Dillion Predicts Action

WASHINGTON-- Secretary of the Treasury Dillion says he thinks Congress will pass income tax cuts and revisions this year and in the form asked by President Kennedy.
Dillion said he expects some changes will be made by Congress but that he is highly hopeful the President's basic program will come through unscathed. He predicted the measure would clear the House by June 1.
Get The Idea?

"I'm sure your mother would do as much for Jimmy."
"My mother," replied Peter, "would ask Jimmy to stay for supper."
