We Follow Thee," Mrs. Sloan who has spoken on 80 college campuses in the last 2 1/2 years, lead forums and gave platform addresses on various phases of religion in goodness, complete love, discipline and the predetermination of environment and physical characteristics.

During the first week's assembly 175 Methodist young people of the conference took various courses and engaged in activities towards building and teaching a better religious life. The assembly lasts four weeks with a week each for the 18-23 age group, the 15-17 age group now in session, and a week each for two intermediate groups.

CALCUTT REFUSED PAROLE

Governor Broughton Tuesday denied a pardon or parole for Joseph Calcutt, formerly the largest slot machine operator in the world, and Calcutt will begin Friday the service of a twelve months' sentence on the roads which was imposed last December by Judge R. Hunt Parker in Wake County Superior Court.

The case has attracted widespread attention because of the desperate effort made by Calcutt to avoid the road sentence, although he has been indicted a score of times for violations of the slot machine laws and has several times paid large fines.

Although Calcutt entered a plea of guilty, he appealed from the sentence to the Supreme Court, which affirmed the road sentence but sent back another sentence on a second count, which was an additional term on the roads to be suspended upon the payment of a fine of $10,000 and performance of eight conditions for a new sentence.

Dr. Cheves Named Prison Physician

Appointments of Dr. William G. Cheves, of Bunn, and Dr. Ben J. Lawrence, of Raleigh, in the State prison system were announced Saturday by Oscar Pitts, prison director. The appointments become effective July 1st.

Dr. Cheves will become medical director of the State Prison system, succeeding Dr. Felda Hightower, who resigned on April 19. Dr. Lawrence, now consulting surgeon, will become prison surgeon and now will care for surgical cases, which were handled by Dr. Hightower.

The new medical director's salary will be $4,200 a year. Dr. Lawrence, who said he will continue his practice in Raleigh, will receive $3,000 a year as prison surgeon.
Dr. Cheves, a native of Franklin County, was graduated from Bunn High School in 1919 and from Wake Forest College in 1923. He received his degree in medicine from Jefferson Medical College in 1925, and served as interne and resident physician in the Atlantic City Hospital from 1925 to 1928, when he returned to his home in Bunn and entered private practice. - News-Observer.

COOKED FOODS SALE

The FRANKLIN TIMES has been asked to announce the Green Hill Wesley Bible Class, Mrs. I. D. Moon, President, of the Louisburg Methodist Church will conduct a curb market of cooked foods on Saturday morning of this week in front of the Seaboard Store Company. Doughnuts will be cooked there at that location; and orders are being solicited in advance for this particular project. Doughnuts may be bought without advance reservation or by telephoning Miss Loulla Jarman or Mrs. E. F. Thomas. The proceeds from this project will be used to pay the Class' pledge on redecorating the Church.
All members are asked to deliver their contributions of cooked food to the above-designated place; and patronage is solicited of everyone.

HENDERSON LADY GETS FIRST PALMOLIVE CONTEST PRIZE

AIRPLANE AMBULANCE

Raleigh, June 18.—At a meeting here today the state executive committee of the Old North State Fund, headed by Governor Broughton as honorary chairman, and Judge F. O. Bowman, prominent attorney of Chapel Hill as state chairman, placed finishing touches upon plans for the conduct of a whirlwind, state-wide financial campaign to secure approximately $75,000 for the purchase of an airplane ambulance to be presented to the people of England as a gift of citizens of North Carolina.

According to State Chairman Bowman, the pressing needs of Great Britain for additional ambulance equipment have caused the Old North State Fund to speed the effort to make the proposed gift a reality. The plane selected for the purpose is an amphibian, twin-motored Grumman, fitted with special ambulance facilities, accommodating four stretchers and two sitting cases; pilot, medical attendant or co-pilot. It is this type of airplane ambulance that the British-American Ambulance Corps recommends as best suited to England's present needs.

