Epsom Lions Hear Rev. Joiner

A report on a district installation meeting in Raleigh was given at a meeting of the Epsom Lions club Thursday night by the Rev. Willis Joiner. Six Epsom Lions and their wives attended the district meeting Monday night.

The Rev. Mr. Joiner gave a resume of a talk made by past international president Lion Jack Stickley in which Lion Stickley stated that all club members should have aims, action and achievement.

The Rev. Mr. Joiner pointed out some needs of the community and stated that the club should show by deeds that it is a service organization.

Osmond Garrard announced that the Epsom Lions junior baseball team won the championship in a league of 11 participating teams. The 33 boys on the team will be entertained at a welner roast and hamburger supper August 15. Lions club members will play a "sporting" game of baseball with the junior champions at six o'clock prior to the supper.

Secretary Bobby Moss presented J. K. Weldon a membership key awarded by the international organization for bringing in five new active Lions during the past year.

Lion president B. M. Newman presented each member with a list of committee appointments for the year.
