

Cypress Has New Pastor

Cypress Baptist Church in the Seven Paths community has a new pastor, the Rev. Coleman Thomas.

REV. C. THOMAS

Rev. and Mrs. Thomas with their three sons, Phil, Tommy and Ernest, moved into the parsonage early in June.

Rev. Thomas is presently in his second year at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest, having graduated from Chowan and East Carolina College. He is a native of Windsor and was ordained into the Ministry Sunday evening, in a special service held in his home church, Greens Cross Baptist, where the Rev. Joseph Lang is pastor.

Several people from Cypress Church attended the ordination service, and three deacons - Messrs L. S. Gay, Melvin Nelms and Clarence Moore - participated in the laying on of hands.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas and sons follow the Rev. and Mrs. Max Evington and sons, Max and Gregg. A welcome into Franklin County and the community is extended to the Thomases.

Picnic Scheduled

A community picnic sponsored jointly by the Home Demonstration Club and Community Development Organization will be held Friday afternoon July 5 at 5:30, on the grounds at Justice School.

Everyone is invited to attend and bring a picnic basket.

Harassed Husbands

"Daddy, what is leisure?" asked the child.

"My boy," replied the sire, "leisure is the two minutes' rest a man gets while his wife thinks up something for him to do."

Teenage Chat

By Betty Wrenn

Well, another beautiful summer weekend has passed. Sure hope it was a nice one, for all of you. I've heard that quite a few of you are making trips to the drag strips every Sunday. Please let me know how you come out in the runnings and where you go. If you don't let me know I can't possibly write about it. So let me know all about them, all right?

I'd like to congratulate Louis Moore and Barbara White on getting married. May you have the best of luck and happiness always.

Seems Friday night was quite a night for many teens around the county. Teen Age Club was really rocking. It sure was nice to have all of you from Franklinton down. A few of them were Sandra G., Ruth Jean Wheelers, Carol Ray, Betty Pleasants, Wayne Arnold, Jackie Summerlin, Wayne, Danny, and Bobby. Be sure to come back real soon.

Phyllis Jeffreys came home last Thursday to get some clothes and some money and then left again for Carolina Beach. This will be her third week down there and all of us miss her quite a bit. However, I know she's having a great time.

I certainly do appreciate all of the cards and letters I get from the Franklinton teens. Thanks, you're really on the ball. Here's what's going on over there.

Heard that Ann had a blast with one of her old acquaintances at the beach. Care to tell us who it was?

What happened at Teen Age Club in Franklinton Saturday night? How good was real good Ann?

Franklinton was well represented at Person County Drag Strip last Sunday with cars and spectators.

I heard that Jenny is really missing Clyde since he spent three days in Raleigh this past week.

The kids from Ridgecrest are home again. Glad to know you all had a good time. Glad to have you back. Also, I was requested to ask Wayne how he likes his new job at the Piggly Wiggly.

I heard there was quite a party going on at Judy Dukes' house last Monday night. It was supposed to have been a slumber party, but those who came did a little bit of everything except slumber! Those who went were Shirley Neal, Jewell Wester, Judy Perdue, Paulette Duke, Cathy Tharrington, and Judy Duke. I wonder why S. N., J. P., and C. T. got quiet after 1:30 a.m.? Also, why J. W., P. D., and J. D. kept complaining about their HG FEET?

Well, thanks for your letters,

At 87 Great Grandmother Back For VBS

Those who cringe before the rigors of Vacation Bible School receive no comfort from Mrs. P. J. Brewer of Popular Springs Church near Zebulon. At 87 she plans to spend her seventh consecutive year as VBS worker in the nursery.

She contributes considerable experience in the field of children care since she has five living children, 12 grandchildren and 23 great grandchildren among the membership of Popular Springs and neighboring churches.
