

Ballerina Leads Concert Series

The Louisburg College Concert Series opens the 1963-64 season with Marina Svetlova, Prima Ballerina of the Paris and New York Metropolitan Operas. She will appear in the college auditorium on Monday night, October 28, with George Zoritch, Moscow-born star of the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo; Jose Barrera, Flamenco dancer from Madrid, and Danish concert pianist, Theodor Haig. America's most recorded choir, the Norman Luboff Choir, conducted by Mr. Luboff, and accompanied by an instrumental ensemble will provide a premier tour concert on Monday night, November 25. The appearance of this famous choir will be limited to Charlotte, Greensboro, Durham, Louisburg and Greenville.

MARINA SVETLOVA

Benjamin Swalin will return with the North Carolina Symphony Orchestra and soloists on February 12, and the 80-member State Symphony Band, conducted by Donald B. Adcock, will conclude the series on March 11.

Perry's WMS Meets

The Woman's Missionary Society of Perry's Chapel Baptist Church was called to order by the president, Mrs. Watson Mitchiner, Wednesday night by singing "I Love To Tell The Story."

For a bible study and meditation Mrs. Mitchiner used Luke 24: 36-48 after which Mrs. U. G. Woodlief led in prayer remembering the missionaries in Uruguay, Thailand, Brazil, Indonesia, East Africa, Jordan and Cuba.

The Mission Study chairman reminded the members of the study of the mission book "Annie Armstrong."

The nominating committee presented a slate of officers for the 1963-64 year.

The program "Turning Away from our area were: Mrs. Ann From the Truth of God" was Abernathy, teacher at Red Oak, presented by the Betty Hogan Mrs. Monelle Batchelor-Coop-Circle. This discussion was Mrs. Evelyn Glover-Benvenne, Mrs. Verona Langford, Mrs. Horace Marshall, Bevenne, Mrs. Sarah Mat-Mrs. U. G. Woodlief. (SOW)

Teenage Chat

By Betty W. Summerlin

Heard that Ford Perry is now home from the hospital, and he's making a fine recovery. We all hope to see you around again real soon Ford, so hurry and get completely well. I'd like to remind you all again that Teen Age Club has been moved back to the Louisburg Armory. Be sure to come down on Friday nights and have a good time.

Well, it won't be long now before many of our teens will be leaving town again going back to college. I know we will miss all of you. However, rumor has it that there are quite a few teens who will be very happy when the Louisburg College students return. How about this Faye? As our local high schools re-open, I hope all of you will work very hard this year and make the best of this school year. Anyway, I'd like to wish you all the best of luck.

I got a card from Milena Strickland who has been in Bel Air, Maryland, and Pennsylvania. She says she is having a wonderful time and to tell all "Hello."

Now, as this is the last time I will be writing Teenage Chat, I would like to take this opportunity to express my appreciation to each one of you. I can truthfully say that this experience has been one of the most gratifying ones of my life, and I'd like to thank each one of you for your faithful support. Writing this column has given me the opportunity to meet and make many new friends from all parts of the county and even a few from other counties. I deeply appreciate every letter and card you have sent me and each telephone call I have received.

I only hope that you will give your new Teenage Chat reported the support you have given me. I would also like to thank the staff of the Franklin Times. No one could have been easier to work with and they really made writing this column enjoyable for me. Thank you! I'm sure you all agree with me when I say that all of my guest writers have been very good, but as only one girl can be chosen, I'd like to wish her the best of luck and I hope she will enjoy writing this column as much as I have. Now, in closing, I would like to thank you all again and to wish each one of you the very best life has to offer.

Lighting Studied At Wood

The Wood Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. LaVerne Gupton Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. W. D. Fuller presiding over the meeting.

"I'll Take You Home Again, Kathleen" was the opening song. Devotional was rendered by Mrs. LaVerne Gupton, who read passages of scripture from the book of psalms. The club creed was repeated in unison.

The secretary called the roll and read the minutes of the previous meeting followed by a short business session.

Mrs. Frances Fuller gave a most interesting and helpful demonstration on "Following a Lighting Recipe". She stressed the importance of knowing what's under the shades of good lamps, using good floor lamps for reading, using good table lamps for reading, studying and for general overall lighting. She informed the club women that the three basic ideas in lighting for better living are: light for each seeing task, general room lighting and careful planning for beauty and efficiency. The hostess served ice cream and cake during the social hour. (DP)

Improved

Mrs. Pattie King Minger, formerly of Route 3, Zebulon, is resting comfortably and much improved in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Viola Richards of Route 2, Wendell, N. C. near Lake Merl and Bethany Church.

Professional Group Meets

The Nash-Franklin Home Economics Professional Group held its regular meeting Friday, August 23, 1963 in the Bevenne Home Economics Department.

Mrs. Evelyn Glover and Mrs. Verona Langford, hostesses, served lemonade, nuts and assorted cookies. Mrs. Ruth Perry called the meeting to order. After several items were discussed, the chairman declared the business session adjourned.

The program was presented by Miss Ann Lassiter, Assistant Supervisor of Vocational Home Economics Education. She spoke on "Classroom Instruction" and gave helpful suggestions for a simple and yet complete outline to follow in planning the year's work in the home economics program.

A Household Equipment Conference was held August 21 and 22, 1963 in the Durham Civic Center, Durham, North Carolina. This conference was sponsored by the North Carolina Home Economics Association.

Mrs. Marjorie Leonard, Home Economics Teacher from Louisburg, N. C. had a part on the program and helped plan for the conference. Other home economics teachers attending from our area were: Mrs. Ann From the Truth of God" was Abernathy, teacher at Red Oak, presented by the Betty Hogan Mrs. Monelle Batchelor-Coop-Circle. This discussion was Mrs. Evelyn Glover-Benvenne, Mrs. Verona Langford, Mrs. Horace Marshall, Bevenne, Mrs. Sarah Mat-Mrs. U. G. Woodlief. (SOW)

To Teach In Baltimore

RAYMOND DUNSTON

Raymond M. Dunston, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Otha Dunston of Route 1, Louisburg, signed a contract recently to teach English at the William Lemmel Junior High School of Baltimore, Maryland.

Dunston is a 1959 graduate of the Riverside Union School, Louisburg. He received the Bachelor of Arts degree in both English and Social Studies at St. Augustine's College, Raleigh, North Carolina, May 27, 1963.

An additional duty of Dunston's is to work with students who are in dramatics.

Along with his school work, he contemplates taking evening classes at the University of Maryland, leading to the Master of Arts degree in his field of preparation.
