

Nash - Franklin Home Economics Teachers Meet

The Nash-Franklin Home Economics Professional Group met Monday in the Louisburg High School with Mrs. Marjorie Leonard as hostess. After a brief business session led by Mrs. Ruth Perry, chairman of the group, Mrs. Leonard introduced the speaker, Miss Emily Burt Person, home economics teacher at Warrenton.

Miss Person's topic for discussion was "Human Development," which included the areas of child development and family relations. Representing the home economics teachers of North Carolina, she had attended a workshop on "Child Development," which was held in Detroit, Michigan last July. During the discussion new concepts and generalizations of teaching Human Development to students were given. It was pointed out that one matures at different levels and stages throughout life--age not necessarily being a factor. Each individual has his own pattern or rate at which he grows. In summary, Miss Person quoted from a well known author, "As a child of my parents, one says of himself, 'I ought to do the best I can to become the sort of person I partly am and wholly hope to be.'"

Others attending the meeting were: Mrs. Evelyn Glover, Mrs. Hulda Wilson, Mrs. Ann Abernathy, Mrs. Sarah Matthews, Mrs. Jaleen Mode, and Mrs. Christine Shirley.

News from Hollywood

Tom Lowell will make his motion picture debut in "The Carpetbaggers." Previously Lowell has appeared frequently on television, including many segments of "Combat" and "The Alfred Hitchcock Show."

Polly Bergen will wear eighteen gowns, designed by Howard Shoup, for her role as the first woman President of the United States in "Kisses For My President." She will co-star with Fred MacMurray.

Having left her home in Switzerland, Audrey Hepburn has settle in Hollywood where she is making the film version of "My Fair Lady." Andre Previn will direct the music.

Recovered from a serious back injury, Gene Kelly will soon begin work on "I Love Louisa." He will co-star with Shirley Maclaine in this musical comedy.

Just The Same

Jack--Do you act toward your wife the same as you did before you were married?

Bill--Just the same. I remember when I first fell in love with her I would lean over the fence of her house, gaze at her shadow on the curtain, afraid to go in. And I do the same thing now.

Engagement Announced

MISS JOYCE ROSE PERRY's engagement to Mr. Robert Allen Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Robert Williams of Ahoskie, North Carolina, is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Wesley Perry of Louisburg, North Carolina. A December 29th wedding is planned.

To Whom, Pray Tell

The He--"What is this thing called Love?"
The She--"The tenth word in a telegram."

The Wrong Companion

"Ah, sighed the sentimental girl, "I could sit and gaze at the moon for hours."
"Would I were the man in it!" said the youth who wasn't the one.
"I agree with that," she replied wearily; "then you would be several hundred thousand miles away."

About Your Home

If you wish to improve your soil, it will be necessary to add humus and fertilizers in the proper amounts to your existing soil.

As high as ten per cent of a good garden soil should be humus. This humus may be made up of a number of things, such as peat moss, ground corncobs, leaf mold, animal manure, decomposed organic matter from compost piles, old sawdust, rotted wood, green manure, straw or hay, pine straw, hull from nuts, or a combination of any number of these things. If the soil is chiefly clay, it should be turned over in the fall so that the humus works its way in, assisted by the weather. The addition of dolomitic or agricultural lime, plus sand, may help break up the soil.

Your soil may be too light--containing too much sand. Humus must be added as much to build up the soil gradually so that it may retain moisture. It is a fact that fertilizers, either organic or inorganic, add minerals and chemicals to help break down clay soil and build up those which are sandy. Dried manures are expensive but easy to use. They are labelled as to the nutritional content. Fish refuse is a complete fertilizer, containing nitrogen, phosphorus and potash. Bone meal is high in potash. Fertilizers are mixed so that all the elements are available in one package.

The consistency of soil can be tested in the hand. If slightly moist, soil will form a hard ball when pressed. This is clay. Good loam, or silt under the same conditions, will be loose or crumbly.

Adding lime will correct an acid condition of the soil which sometimes develops because of poor drainage. Grass may require lime every three or four years.

A zigzag stitcher or a straight stitcher, a cabinet or a portable type--these are questions often asked by women thinking of buying a sewing machine. If you are shopping for a sewing machine, there is a wide range available to choose from.

Two questions you might ask yourself to help you make the right decision are: "What kind of sewing do I do, and how often do I use a machine?" If you use a machine for plain sewing without machine-made decorative effects, a straight-stitching machine will be satisfactory. If you do a great deal of sewing that calls for decorative stitching and embroidery, a zigzag machine will be useful.

A zigzag type is the more expensive, and you should decide whether you do enough specialty --type sewing to warrant the added expense.

You may be trying to decide between a cabinet and a portable-type machine; just remember that a good cabinet with well supported-frames and sturdy legs gives good sewing support and is always ready for use.

His Lucky Day

Sonny--Daddy, do you remember where it was that you first met mama?

Daddy--Yes, son, I recall that it was at a party where there were 13 at the table.