With the acceptance of membership on the organization's Advisory Committee of many leading citizens of the state as a result of a personal invitation by Governor J. M. Broughton, Honorary Chairman of the Fund, we are ready to proceed," stated Bowman, "our executive committee has outlined plans which seem to assure the success of the movement. The acute distress of British civilians and armed forces due to the lack of adequate ambulance facilities makes it most desirable that this gift be presented to the people of England quickly. We feel confident that the citizens of North Carolina will respond promptly and liberally to this splendid humanitarian cause. The efforts of the Old North State Fund to raise $75,000 for the purchase of an ambulance airplane or such equipment as England's situation may dictate as the fund progresses, will be carried on under permission of the British-American Ambulance Corps, Inc., which is officially recognized by both the British and American governments and has rendered a great service in assisting England by providing ambulance equipment for use on the British Isles and on many battlefronts. It is felt that the advice and help of this national body will be most valuable in promoting efficiency and economy in the conduct of the Old North State Fund's campaign."

Members of the executive committee of the Fund, which operates under a permit granted by the U. S. State Department, are Governor J. M. Broughton, honorary chairman; Frederick O. Bowman, Chapel Hill, state chairman; George Ross Pou, Auditor, State of North Carolina, treasurer; I. M. Bailey, Raleigh, executive secretary; Sen. D. B. Fearling, Manteo; R. C. Kirchofer, Raleigh; C. A. Pink, Salisbury; E. Lee Ellis, Asheville; Dr. Frank M. Boldridge, Charlotte; and Patrick Healy, Jr., Raleigh.
Headquarters of the Old North State Fund have been established in Raleigh and the state-wide activity will be directed from that point with the assistance of local committees in each county of the state.

CONN KNOCKED OUT

New York, June 18.—With the world heavyweight crown almost within his grasp, gallant Billy Conn tonight was knocked out in the 13th round by Champion Joe Louis after one of the most electrifying battles ever staged in any ring.

Conn was counted out after two minutes and 58 seconds of the 13th. The payoff blow came after Conn had made a magnificent stand against the Negro. The fighters had put on a show which had thrown more than 50,000 fans in the Polo Grounds into a delirium of excitement.

Right Hook Does It
Billy apparently held a formidable margin on points, and it seemed for a bit that the mighty Louis was being battered straight to defeat when the challenger was caught by a smashing right hook to the chin in the 13th.

This blow staggered the game Irishman. Louis was after him immediately, throwing hooks and uppercuts at his swaying opponent's head until it seemed that Referee Joseph would halt the massacre.

Then a terrific straight right caught Conn flush in the face, and he wilted to the canvas. Here he lay, vainly trying to rise as Joseph tolled the count over him.

This was the long knockout of the fight. However, the Pittsburgh youth had slipped in wet spots in the ring in the first and tenth rounds. But only at the end was Louis able to put him on the floor.

After Conn got warmed up, he sent the chills of fear up the spines of the men who had bet at 4 1/2-to-1 odds against his chances of victory. He proved himself a "modern Corbett" even though he did not come out with the title like the more famous Irish "Gentleman Jim" before him.

Conn's showing was so impressive and he was so close to the title—only a couple more rounds in this scheduled 15-round battle—that it is almost certain that Promoter Mike Jacobs will rematch them for September.

NANCY THOMAS MARRIES MR. WILSON

Beautiful in its simplicity was the marriage of Miss Nancy Thomas, of Carthage, and Thomas Wilson, of Louisburg, June 5 in the Calvary Methodist Church at Durham. The Rev. D. E. Earnhardt officiated in the presence of close friends and relatives of the couple.
The church of the wedding was beautifully decorated with white gladioli and illuminated by silver candelabra holding tall white tapers. The program of nuptial music was furnished by the church organist and Miss Virginia Hoffer of Sunbury, Va., soloist.
The bride was attended by her sister Miss Margaret Thomas, of Carthage, as maid of honor who wore a green sheer print frock with white accessories and a corsage of summer flowers.
The bride wore a two-piece suit of light crepe in blue and navy accessories. Her corsage was of orchids.
The bridegroom was attended by his brother Eugene Wilson, as best man. Another brother, John Wilson, and a brother-in-law, William Ward, of Goldsboro, were ushers.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Wilson left for a wedding trip to Washington, D. C. They will be at home in Louisburg.

