Coronation Service Held For Wood GA's

"The Royal Diadem" was the theme of the Wood Baptist Church Annual Girls' Auxiliary Coronation which was held Sunday night.

The GA is a Youth organization of the Woman's Missionary Union. Girls, from nine to fifteen, study the Bible program of the Southern Baptist Convention in this country and the different countries of the world in which there are Baptist Missionaries.

The scripture was read by Mrs. LaVerne Gupton and prayer by Mrs. Ben Gupton. The Pastor, Rev. Robert R. Boone, gave a talk on the GA's counselors, directors and parents, about the missionary enterprise and the Christian's World Responsibility.

The following girls were recognized in the Coronation Service: Mardens, Debbie Gupton, Ava Sue Burnette, Mary Jo Denton, Margaret Jones, Judith Gupton, and Patricia Hamlet; Princess, Kathy Gupton, Queens, Tony Gupton, and Paula Raye Gupton.

The members of the GA Reviewing Council are Mrs. Robert R. Boone, Jr., Mrs. Ray Lewis; Mrs. Joe Denton; and Mrs. Pauline Taylor; The GA counselors are Miss Dell Pearce and Mrs. Pauline Taylor.

Immediately following the coronation service a reception was held in the church dining room sponsored by the Woman's Missionary Union. The refreshment table was decorated with GA colors of green and yellow. The white cloth was centered with an arrangement of flowers, and white candles in a candelabra were used for lighting the room.

Health And Beauty

Self-confidence could be described as the basis of good health and beauty. This is recognized by doctors everywhere. A happy, healthy mind, with a normal outlook on life, is essential.

Millions of dollars are being spent on research and treatment in this field each year. A happy home life, starting from the time a baby is born, is the most important single contributing factor.

Some personalities require more understanding and love than others. If you find you have an oversensitive child, and feel that this quality is making him unhappy, consult a child psychologist. This will save the parent and child years of worry and unhappiness.

The symptoms of over-sensitivity are often-times hard for a layman to detect. One couple with an over-sensitive son were told that the boy was men-

Too Polite

A welfare worker, upon hearing a poor woman's story that her husband had deserted her five years before, looked with amazement at the brood of infant children, and asked, "Who is their father?"
"My husband, of course," she answered.
"Then he hasn't really left you?"
"Oh, yes; he's deserted me, all right. But you see he comes back now and then to apologize."
