Bunn ABC Vote Bill Is Passed

The North Carolina House of Representatives Monday night gave the final ok to a Senate passed measure authorizing an ABC election in Bunn.

The bill, which got speedy passage in the Senate had encountered some difficulty in the House, but went sailing through Monday night as a large delegation of Bunn citizens looked on from the House Galleries.

Bond For Negro Set At $45,000

A 19 year-old Route 4, Louisburg negro was bound over to Criminal Superior Court here Wednesday morning under bail totaling $45,000.00 on three counts of assault with intent to commit rape.

Recorder's Court Judge W. F. Shelton set bond at $15,000.00 on each of the three counts against George Junior Williams at a special hearing at 11 a.m.

The negro youth is charged with assaulting three prominent local white women as they sat in a parked car on a downtown street.

Hicks, Peoples, Taylor Win Seats

Incumbents Returned To Office Here

Unopposed incumbent Louisburg Mayor Louis A. Wheless and incumbent City Councilmen James P. Lumpkin, E. Thornton Jones and A. F. Johnson, Jr., were returned to office by voters in Tuesday's balloting who also endorsed a fluoridation referendum by a 4 to 1 majority.

Although the voters returned all three of the incumbent Councilmen running to re-election to office, two of the three newcomers winning seats on the Council took top vote getting honors, placing one - two on the ballot. They were Robert M. Hicks, who placed first, and V. A. Peoples, second, Jonah C. Taylor was the other newcomer winning a seat this time.

Fluoridation: For 422 Against 114

The total vote here was only 558 indicating a quiet election as was the pre-election campaign. There was only a smattering of write-ins and only a half dozen or so spoiled ballots on account of persons failing to vote for the number required.

As the new Council was organized here following swearing in ceremonies at noon Wednesday, Robert M. Hicks was elected Mayor Pro-Tem, succeeding E. Thornton Jones. The new Council fixed the regular meeting night for Friday following the first Monday in each month the same that has been in effect for as long as anyone can remember.

The closeness of the vote among the top six candidates, or those winning seats, (only 47 votes) indicated the public in general was pretty much in agreement in their choice. There was a vote spread of 150 votes between the sixth and seventh place runners and none of the ten candidates on the ballot for City Councilman polled less than 200 votes.

Foolish men work all their lives in order to be able to rest without understanding that they can rest almost any time.

Pearce, Yow Only Two Re-elected At Franklinton

Incumbent Franklinton Mayor Joe W. Pearce was re-elected to office Tuesday as Franklinton voters returned only one of three incumbent town commissioners to office.

Pearce polled 319 votes to win over former Mayor Calvin W. Brown, who got 278 votes. Earl Yow, 283, was the only incumbent commissioner re-elected. Newcomers named were John F. Green, 343, C.A. Payne, 252, James S. Joyner, 272, and D. C. Hicks, Jr., 337.

The two other incumbent commissioners running, J. C. Kearney and George L. Cooke placed sixth and seventh on the ballot respectively. Kearney received 241 votes and Cooke 236 votes. Incumbent Commissioner Calvin W. Brown ran for Mayor and incumbent Raymond Harris did not seek re-election.

Other candidates for commissioner and their vote is as follows: John T. Echols, 131, Henry F. Holmes, 235, M. K. Hamlin, 132, Claude T. Satterwhite, 78 and Jesse M. Satterwhite, 35. In the Franklinton Township wide school board race, Clement H. Weston, F. H. Watson and William Avery Wilder polled 338, 410 and 486 votes respectively to win the election. Two negro candidates among the ten running placed low on the ballot. Incumbent Sam Fishel was also among the losers.

The vote was recorded as follows: S. L. Colbert, 290; J.B.F. Cutchins, 32; S. E. Eakes, 318; S. M. Fishel, 320; J. P. Mangum, 153; J.L. Stallings, 268, F. H. Watson, 401; C. H. Weston, 336; J. R. Whitaker, 165; and W. A. Wilder, 486.

An estimated 50 to 75 ballots in the school board race were thrown out as the result of the newly enacted law outlawing one-shot voting in what was an obvious attempt to one-shot one of the candidates into office. There were also some 56 write in votes for town commissioner, with Tom Allen, 24 and Joe West, 22, leading in the write-ins.

Annual Dedicated To Late College President

Bill Williams of Louisburg, editor of The Oak, Louisburg College annual, announced on Wednesday the dedication of the 1963 student publication to Mrs. Mary Davis Allen, business manager of Louisburg College from 1896 to 1906 and its president from 1906 to 1917. As part of the Wednesday assembly program, Mr. Williams presented the new volume to Dr. Sarah Davis, of the Louisburg College English Department, niece of Mrs. Allen, and to Mrs. M. S. Davis, Mrs. Allen's sister-in-law.

Mr. Williams read the dedication of The Oak before making the presentation. He said that Mrs. Allen's death on August 12, 1962, at the age of 99, "deprived Louisburg College of a vital link with its past." Her administration was a "spirit that still influences" its life.

In responding to the dedication, Dr. Davis referred to the great pleasure the tribute would have given her aunt and to Mrs. Allen's pride, especially in her last years, in recalling the period during which her leadership of the College was vital to its continued existence.

Young Elected Mayor At Youngsville

Melvin Young polled 82 votes to become Mayor of Youngsville in Tuesday's balloting. Young defeated Jones Winstead (69 votes) for the post vacated by A.E. Hall, who did not seek re-election.

Unopposed incumbent commissioners all won re-election with 147 votes. They are James T. Allen, Ebbie Pearce, W. Tommie Moss, W. Marvin Roberts, and David H. Cyrus.