BAPTIST MISSIONARY ASSOCIATION MEETS

The annual meeting of missionary groups in the Tar River Baptist Missionary Association convened for a two-day session at the Louisburg Baptist Church Thursday.
The purpose of the meeting is to hear reports of the past year's work, make plans for the coming year and to discuss activities of the missionary groups. Several inspirational talks will be heard.
Speakers for the association meeting are: The Rev. Albert Simms, of Littleton, who spoke Thursday afternoon, the Rev. J. F. Scofield, of Youngsville, who delivered the sermon Thursday night; Dr. H. H. McMillan, Baptist missionary to China who has recently returned to this country and who will address the association Friday; Mrs. W. R. Stone, of Durham who will also speak Friday.
On Friday afternoon the session will be given over to a group discussion of young people's work in the association after which the meeting will close. Mrs. Ada S. Parker, of Henderson, is president of the Tar River Association and Mrs. M. C. Miles, also of Henderson, is secretary. Membership in the association is drawn from Baptist churches in parts of Franklin, Vance, Warren and Halifax counties.

Registration of 21-Year-Old Men Ordered on Next July 1st

The local Selective Draft Board announces that proclaiming a second registration of men available for military training in the interest of National Defense, President Roosevelt has designated July 1, 1941, as the date when all eligible men who have become 21 years old since October 16, 1940, must register with his local Selective Service Board.

Aliens, as well as American citizens, who become 21 years of age before midnight July 1, 1941, must register. Also all aliens between the ages of 21 and 36 years, who have come to the United States since the first registration on October 16, 1940 and have not yet registered, must register on July 1.

The only place of registration in Franklin County will be the local board office of Franklin County Local Board No. 1 in Louisburg, N. C., in the Armory building. The office will be open for registration on that date at 8:30 A. M. and will remain open until 9:00 P. M.

Men who are required to register on July 1 and fail to do so will subject themselves to severe penalties, including imprisonment for not more than five years or a fine of not more than $10,000.00 or both fine and imprisonment.

Club Day At Green Hill Country Club Big Success

Practically every member of the Green Hill Country Club took part in Club Day held at the golf course last Wednesday afternoon. A large gallery watched the spirited, but good natured battle between the various teams. More than a hundred members and guests were present.

In the men's golf tournament, Bill Huggins' team defeated Snooks Collier's team by the score of 44 to 28. Scores were—the lowest ever made in an intra-club tournament. Bill Huggins was low with 69-one under par. Buddy Beam was runner-up with 70-even par. Other low scores were: William Barrow, Jr., 72; Ed Owens, 72; Snooks Collier, 74; N. Williamson, 75; Dr. Whelless, 75; Dr. Bagby, 76; L. Henderson, 76; A. Wilson, 77; Jonah Taylor, 77; P. Pernell, 79; and H. West, 79.

Interest centered largely around the matches between the two captains and the two brilliant young golfers, William Barrow, Jr. and Buddy Beam. Bill Huggins was simply too hot for Snooks, who was playing against his physician's orders. Buddy and William, Jr. were even at the end of the first nine, both having 33's. They were still even until William had a ball-out of bounds on number 15 which gave Buddy the hole and enabled him to win two-up. Jonah Taylor was playing in this foursome and also had a 33 for his first nine.
Bill Moon, 13-year-old son of Prof. Moon halved his match with "Red" Tyler. This was Billy's first tournament. James "Pip" Stovall and Hobart Brantley frankly admitted that it was good business to be defeated by one's banker.

