Churchill's statement and the Canadian government's previous announcement of 3,350 Canadian casualties, or two out of three Canadians participating, showed that the whole force which assaulted the German-held city was close to 7,000.

Churchill spoke to a House of Commons which shortly thereafter prolonged its life for another year. It adopted, 215 to 9, a government bill which means that there will be no general election for at least another year. It was the third such extension since the war began. The house as a whole received its last mandate from the people in 1935, three years before Munich. Normally there would have been a general election in 1940.

Despite its ready passage, the bill was criticized by some members and by Lord Beaverbrook's Daily Express, which asked "Who will dare say that the present house is the best obtainable?"

NAVY DAY

Raleigh, Sept. 28 .- Proposals o name a new Navy cruiser 'USS CHARLOTTE" highlighted proceedings today as North Car-olina stepped up plans for the biggest and most colorful Navy Day observance in history.

Begun 21 years ago, Navy Day never before has seen its fostering nation at war, and this year it will carry a greater significance than was even imagined when a young American Legion adjutant proposed the observance in hon-or of "the greatest fleet in the world."

North Carolina's Capital City will be thronged on October 27 with visiting naval dignitaries ranged all the way up to $46 and entire warehouse daily sales averaged up to $44.91.
