

Mrs. Julian Speaks On Creative Decorations

(Frk. B.W.) The Franklinton Woman's Club met in the home of Mrs. Charles Julian on Tuesday evening for their December meeting.

Mrs. Julian, program leader, gave an informative talk about creative Christmas decorations. She advised the clubwomen to choose a color scheme, using two predominant colors and then adding in a neutral color. Decorations should begin with the door and continue throughout the house. The talented speaker suggested that an arrangement, which is symbolic of the season, be used—such as a Madonna or nativity scene. As she talked, Mrs. Julian called attention to the arrangements in her living room.

Besides giving many helpful speaker displayed tools and mechanics for decorating. Including Mrs. Julian urged the women to decorate each room in their homes and also include the back door.

Mrs. Raymond Harris, club president, presided over the business session. Mrs. H. F.

Fuller read a memorial for two charter club members who passed away during the summer.

Mrs. J. E. Whitfield gave the corresponding secretary's report.

Mrs. R. C. Whitfield, chairman of the Home Life Department, reported that a senior citizen had been remembered on her 82nd birthday with a gift from the club.

Mrs. R. W. Moore reported that additional magazines had been placed in the Town Library.

A social hour concluded the meeting. Punch, fruit cake and Christmas candles were served.

Justice HD Club Has Dinner

The ladies of the Justice Home Demonstration Club held their annual Christmas dinner at Edwards Restaurant in Spring Hope Friday evening.

There were twenty-two present including the club members, their husbands and other invited guests.

The decorations used on the table were red poinsettias with greenery flanked by red candles.

Following the meal everyone was given a pencil and paper and asked to compose a poem. The reading of the poems added much to the merriment of the festivities. After singing several Christmas carols the group dispersed to make their way home after an evening of wonderful fellowship together. (JAP)

Tuesday night Gold Sand played Dabney in basketball and won both the boys' and girls' games. Also Bunn played Youngsville and won both games.

Louisburg plays Gold Sand Friday night in the Louisburg gym. Be sure to come. It should prove to be a very exciting game.

What's this I hear about H. C. and J. M. getting married? Is it really true?

Report cards came out Wednesday. From what I hear there are some students worried about getting restrictions. I guess this is the usual response to report cards.

Wednesday, about time to go to school it started sleeting. Everyone was very excited, hoping school would close for the day. As it happened, they were all disappointed.

Dwight Perdue is in the hospital. We are all sorry, Dwight, and are hoping you will return to school soon.

Kate Huggins, we are sorry to hear that you can't talk these days, but I'm sure the rest of your friends will make up for your loss. Hope you are feeling better soon.

The county Recitation-Declamation contest will be held Thursday night in the Louisburg Auditorium at seven o'clock. From Louisburg, the contestants are Becky Mosely giving "The Sleepwalking Scene From Macbeth" and Larry Joyner giving "Withdrawal from the Union" by Jefferson Davis. I am sure you will regard it as a nice well spent.

Winnie M., Johnney S., Sammy H., Vonnie S., Danny R., Larry R., "Punk" W., Peggy R., and Faye S. went to see the Dick Clark Caravan of Stars last Friday night. From what I hear it was really good.

The thought for the day is: "Do you know why the work you accomplish fails either to give pleasure to yourself or others? It is because it is not cheerfully done, and therefore appears discolored." C. H. Yonge

Franklinton Fabrics Have Party

(Frk. B.W.) Christmas operating schedules for the Franklinton Fabrics plant of Burlington Industries were announced today by Mr. John V. Cauthen, Plant Manager, who also revealed plans for the annual
