

Loftin, Spencer Pledge Vows At Trinity

Miss Linda Rose Spencer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Harris Spencer, Sr., of Louisburg, and Barry Neal Loftin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Cleveland Loftin, also of Louisburg, were united in marriage Sunday, July 14, at 3:30 P.M. at Trinity Methodist Church.

The Rev. Barbie Parsons officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Cecil W. Robbins, organist, and Rev. Roy O. Swift, III, vocalist, presented the wedding music. Rev. Swift sang "Whither Thou Goest," "O Perfect Love," and "The Wedding Prayer."

Arrangements of ferns at the altar formed the background for two tall cathedral candleholders bearing lighted tapers. On either side of the arched prayer bench stood seven branched candelabras also bearing lighted tapers. Baskets of white glads and white carnations were placed among the ferns.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full length gown of silk organza over bridal taffeta, fashioned with chantilly lace yoke embroidered in sequins and seed pearls. The bouffant skirt featured back oblique panels with lace medallion trim. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was attached to a crown of looped pearls and crystals. She carried a white Bible topped with stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Ronald T. Hudson of Roxobel, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a street length dress of pastel pink silk organza over taffeta with chantilly lace bodice and a matching pink headdress with flirtation veil. She carried a cascade of better time roses.

Mr. C. C. Loftin, father of the groom, was best man. Ushers included Harris Spencer and Bobby Spencer, brothers of the bride, Grant Loftin, brother of the groom, and Larry Hudson.

The bride's mother wore a sheath dress of pink Irish linen with matching accessories and a purple orchid corsage. The mother of the groom wore a sheath dress of beige lace with matching accessories and a bronze orchid corsage. The groom's paternal grandmother wore a navy dress and accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Following the ceremony, the couple received in the church vestibule.

For her wedding trip the bride wore a pink silk linen sheath with matching accessories and the orchid lifted from her Bible.

Following a trip to the mountains, the couple will be at home in Louisburg.

The groom is a graduate of Louisburg High School and is employed by Motor Bearings and Parts Co., of Louisburg.

The bride is a graduate of Louisburg High School and Louisburg College and is now employed by The Franklin Times in Louisburg.

CAKE CUTTING

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Smith, aunt and uncle of the bride, entertained at a cake cutting after the rehearsal Saturday evening at their home. Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Johnson, Jr., aunt and uncle of the bride, received at the door.

The table was covered with a lace cloth over green and was centered with a green and white floral arrangement flanked by lighted white tapers.

The crystal punch bowl was placed on one end of the table and the tiered bridal cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom was on the other end. The color scheme of green and white was used throughout.

Mrs. A. H. Spencer served bridal cake, nuts and mints and Mrs. C. C. Loftin served lime punch.

Goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Clay.

Out of town guests were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lewis, Mrs. Vernon Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Sanders and sons, High Point, N.C.; Mrs. Charlie Loftin, Troy; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Morris, Scottie and Andy Morris, Denton, N.C.

Rev. Foushee At Baptist Hospital

The Rev. Garland L. Foushee, pastor of Peace Baptist Church in Zebulon, is taking a special eight weeks' course in pastoral care of the sick at North Carolina Baptist Hospital at Winston-Salem. In addition to attending lectures students spend much time on the wards counseling patients under supervision of hospital chaplains.

A graduate of Wake Forest College, he has held pastorates in Maysville and in Henderson. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Foushee who live in Moncure.

Classes are so arranged that ministers are able to return to their pulpits for Sunday ser-

Miss Baker, Bride-elect Is Honored At Shower

A miscellaneous shower honoring Miss Betty Jo Baker, bride-elect of Neil Hight, was given Friday night at the home of Mrs. N. M. Edwards.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. N. M. Edwards, Mrs. Bobbie Wrenn, Mrs. Colleen Ott, Mrs. Lizzie Wilder, and Mrs. Mary Smith.

Upon arrival the honoree was presented a corsage of white carnations.

The refreshment table, covered with a white lace table cloth, was centered with an arrangement of carnations, gladiolas, chrysanthemums, and fern, carrying out a green and white color scheme.

Refreshments consisted of punch, wedding cakes, mints, and nuts. Mrs. Richard Baker, mother of the honoree, presided at the punch bowl.

Approximately 40 guests were present. (CO)
