

Nancy Berger Initiated In Honor Society

Nancy Berger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Berger of 202 Ford Circle, Louisburg, was among the five students who were initiated Tuesday evening into Gamma Upsilon Chapter Phi Theta Kappa Honor Fraternity at Louisburg College.

Mrs. Janet W. Cole, of 227 Chestnut Street, Henderson; Mrs. Alice Marie Peedin, of 228 Peachtree Street, Henderson; Robert Fuller Fleming, of Route 2, Henderson; and Peggy Jo Hooper, of 1208 N. Mebane Street, Burlington were the other initiates.

Phi Theta Kappa is a society open to all junior college students who average a 2.0 or B on all college work and show qualities of leadership and of good moral character. This average must be maintained after initiation for continued membership.

The initiation ceremony was a candlelight service held at 6 p.m. in the Little Chapel at the college. Dan Grinnan, of Richmond, Va., president, presided, assisted by Jackie Parrish, of Route 2, Kenly, N. C., and Susan Daniel, of Oxford, N. C., the vice-president and secretary - treasurer, respectively.

Faculty members, who are Phi Theta Kappa members and sponsors, present were Misses Ruth Merritt, Zaida Coor, Rachael Modlin, and Elizabeth Johnson.

The Lathams Are Honored

A fellowship hour sponsored by the Training Union of the Duke Memorial Baptist Church honoring Mr. and Mrs. Robert Latham was held Sunday evening, December 8 in the educational building.

Mr. Latham is the Tar River Associational Missionary and the family resides in the Justice community.

The refreshment table was laid with a white lace tablecloth and silver and white decorations were used in the center of the table. White candles in silver candle holders interspersed with ivy painted silver, white poinsettias sprinkled with glitter and white bells the whole length of the table.

Refreshments consisted of lemon chiffon cake, assorted nuts, coffee and hot chocolate.

The honored couple were showered with an array of lovely gifts. (JAP)

Popes Has Luncheon

(Frk. B.W.) Pope's Home Demonstration Club had a Christmas luncheon at the home of Mrs. Spurgeon Eakes on Tuesday at 12 noon.

Mrs. L. A. Thompson, Sr., president, planned carnations on the guests as they arrived. A three course luncheon, which included turkey and all the trimmings, was served to the guests. At the conclusion of the meal, Mrs. Thompson read a Christmas reading. Gifts were exchanged.

Special guests were Mrs. Lillie Mae Dean, Mrs. Frances Fuller, Mrs. Virginia Brown, Miss Nellie Whitfield and Mrs. Charles Best.

Parties Honor Bride-Elect

A floating shower was held at Cedar Rock Fellowship Building in Castalia honoring Miss Peggy Cash of Youngsville last week. Mr. Charles G. Pearce, of Castalia, and Miss Cash will marry on December 22. Hostess for the event was Mrs. Bob Pearce of Henderson.

A lovely floral arrangement of white and pink roses, with white ribbon and net was used as the centerpiece on the serving table. Crystal candle holders with pink candles were placed on each side of the centerpiece. A crystal punch bowl and silver trays were used for serving. On the gift table there was an arrangement of white roses and lily of the valley with greenery. Refreshments consisted of lime green punch, decorated cake squares, nuts, mints and openface crackers.

Upon arrival the honoree was given a corsage of feathered carnations with white wedding bells.

The bride-elect received many nice and useful gifts.

Miss Peggy Cash of Youngsville was honored on December 7 with a dessert hour given by Mrs. Jackson Dean, Sr., and Mrs. Jackson Dean, Jr., at the home of the latter. Miss Cash will wed Mr. Charles G. Pearce, of Castalia, on December 22, 1963.

The honoree was presented a corsage of white carnations and an ice tea glass and water goblet in her chosen pattern of crystal.

Floral arrangements of white and pink carnations with greenery and pink ribbons were used in decorating throughout the home.

Refreshments of ice cream cake, peanuts and coffee were served to the following guests: Miss Cash, Mesdames James Cash, mother of the bride-elect, Urban Pearce, mother of the groom-to-be, Ruth Pearce, Eva Hoyle, Mable Roberts, Violet Landreth, Ava Jane Hudson, Peggy Tucker, Louise Jefferys, Barbara Young, Martha Grey Debar, and Misses Polly Roberts and Phyllis Jefferys.

Bride-elect, Miss Peggy Cash of Youngsville, was honored at a Coke hour given by Mrs. Barbara Young and Mrs. Faye Layton at the home of Mrs. Faye Layton last week.

The home was decorated with an arrangement of wedding bells and lily of the valley with net and greenery. Of particular interest was a wedding arrangement of a bride and groom, and several small dolls in wedding attire.

The serving table was centered with a bride and groom with crystal candleholders and candles on each side.

Cokes, cookies, potato-chips, assorted pickles, and openface crackers were served the following guests: Miss Cash, Mesdames Carolyn Pearce, Betty Pearce, Nancy Beasley, and Misses Jean Pearce, Judy Pearce, Mary Iva Wrenn, Phyllis Roberts, Judith Holden, Phyllis Jefferys, and Jenny Vee Wiggins.

The honoree was presented a corsage of white carnations, and an ice tea glass in her chosen pattern of crystal.

Mrs. Whitaker Entertains

(Frk. B.W.) Mrs. Joe Whitaker entertained her bridge club on Tuesday evening. Her home was decorated in the Christmas motif. Janice Whitaker passed the tallies.

Mrs. L. A. Thompson, Jr., received high score prize while low went to Mrs. Dean Edwards. Mrs. Woodrow Haskins received the guest prize.

Assisted by Mrs. C. H. Weston and Mrs. Tom East, the hostess served fruit cake, egg nog ice cream, nuts and coffee.
