Culture is the product of versatility and leisure, aided and abetted by some cash.

Salmon Loaf A Good Bet

CANNED SALMON forms the nutritious base for this colorful loaf which steams in a 1-quart mold to delectable perfection. Surrounded by peas and garnished with lemon slices, it becomes a handsome dish to set before family or guests.

DELECTABEL SALMON LOAF

1/4 cup butter or margarine
1/3 cup minced onion

3 eggs
1 cup fresh bread crumbs
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1/4 cup minced parsley
1 1-pound can salmon

In a skillet saute onion in butter until golden. In mixing bowl beat eggs lightly. Stir in onion and butter, bread crumbs, salt, pepper, lemon juice, and parsley. Drain and flake salmon (save liquid for the sauce) and stir in. Turn into a buttered 1-quart mold and cover tightly. Place in a large kettle of boiling water, letting water come halfway up sides of mold. Cover and simmer for 1 hour. Turn out and serve hot with parsley sauce.

SAUCE: Make a medium cream sauce using salmon liquid for part of the milk. Flavor to taste with lemon juice and add plenty of minced parsley.

Geese And Farmers

Blair, Okla. - Lawrence DeVick has found the answer to the farm labor shortage. He has 200 feathered hired hands. DeVick bought the geese for $200. They do the work of 9 full-time human farm hands, according to Mr. DeVick.

In Fashion Now

Fashion's in the swim this summer with tide-stopping styles that provide coverage more or less-as you like it. Newer seaside shapes are challenging the bikini's hold on the beach, driving it under a matching cover-up in most cases.

More in favor are the new swim play suits, 1963's modified version of the two-piece swimsuit now designed to double as a playsuit. To interpret these versatile styles, designers are turning to unusual fabrics like patchwork-printed cotton shantung, clan plaid cottons, striped ticking, and cotton faille.

Bathing suits of the cover-up type have several new features. One has a zipper up the front which reaches almost to the throat line - another has pockets on either side below the waist.

The overweight figure can select the suit with a skirt or one which features a panel of a harmonizing color down the front.

A two piece suit with a blousy top is the choice of some. Other blousy creations are all of one piece.

This may be a good time to pay your debts but if you have any surplus money, it is a good time to buy something.

A THREAD AT A TIME...YOU HARDLY NOTICE

For 30 years the advocates of government-in-business have spun their threads out one by one. While we hardly took notice, they pushed the federal government into thousands of business ventures, from sawmills to bakeries. In the field of electric power, 5 1/2 billion dollars are now invested in federally owned plants and lines.

The expansion of government-in-business is clearly a dangerous course. When government owns business it gains political and economic power—the means to control goods and jobs. With power thus concentrated it can become difficult for citizens to preserve their freedoms.

A thread at a time you hardly notice. But the danger is persistent, and loss of freedom lies in the spun-out web.