Players with their points, first named players on Huggins' team were: Huggins 3, vs. Collier; William Barrow, Jr., 1/2 vs. Buddy Beam, 2 1/2; L. Henderson, 3, vs. Cox; Word vs. N. Williamson, 3; Owens, 3, vs. Bagby; Dr. Whelless, 2 1/2, vs. Wilson, 1 1/2; J. Tucker, 1 1/2, vs. P. Pernell, 1 1/2; Jonah Taylor, 3, vs. George Gilliam; Mattox vs. West, 3; Howell, 2, vs. Parker, 1; White vs. Beam, Sr., 3; Joyner vs. C. Ford, 3; Barrow, Sr., 3, vs. B. Tucker; Felix Allen, 2, vs. Stape Allen, 1; Dr. Bill Perry, 2 1/2, vs. Ashley, 1 1/2; Thomas, 2 1/2, vs. Jack Taylor, 1 1/2; Pitts, 3, vs. Brantley; Dr. Eagles, 3, vs. Glickman; A. Henderson, 3, vs. James Stovall; Phillips, 3, vs. John King; Karl Allen, 1, vs. Moon, 2; Cobb, vs. L. Whelless, 3; John Williamson, 3, vs. Neak; Billy Moon, 1 1/2, vs. Red Tyler, 1 1/2.

In the ladies' tournament, teams of Mrs. Blair Tucker and Mrs. Conrad Sturges were so evenly matched that the final score was a tie—nine all. Mrs. Blair Tucker was low with a score of 51 and Mrs. Herbert West was runner-up with 56.
Because of this tie score, the ladies will choose teams and play another tournament Wednesday afternoon, July 2nd, while the men are playing at Smithfield. All ladies interested in this tournament are requested to get in touch with Mr. Beam, Chairman of Tournament Committee.
Players with their points were as follows: Mrs. Blair Tucker, 3, vs. Mrs. Sturges; Mrs. J. A. Whelless vs. Mrs. West, 3; Miss Felician Allen, 3, vs. Mrs. Chas. Ford; Mrs. Felix Allen, Jr., 3, vs. Miss Helen Allen; Mrs. Ralph Parker vs. Mrs. Ned Ford, 3; Mrs. John Williamson vs. Miss Cora Beasley, 3.
Willie Avent's tennis team defeated Siamle O'Neil's team by the score of 2 to 0. Mr. and Mrs. Avent defeated O'Neil and Miss Christine Collier, 6-4; 6-6; Louis Scoggin and Temple Yarbrough defeated Judge Hohgood and Mrs. Herman Berlin, 6-1; 8-4.

After finishing the tournaments the club members and their guests were served delicious barbecues and fried chicken by Mr. J. C. Joyner.

ROBIN MOOR PASSENGERS RESCUED

Capetown, Union of South Africa.—Thirty-five survivors from the torpedoed American ship Robin Moor arrived here Monday in a British ship.

This completed rescue of the 46 persons aboard the ship which was halted May 21 by a submarine, identified by survivors as German, and then sunk by a torpedo and shellfire.
Eleven survivors who reached Recife, Brazil, were leaving for the United States Monday.
The rescue of the remaining passengers and crewmen should provide additional identification of the U-boat, for the group of 35 includes the chief officer of the Robin Moor and the crewmen he took with him by boat to the submarine in response to its summons before the torpedoing.

The survivors at Recife, taken there by the Brazilian steamship, Ozorio, after 18 days of lifeboat drifting, included none of those seamen.

