JFK Aids Rules Fight

Washington - Leaders of a drive to head off conservative control of the House Rules Committee think President Kennedy has given them the ammunition to win the battle.
In a recent television-radio interview Kennedy said his "whole program" would be emasculated if the committee is not increased from twelve to fifteen members.
The liberals believe this will give them the control they need.

Seek Divorce

Freeport, Ill. - Twin sisters who married twin brothers have jointly filed for divorce.
Margaret and Elizabeth charged their husbands - Elvin and Melvin Dameler, respectively with cruelty.
The couples were married in a double ceremony in 1952, each have two children under 10 and have been living together on a farm.
