

Mrs. Sykes Speaks To Legion Auxiliary

Mrs. Cecil R. Sykes spoke to the members of the American Legion Auxiliary on Rehabilitation and Civil Defense Friday evening in the home of Mrs. E. L. Best, Jr., on John Street.

Mrs. Sykes noted the Auxiliary rehabilitation was centered in education, the community, and in veteran hospitals. As to Civil Defense, she reviewed instructions for dealing with fallouts and spoke on the necessity of being prepared.

Mrs. John Stovall gave the devotions, after which Mrs. F. M. Fuller, president, led in the opening formalities.

Accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Best, the group sang the "Star Spangled Banner" and enjoyed singing Christmas Carols, following the program.

Mrs. Stovall, gift shop chairman, reported on the gifts sent to the four veteran's hospitals. Mrs. Fuller read several bulletins received from Headquarters and also asked for a volunteers to go to Veteran's Hospital in Durham Wednesday, December 11, to assist with the gift shop.

Mrs. Best served fruit cake, cookies, coffee and tea to twelve members.

College Actors Are Honored

Seven Louisburg College sophomores were initiated December 4 into Delta Psi Omega, national dramatics honorary society.

Those honored were: Carolyn Burns of Maple Shade, N. J.; Myfanwy Ward of Aruba, Netherlands Antilles; Neill McDonald of Raleigh; Fred Cook of Rochester, N. Y.; Tom Vaughan of Ashland, Va.; Jon Armstrong and Bill Shelburne of Richmond, Va. The initiating team was composed of Nancy Berger, Dave Garber, Jean Jones, and Skyler Odom; all active members of the society.

Delta Psi Omega is dedicated to recognizing and encouraging standards of excellence in college theatre across the nation. According to faculty advisor Bob Versteeg, the present size of the Louisburg chapter at eleven members reflects the hard work of the students and the college's expanding offerings in the field of drama.

Thanks

We would like to thank everyone for the kindness shown us during the bereavement of my wife and our mother, especially to Dr. W. F. Cole of Bunn and the Louisburg Rescue service. Also thanks for the beautiful flowers, cards and prayers. Mr. M. L. Ransdell and children

COLORED BIRTHS

Isaac and Olivia Alston Cooper of Rt. 4, Louisburg, announce the birth of a boy, born on December 9, 1963.

Rep. Speed Speaks To G. S. Grange

At a regular meeting of Gold Sand Grange on Monday, November 25, several important matters were discussed and new officers were installed to serve the ensuing year.

Rep. James Speed explained some of the very important reasons why the new Constitutional Amendment (sometimes referred to as The Little Federal Plan) which will be voted on January 14, 1964, should have strong support from all of Franklin County people as well as all other eastern and rural counties of North Carolina.

After a brief discussion, the group went on record as favoring the new amendment and pledged to solicit support for same.

A big vote favoring the plan on January 14 will mean better government in North Carolina. (MEW)

S. S. Class Has Dinner

(Frk. B.W.) The Rose Wesley Class of the Franklinton Methodist Church enjoyed a Christmas Dinner at the community house Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock.

The tables were decorated with red poinsettias flanked by white candles. A turkey dinner with all the trimmings was served. During the dessert course, Mrs. L. A. Thompson, Sr., read a Christmas poem. Miss Swannie Fuller presided over a short business session at which time Mrs. B. B. Nowell gave a financial report. Miss Lela Allen gave the corresponding secretary's report.

The exchange of Christmas gifts concluded the activities of the evening.

Teenage Chat

By Faye Rudd

The Louisburg Bulldogs played Littleton Friday night. The girls lost, but the boys won with a score of 41 to 36. They will play Townsville at Townsville Tuesday night. Edward Best played Gold Sand Friday night at Edward Best. Edward Best girls won, and Gold Sand boys won. Epsom played Millbrook and lost.

Watch out! Another sophomore is turning sixteen. You will finally be "sweet sixteen" Wednesday, Wauna. Hope you have a happy birthday.

W. O., what is this I hear about your bowling Saturday? Is it true that the ball went backwards instead of down the alley? Whose foot did it hit?

Rachel Wynne, what is that which sparkles on your left hand? Could you and Sidney M. be expecting to hear wedding bells in the future? What about you, Shirley Robbins?

Marriage seems to be the subject these days. Clay Taylor and Nancy Meadows married Thanksgiving Day. Mike Rowe and Becky Harris married a week or so ago. Lucy Elam got married about a week ago. Perry Thomas Frazier married this past week end.

Saturday was the big day for many Seniors in the county. This was the day of taking the College Entrance Examination. Some students went to Henderson and some to Raleigh. Those who took it last year who took it again Friday all expressed the same opinion. They all said it was much harder than last year.

It's very nice to have Tommy Pergerson back in school again. Also Bob Hobgood has his cast off his leg now. Hope you both feel as good as new.

All of the Y. W. A. girls of Louisburg Baptist Church remember the Christmas supper Wednesday night at seven o'clock at Mrs. Ralph Knott's. Be sure to come.

The thought for the day is: "When once thou hast conceived and determined thy mission within thy soul, let naught arrest thy steps."