Children Saved

Four lifeboats in all were lowered by the Robin Moor on short notice before the freighter was sunk. One contained 11 seamen, another 12 seamen—another 10 seamen and a passenger and the fourth three married couples, a child and five seamen.
Those in the boat with 10 seamen and one passenger reached Recife on the Brazilian ship.
Since all the hitherto missing were reported safe at Capetown it is assumed that the following list issued by officials of the Robin Line in New York when the Robin Moor was first reported sunk covers this group:
Passengers—Mr. and Mrs. Ben Cohen of New York City, R. W. McCullough and his son, R. M. McCullough, 2 Americans; Mrs. McCullough, believed to be a Netherlands citizen, and Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Gennell, described as British subjects.

EUROPEAN WAR NEWS

London, Thursday, June 19.—Germany has issued an ultimatum demanding sweeping territorial and economic privileges of Soviet Russia, it was reported by a British news agency in dispatch from Ankara today, and the agency added that other reports said the Germans already had launched an attack.

Reuters, British news agency quoted Martin Agronsky, NBC representative in Ankara, as saying he had it from very reliable diplomatic sources that the German ultimatum is about to expire and is being considered in Moscow while Nazi and Soviet troops mass on the border.

Confirmation Lacking

The same agency also said it had received from Winston Burdett, CBS representative in the Turkish capital, unconfirmed reports that the Nazis had attacked at 15 places, but correspondents in London with diplomatic contacts said this report had been in circulation for 17 hours without confirmation from any quarter in Europe.

Agronsky was quoted as saying Germany is asking the return of Bessarabia to Rumania, guarantee of delivery of large portions of the Russian wheat yield from the Ukraine and other raw materials, and free admission of German technicians and experts to take control of Russian transport and industry.

The CBS representative said he also had heard, without confirmation that Rumania had served an ultimatum on the Soviet demanding return of the lost province.

Berlin, June 18.—Germany gained the signature of Britain's non-fighting ally, Turkey, to a 10-year friendship pact tonight thereby assuring herself that the Turks will stay out of the Reich's battle with the British.

On the other hand, should German-Russian friendship turn into channels of enmity, Germany can feel free of danger from an interfering Turkish attack on her southern flank.
Adolf Hitler's ace diplomat, Ambassador Franz Von Papen, secured the new triumph, signing the pact at Ankara with Turkish Foreign Minister Sukru Saracoglu which binds each party to respect the other's territorial integrity and to take no direct or indirect measures aimed at the other.

Nazi Army Freed
Just as Hitler suddenly came to terms with Soviet Russia on the eve of the war, thus removing the possibility of Poland's eastern neighbor's causing trouble then, so Von Papen secured the pact which now permits the German army to pursue operations in the Middle East without worry of Turkish interference.

Authorized sources said they did not know, however, whether Russia had been told in advance of the new friendship between Germany and Turkey.
Although the pact frees the German army of fear of trouble from Turkey in event of a push in the Middle East authorized sources said it has no bearing on the warfare in Syria.

The French are taking care of the British there to the satisfaction of Germany, authorized commentators said.
The treaty also says that nothing in it impairs the obligations which either party previously has contracted.

(Turkey's mutual assistance treaty binds Britain to go to Turkey's aid if she is invaded. It also binds Turkey to help Britain in event of war in the Mediterranean, but so far it has not been implemented by the Turks. In a second treaty recently reaffirmed between Turkey and Russia, the Turks agreed not to attack Russia in event the latter is invaded.)

Washington, June 18.—The United States tonight imposed drastic restrictions on European immigration in a far-reaching move directed at aliens who become either willing or unwilling guests for Germany through fear of torture of their kin in their homelands.
The move—aimed at curbing subversive activities—was revealed by the State Department.

It ordered all U. S. diplomats and consular officials "in certain countries in Europe" presumably those occupied by Germany—to withhold American visas from "aliens who have close relatives still residing in those countries."

Thousands Affected
Thousands of emigres from France, Belgium, Holland, Luxembourg, Poland, Czechoslovakia, and other German-conquered states will be affected.
The order did not mention Germany, nor her Axis partner Italy, by name, but it is known that German pressure on relatives of aliens going to other countries has been largely responsible for operation of the world-wide Ger-
