Teenage Chat

By Betty Wrenn

The Y.W.A.'s of the Louisburg Baptist Church met Monday night for their periodic study course at the home of Donna Weaver. Those present were Donna Weaver, Betty Wrenn, Judy Wilder, Faye Ruff, Barbara White, Lois Griffin, and Dorothy Knott. The study course was entitled The Vacant Hearted presented by Lois Griffin and Dorothy Knott. It was most interesting because it dealt with the Baptist work among the deaf, the migrants, and just everyone who is unfortunate. Refreshments consisted of vanilla ice cream, vanilla wafers, and Cokes. An amusing fact about this particular meeting was that Donna forgot all about it. In spite of this, everything turned out just fine, much to her relief.

I was informed that Edward Best is having a Monogram supper this Saturday night. I hope it is a big success, but that you'll get out in time to come to the dance at the Armory. The seniors have asked me to invite you all to come and they assure you that you'll have a very nice time.

Donna Weaver told me she has recently made a trip to Raleigh. As a result, she is quite excited and happy. Seems she did some shopping for her wedding. With that who wouldn't be happy. Lots of luck to you both, Earl and Donna!

Strange things are happening or so I've heard. For one thing, "Hawk" was out in the back yard last week with a shovel, a pick, a "monkey" wrench, and a cup. Just what were you going to do with all of that stuff, "Hawk"?

Another incident I heard about was that the soldier on the monument on North Main St. fired his gun last Friday night. This is a little far fetched,
