End Of The Road

Battered car lies in muddy corn field after running off the road in a curve eight miles northeast of Franklinton early Wednesday morning. A Franklinton youth was severely injured in the crash.

Passenger Hurt In Crash

A 24-year-old Franklinton man was injured when the car in which he was riding overturned on the Simms Bridge-Bobbitt road shortly after 1 a.m. Wednesday.

David Allen was taken to Franklin Memorial Hospital suffering from shock and loss of blood from severe head lacerations.

Allen was a passenger in a car operated by Willie Arnold, 19, also of Franklinton. Neither Arnold, a Louisburg department store employee, nor Bobby McGhee, a second passenger in the car, were injured.

State Trooper W. S. Ethridge said that Arnold apparently lost control of the car in a curve, skidding a considerable distance before overturning in a corn field. Ethridge said his investigation showed that nearly two hours elapsed from the time of the accident until the injured youth was admitted to the hospital.

Arnold, who was charged with careless and reckless driving, claimed a number of items were stolen from his wrecked auto before it was towed from the scene. The car was heavily damaged.

ASC Officers Seek Service Improvements

Each county farm program office in North Carolina is being asked, "What steps need to be taken to improve service to farmers and program administration?" E. G. Brewer, Chairman of the Franklin ASC County Committee, said today.

"County Committee members, county office managers, and farmer fieldmen are to evaluate the work and service in each ASCS office," Brewer said.

"The benefits are expected to be in the form of better, faster service for farmers," Brewer continued, "and to make sure that the public business is kept in public view."

Training programs for committee members and employees in 1963 will be based largely on needs identified in this self-study of county ASCS offices.

The ASC Service has begun an extensive program to improve service and management efficiency. All employees have been asked for their suggestions on how to better do specific jobs.

New Asst. Farm Home Agents Here

New Assistant Farm and Home Economics Agents have taken over their duties in charge of the widespread Franklin County 4-H Club activities here. They are Jake R. Redmond, a January graduate of N. C. State College, and Miss Rebecca Anne Parker, a December graduate of East Carolina College.

The new Assistant Farm Agent, a native of Waynesville in Haywood County, replaced Agent John Davis, who resigned to become Franklin County ASCS County Office Manager.

Raised on a farm, Redmond comes to the county with an excellent background in agriculture. He was active in 4-H club work at Waynesville High School from which he graduated in 1958 and in addition to 4-H work he also likes working with livestock.

The new agent attended Western Teachers College in Columbus for two years, transferring to State College where he majored in Agriculture Education. At State he was a member of Delta Sigma Phi Fraternity and took an active part in intramural athletics.

Redmond is married to the former Patricia Munis, of Tusculum, Fla. They have a son, Jake, Jr., age 4 and will make their home at 120 Person Circle.

The new Assistant Home Economics Extension Agent replaces the former Miss Anne Curl, who resigned after becoming Mrs. Jim Myrick.

Miss Parker, who majored in Home Economics at East Carolina, comes here with a long list of noteworthy achievements in 4-H club activities, a field that will make up a considerable part of her duties. Her particular interests are in clothing and textiles which she pursued through her college career after graduation from Meadow High School near Jackson in her home county of Jackson.

She was a winner of the national 4-H clothing competition in 1959 and won the National Achievement Award in 1960. In addition to receiving two scholarships, she was also presented with a chest of silver from President Eisenhower at the 1960 event.

While at East Carolina, Miss Parker served as Secretary of the Home Economics Club, Vice-President and President of her Dormitory and was honored by being listed in Who's Who of American Colleges and Universities.

Area Coin Clubs Hold Meet Here

Fifty-nine dollars for a dime! Thirty-five bucks for a penny! If you don't happen to be a coin collector these prices may sound unreasonable, but these prices were paid in Louisburg for the coins on Tuesday night—and not only were they paid, but those doing the buying thought they were getting a bargain.

The occasion was the regular monthly meeting of the Vance-Warren-Franklin County Coin Club.

Some 75 members and guests were on hand for the regular meeting of the group with visitors from a number of other counties being present for the purpose of buying - selling - swapping-or just talking coins.

