

Miss Foster, Mr. King Pledge Vows

The wedding of Miss Lois Braxton Foster and William Garland King was solemnized September 22 in the Mt. Zion Baptist Church.

The Rev. T. S. Lolley, pastor of the bride, officiated. The vows were spoken before an altar decorated with emerald palms, seven-branch candelabra bearing cathedral candles, and baskets of white gladioli, chrysanthemums and pompons.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. John L. Foster and the late Mr. Foster, of Louisburg. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert G. King of Warrenton.

Prior to the ceremony, Miss Irma Gupton, organist, and George Morris West, soloist, rendered a program of nuptial music. Mr. West's selections were "I Love You Truly," "Whither Thou Goest," and "The Lord's Prayer" as a benediction.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Wilton Brantley Foster, of Durham, wore a formal gown of silk organza over taffeta, with a fitted bodice of lace over net. The scalloped neckline was trimmed with seed pearls and sequins with three quarter length sleeves.

Her veil of imported silk tulle was attached to a crown of iridescent rhinestones and she carried a cascade bouquet of white feathered carnations and daisy poms centered with a georgianna.

Miss Lucy Foster, of Durham, and sister of the bride, was Maid of Honor. She wore a mint green dress of silk organza over taffeta and a matching headpiece.

Bridesmaids were Miss Linda Foster, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Gene Pleasants, of Greenville. Their dresses were of pink silk organza over taffeta, and matching headpieces. All attendants carried pink and white cascade bouquets of daisy poms.

Herbert King, Jr., of South Hill, Virginia, and brother of the bridegroom, served as best man.

Ushers were Billy Foster, brother of the bride, Payton King, of Raleigh, brother of the bridegroom, Junious Harp, of Louisburg, and Norman Heathcock, Jr., of Henderson.

The grandmothers and the organist wore corsages of white carnations.

Mrs. Foster, mother of the bride, wore a teal blue dress with matching accessories and a corsage of white butterfly roses.

The couple received in the vestibule of the church following the ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of Gold Sand High School and is employed by Carolina Sportswear Co. in Warrenton. The bridegroom is a graduate of John Graham High School and holds a position with Home Beneficial Insurance Co. in Henderson.

After a wedding trip to the mountains, the couple will reside in Louisburg.

CAKE CUTTING

The wedding party was honored at a cake-cutting given by Mrs. John L. Foster, and sisters Saturday night at her home.

Miss Lucy Foster, sister of the bride, welcomed the guests. After the first slice was cut by the bride and groom, Mrs. Foster served cake to approximately 75 guests.

MRS. WILLIAM GARLAND KING

The refreshment table was decorated with candelabra bearing cathedral candles, white roses, pompons and carnations were used as the centerpiece.

The hostesses presented the bride with a corsage of white pompons.

Garden Club Makes Terrariums

The Perennial Junior Garden Club held its first meeting on September 19th at the home of their counselor, Mrs. Marvin Pleasants.

On arriving, members were served iced drinks, cookies and peanuts. The hostess for the afternoon was Rita Patterson.

Each member received her year book and a hand book on "Flower Arranging." The year's work was discussed by the counselor.

Mrs. W. H. Allen, Jr., guest speaker for the afternoon, showed the club how to make terrariums. Each member made a terrarium to take home. Officers for the new club are as follows: President, Betsy Green; Vice President, Vell Freeman; Treasurer, Anita Tillotson; Secretary, Ann Merritt; Historian, Maplyn Stewart; and Reporter, Rita Patterson.

Miss Murphy To Work In Raleigh

Miss Judy Carol Murphy, daughter of Mrs. Clarence Murphy, Castalia, Route 1, has accepted a position as bookkeeper for Raleigh's Auto Supply Co. in Raleigh beginning September 18.

Judy is a graduate of Edward Best High School and a graduate of Miller-Motte Business College in Wilmington, N. C.

Engagement Announced

NANCY CATHERINE MEADOWS

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Clement Meadows of Route 1, Garner, N. C. announce the engagement of their daughter, Nancy Catherine, to Henry Clay Taylor, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Taylor, Jr., of Louisburg, N. C. A mid-fall wedding is planned for N. C. State College Chapel, Raleigh, N. C.

Louisburg Book Clubs

Mrs. I. D. Moon was hostess to the first meeting of the year of the Current Literature Club with the following members present: Mesdames Malcolm McKinnie, Collin McKinne, C. W. Robbins, Douglas T. House, L. L. Brinkley, Genevieve Perry, M. S. Davis and Miss Sarah Richardson.

Mrs. Davis presented the program booklets for the year which featured attractive hand painted covers.

The introduction and program survey on the subject for the study this year - Lost Worlds - was presented by Mrs. House. She then gave a study of ancient civilizations that have been destroyed and are now being rediscovered by archaeological excavations.

A feature of the program was an interesting account by Mrs. Moon of her trip this summer to the Pacific Northwest, Canada and other points.

The hostess served a delicious dessert course.

The Tuesday Afternoon Book Club met at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Isley. Lovely arrangements of fall flowers were used to decorate her home.

Mrs. V. E. Duncan was in charge of the program for the afternoon. She gave a brief study of Alaska and Hawaii which brought the study from last year up to date.

