Miss Lancaster Becomes Bride of Ward Courtland Starr—Noon Ceremony Solemnized in Hayes Barton Baptist Church

Miss Beulah Lee Lancaster of Raleigh and Louisburg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Edward Lee Lancaster of Louisburg, and Ward Courtland Starr of Siler City, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Lawrence Snarr of Romney, West Virginia, were united in marriage at high noon on June 17, at the Hayes Barton Baptist Church, with the Rev. Carl Ousley, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Siler City, officiating.

The bride and bridegroom entered the church together. The bride wore a white gabardine dressmaker suit and white blouse with high neckline, a wide-brimmed white straw hat trimmed with white veiling and other white accessories. Her only ornament was a diamond sunburst brooch, gift of the bridegroom, and she carried a white satin covered prayerbook, showered with white orchids and valley lilies.

Following the ceremony Dr. and Mrs. William Moore entertained at an informal reception at their home on the Cary Road for the bridal party and out-town guests. Immediately after the reception Mr. and Mrs. Snarr left for a wedding trip to Western Carolina. For traveling the bride wore an original model, two-piece black and white linen suit with matching hat. Her accessories were white, and she wore a corsage of white orchids from her prayerbook.

Mrs. Snarr is a graduate of Mills High School and Louisburg College, Louisburg. She is past State Vice-President of the Young Democratic Clubs of North Carolina. For several years she was secretary to W. L. Lumpkin, attorney-at-law, of Louisburg, and now holds a position with the State Department of Labor in Raleigh.

Mr. Starr received his B. S. degree in Agriculture from the University of Maryland where he was a member of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. He is owner of Wardhaven Farm, Siler City, and is salesman for Dietrich and Gambrill, Inc., of Frederick, Maryland.

Among the out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Major and Mrs. J. Howard Moye, of Greenville, Sen. and Mrs. W. L. Lumpkin, Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Bartholomew, of Louisburg, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Shinn, of Southern Pines, Mrs. James R. Weaver, Jr., of Chapel Hill, and Mr. W. W. Fitzpatrick, of Rougemont.

On Friday evening Mrs. Margaret R. Lumpkin entertained at a buffet supper at the Woman's Club honoring the bridal couple. Miss Margaret C. Lumpkin and her house guest, Miss Kathryn Eskey, of Roanoke, Virginia, assisted in serving. Guests included the honor guests, Miss Beulah Lancaster and Mr. Ward Snarr, and Misses Margaret C. Lumpkin and Kathryn Eskey, Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Smith, Mr. Julian M. Gregory, Mr. W. W. Fitzpatrick, and the hostess.

I. P. WHEELER

Mr. I. P. Wheeler, Sr., one of Franklinton's popular citizens died at the home of his son, J. H. Wheeler, of Route 1, Louisburg, on Saturday afternoon, June 10th, 1944. Mr. Wheeler was 82 years of age and is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Henry Goe-wick and Mrs. Johnny Wynn, both of Franklinton; three sons, I. P. Wheeler, Jr., of Louisburg, J. H. Wheeler, of Louisburg, R. I. and J. T. Wheeler of Franklinton, and five grandchildren.

Mr. Wheeler was a fine old gentleman of the genial Southern hospitable type, who numbered his friends by his acquaintances. He enjoyed life most when he was contributing to some one else's happiness, either in health or illness. He was a true husband, father and neighbor, and will be greatly missed in his community.

Funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the home, conducted by Revs. Bruce Hartsell and S. E.

'A Wac' Issues Equipment to Army Fliers

Private Audrie A. Frits of Willard, Ohio, serving with the U. S. Army Air Transport Command at Homestead Army Air Base, Florida, gets friendly smiles from fliers in exchange for the flight equipment she issues. The Army needs more Wacs for jobs in the Air Forces, Ground Forces, and Service Forces.

Mercer and interment was made in the Franklinton cemetery. The floral tribute was especially large and pretty and both services were largely attended.

The pall bearers were George W. Best, Fred Blount, Willie Johnson, Ernest Vaughan, William Murray, J. M. Leuchicum.

This is the one that counts!

"... Ask the Joes in the front lines!"

"... Ask that kid on the stretcher!"

"... Ask those who bury our dead!"

THEY KNOW. Every G. I. Joe knows.

"This is the big show. This is the pay-off. This is the one that counts.

"Sure, we're going to take 'em. But it's going to cost us plenty.... thousands and thousands of lives....

billions and billions of dollars.

"That's the price we must pay for a decent world—a world in which we and all children can live in peace. We G. I.'s will furnish the bodies. Will you furnish the dough?"

..and it's going to cost us plenty!