Just you start looking through your pockets for change to sell to coin collectors, we had better mention that the above mentioned prices weren't paid for just any dime and penny but for two reasonably rare collectors items; the dime being a Mercury 1911 D and the penny being a Lincoln 1909-S, both highly sought after items to those following the hobby.

Tuesday night's meeting saw the largest number of folks yet on hand to attend one of the monthly affairs. In addition to the usual auction sale of coins a number of door prizes were given to the lucky number holders.

Re-elected

V. A. Peoples, veteran local fireman and rescuer, was re-elected Chairman of the Louisburg Fire Department Fireman's Relief Fund Board of Trustees at a meeting of the Board here Tuesday night and the Rev. W. M. Latta was re-elected Secretary-Treasurer.

Peoples welcomed A. F. Johnson, Jr., newly appointed City Council representative to the Board of Trustees, and Tom Denton, who was re-elected by the Fire Department as their representative to the Board. Other members of the Board include City Councilman J. P. Lumpkin, and Fire Chief W. J. Shearin, ex-officio member.

Rescue

The Louisburg Rescue Service was summoned out to a residence construction job adjacent to the airport about 9 o'clock this morning where a workman had become suddenly ill and passed out.

The Rescuers, however, found Sidney Bullock, 35, an employee of the Farmer Construction Co., of Rocky Mount, apparently recovered by the time they arrived at the scene.

College Play

Professor Umphrey Lee, head of the Department of English, and the Rev. W. N. McDonald, head of the Department of Religion at Louisburg College, will play roles in the forthcoming production of Shakespeare's "A Midsummer Night's Dream" by the Louisburg College Players.

The play, to be given on February 14, 15 and 16, at 8 P.M. in the college auditorium, is directed by Robert John Vansteek. The play stars Linda Haley of Raleigh; Myfanwy Ward, Aurbia, Netherlands Antilles; Jay Buttner, Covington, Va.; and Bill Williamson, Richmond, Va.

Lauded

Chief H. D. Mitchell of the crack Bunn Rural Volunteer Fire Department had words of praise for another group of firefighters this week.

The Bunn Department was called out to the old Moses Sykes homeplace early Monday morning and on arriving found that owner James McGhee and family had ripped a section of the roof-up, formed a bucket brigade and extinguished the fire.

Mitchell said he informed McGhee that he had a "pretty good" bunch of firefighters.

Franklin Solons For Strict Spending

The 1963 N. C. General Assembly opened in Raleigh yesterday with both of Franklin County's law makers ready to fight to the finish against any new forms of additional taxation.

Both State Senator W. M. Jolly and Representative James D. Speed advocate a bold the attitude on taxes and a strict spending plan for the coming biennium.

Senator Jolly, who is beginning his third term in the Senate, thinks the 1963 General Assembly should submit a highway improvements bond issue with definite provisions for spending same to a vote of the people.

"We haven't had any roads in three administrations since Governor Kerr Scott," Jolly said. "The larger counties have taken up the larger portion of the funds and the rural counties have just gone wanting."

"I would be very much in favor of a road bond issue if the money went for secondary roads to counties pro rata according to the number of secondary roads in each," he added.

The senator also expressed vital concern over Franklin County's failure to share in any primary road construction money during the past several years while neighboring Wake County has received millions.

He indicated that he might well make an issue of this matter during the current session. Jolly can count on support from his counterpart over in the House of Representatives in regards his thinking on roads and taxes, too. Representative Speed, a farmer-tobacco man himself, knows what good secondary roads mean to the rural people.

While favoring some forms of additional taxation during the last session of the General Assembly to provide the necessary funds for educational purposes, Speed was cool toward the food taxation plan, especially as it applied to taxing drugs and agricultural insecticides, etc.

The lawmakers are expected to get right down to work on the business at hand and some of the things that will get their attention besides taxes and roads will include a look into the Compulsory Insurance Law, Auto Mechanical Inspections, Community Colleges, Court Reform and other forms of highway safety legislation.