The hostess served a delicious pastry cake to the following members: Mesdames Woodrow Warren, Willis Nash, L. J. Peoples, Doyle Medders, Patie Justice, M. M. Person, Sr., V. E. Duncan, George M. West, M. S. Clifton, Walter McDonald and W. J. Cooper, Jr., and guests, Mesdames Helen Stephenson and J. H. Talton.

Mrs. H. J. Lewis was hostess to the Edwin Fuller Book Club on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. James B. King on North Main Street.

Continuing their study of Great Religions of the World, Mrs. James Clayton read an interesting paper prepared by Mrs. G. M. Beam on The Religion of Primitive People.

In the absence of Mrs. R. G. Bailey, Mrs. Clayton also gave the reading for the afternoon - a discussion of Duke University and its new president.

The hostess assisted by Mrs. King served a delicious supper plate and dessert to club members and two special guests, Mrs. B. N. Williamson and Mrs. W. D. Florence, formerly of Burlington and House Counselor at Louisburg College.

Mrs. E. M. Bartholomew was hostess to the O'Henry Book Club on Tuesday afternoon at her home on the Henderson road.

Mrs. George Davis continued the program study on the Hawaiian Islands by discussing in a most interesting way how the islands came to be, plants and animals and The First Hawaiians.

Soft Hawaiian music was enjoyed throughout the program and flowers were presented each member as special favors.

A delicious supper plate with dessert indicative of the Islands was served to fifteen members present.

Church is one place you can always get something for nothing.

The best way to make Louisburg a good town is by making yourself a good citizen.

In Fashion

Coachman style skirts or the wrap around kind lined with a print to match the blouse is a favorite with college girls this year.

Clothes for these girls have lost their frills and have a very casual, durable look. Boots, knee socks and culottes are on the list for the back-to-school girls.

One of the favorite colors this season is cranberry. This is particularly good as an accent for neutral colored suits.

Remember the knickerbockers of yesteryear with suede patches on the knee? Well the present day bulky sweaters are sporting these patches today on their elbows.

Mrs. Lartz Club Hostess

Mrs. Frances Fuller, Home Agent, gave a most appropriate and informative demonstration on "The Care of Synthetic Fabrics" Monday evening, with Mrs. W. H. Lartz as hostess, at the Seven Paths Home Demonstration Club.

She used a variety of samples showing how the materials washed and were then ironed with a hot or warm iron. We learned that a hot iron on the modern day synthetic fabrics can be a drastic thing and do irreparable damages.

Those present for the demonstration were Mesdames Avery Stallings, Simon Collie, Lucy Wilder, Bertha Moore, E. P. Incoe, Eugene Fisher and Miss Maude Collie. Three visitors attended: Mrs. Coleman Thomas and Miss Carolyn Denton.

The hostess served delicious hot turn-overs with coffee and hot chocolate during the social period. (MEF)

G.S. Grange Has Supper

Monday evening, September 23, the Gold Sand Grange met for its annual supper at the school agricultural building with about 25 members and several guests present.

Barbecued chicken was served along with other appetizing foods.

Election of officers was the only business to come up with Mr. O. F. Tharrington elected worthy master and Mr. James Boyette, overseer.

All present seemed to enjoy the social hour and expect to have a successful year. (MEW)

The Louisburg High School Bulldogs will play the Franklin Rams Friday night in Franklin. Since Franklin and Louisburg schools are the only two schools in the county which have a football team, I am sure there will be "static" in the air and that the game will be a very exciting one.

Everyone please go and support the team of your choice. A large crowd of supporters such as Louisburg had last Friday night really helps the players feel there is someone behind them and helps give them a "boost" while they are playing. Everyone knows how good it feels to have someone behind them instead of feeling they are all alone, and everyone works harder this way too.

The Louisburg High School Cheerleaders are sponsoring a dance this Saturday night, September 28, in the Armory in Louisburg from 7:30 until 11:30. "Put on your dancing shoes" and come on down to the Armory so you can "kick" up your heels and dance or just talk to friends and meet new people. I'm sure you will have a good inexpensive time.

I'm reminding you all again of the revival at the Louisburg Baptist Church this week. The Rev. James H. Blackmore is preaching each night starting at 7:30. Everyone is cordially invited to attend each service.

We are so sorry you are sick, J. W. and the rest of you students in the county who are sick. Hurry and get well so you can return to school. There are many people who are sick with colds and viruses. It seems as if everyone at school is sniffing and blowing their nose and can't talk very well because of hoarseness. Maybe the weather will return to normal and stop jumping from one day to the next from cold to hot and back to cold again. Many people think this type of weather is what is contributing to all the sickness around.

Jeff Bulluck and Frankie Redmond went bowling Sunday afternoon in Henderson. What were those scores again, boys? I want to correct a mistake I made in the last column. I said the first twenty-five people to buy a Louisburg Annual would get a cover for it free. It should be the first one hundred people to buy one. Many annuals have already been sold so if you want a free cover, you'd better buy one now.

There is going to be a friendly "get together" or party at the Centerville firehouse, November 2 for people of ages fifteen through twenty-one. Tickets are now being sold, and you may see about buying one by calling 496-4327. Get your tickets now so you can be sure to go and have a "ball."

The thought for the day is: "Pass no day idly; time does not return." Emerson.

Leonards Celebrate Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Leonard were honored on their 51st wedding anniversary, September 22, 1963 by the pastor, Dr. D. P. Lewis, and the congregation of the South Main Street Baptist Church, Louisburg, N. C. Wishes were extended them for God's blessing and many more happy years together.
