The preliminary hearing for W. A. Stallings who shot Haywood Wester on Thursday afternoon of last week has been set for Tuesday before Judge J. E. Malone of Franklin Recorder's Court.

Information received in Louisburg is to the effect that an argument arose between the two about the gathering of some corn. Wester died Thursday at 9:30 p. m. at a Rocky Mount hospital from a bullet wound received four hours earlier at his home. Stallings was arrested about 6 p. m. Thursday by Deputy Neal and Constable Clinton Swanson.

Deputy Neal stated that Stallings and Wester became engaged in an argument about 5 p. m. Thursday at Champion's Store over some corn that hadn't been gathered from the fields. The deputy said the two men parted and went to their homes, located about 200 yards apart, adding that Stallings secured a .22 caliber rifle, went to Wester's home, called him to the door and shot him under the heart.

According to Deputy Neal, Stallings has made no statement concerning the affair other than admitting he had been drinking. Wester is survived by his wife, three sons, George and Fraden Wester of Louisburg, Route 4, and the Rev.
