REGISTER Win $100.00

Register every day for Mystery Merchant Grand Prize.

Tel. GY 6-3283

Five Cents

Louisburg, N. C., Thursday, February 27, 1964

(Eight Pages Today)

95th Year-Number 2

Eagles Beat Phantoms

shown, left to right, Phillip Rice (Y20). The Eagles won 47-43. (EB), Wiley Brown (Y), Leon -Times Staff Photo.

Tommy Bunn, left center, and Store (EB 12), Robert Harper Wesley Alford jump for the bas- (Y51), the official is unidentified ketball in last night's Edward Jimmy Murphy (EB22), Ralph Best-Youngsville game. Others Brown (Y5) and James Bailey

Tourney Moves Into Semi-Finals Tonight Are Announced

The Champion Epsom Girls outscored science, Reenie Edna May of Bunn 7-1 in the final period Wednesday Edward Best High School and night to move into the Tourney Champion- Jerry Marshall of Bunn High ship game Friday night. The Epsom Girls School; in English, Emma Ruth won 24-22 in the closing seconds of the Huggins of Louisburg High

The Edward Best Eagles outlasted the my Currin of Epsom High Bunn Bulldogs, 47-43 to move into a semi-

Gold Sand tonight.

Peggy Strickland was high for

In Tuesday's first round play, past a spirited Franklinton squad, 33-38 to move into a

Horton Gets Honor Award

W. H. (Jerry) Horton of Louis-pleline insurance sales and ball game.

Raleigh; M. W. Hester, Creed- last high school game; both are selected moor; J. R. Thompson and W. seniors. N. Bobbitt, Rocky Mount.

Horton has been recipient of the losing Bunn girls with 11 this award on eleven previous points. Sandra Aysque led Epoccasions during his 21-year som with 8. association with Nationwide.

The Louisburg Fire Depart- date tonight with Gold Sand.

Gov's School Nominees

County to the Governor's School are as follows: in natural School; in social sciences, Jimand Jane Elliot McKinne of final berth against Louisburg High School.

Nominees must come from With four seconds the present sophomore and junremaining in the first ion classes and were determined by their scores on cergame Wednesday night, Nora tain standard tests.

The Governor's School is a burg has qualified for membership in 'Challenger Club,' a distinction ac orded certain ac orded certain and distinction ac orded certain ac orded certain the back line for what unique experiment in North Carolina to give students of the state who have indicated tamembers of the Nationwide Insurance agency force.

Membership in the club is based on excellence in multi ball came.

In and White was called for traveling, giving the ball over to Epsom and that was the ball came.

In and White was called for traveling, giving the ball over to Epsom and that was the ball came. hall game.

Leon Stone and Phillip Rice cost to the student. There is no

Leon Stone and Phillip Rice
Horton was among nine agents in the Raleigh sales region to attain this honor. Others are;
L. E. Woodard, Conway; J. P.
Little, Roanoke Rapids; S. T.
Carter, Washington; M. C. Bass
Balley and Harper had 13.
Balley and Harper had 13.
Balley and Harper played their night, Havelock; R. R. Brown, Bailey and Harper played their A total of four hundred will be

August 1909

The old newspaper shown in Tuesday's issue of The Times the Edward Best girls squeezed was published on August 27, 1909. The names that could tentions to seek the office sevbe seen in the lower right side eral weeks ago, but Mangrum of the page were from an ar- filed and made his announce-The Louisburg Fire Depart.

The Louisburg Boys bested a afternoon at 2:50 to the home fiery Epsom five, 61-51 to go of Nathanial Davis, 914 South to the page were from an article of that date concerning a Lawn Party given at Epsom for Lee and May Jones. Many of Franklinton for the past 50 tile and tobacco business.

6 Year Old Third Road Fatality Here

Franklin County counted its third highway he stepped in front of an automobile on High-fatality of the year early Wednesday morn- way 401 around 7:30. The child was crosing when a six-year-old school child was sing the road to wait for his school bus.

killed near his home seven miles north of Jesse Willard Smith, 48, Louisburg, Rt. 3, Louisburg. Jesse Lee Williams, Negro first was the driver of the car. Smith, who lives grader, was struck and killed instantly as near the scene, was on his way to work.

the scene did not indicate speed- Army advisor. ing and that no charges would be filed against Smith in the infantry unit-in the United States accident. However, Day added, Army predating the Constitution Smith was being charged with to 1784. It is responsible for operating a vehicle without a ceremonial and security mislicense. Smith is reported to sions in the nation's capital, have told the Patrolman that including guarding the Tomb of he had not had a driver's li- the Unknown Soldier at Arlingcense for the past twelve ton National Cemetery; conportedly said, a short distance various ceremonial functions, each day to meet his ride to for the President of the United Church on the Warrenton road. ed personnel are assigned to His mother, according to his The Old Guard. grandfather, had moved to the

Franklin County went through January without a single road B. T. Rowe, parents of the solfatality. John Thomas Bulluck, dier Bryant Best, left, and Kyle Jesse Lee Williams lies dead in Pine Ridge man, was the first Prince, members of the Louis- the road. He was struck by a road death when he was killed burg Rescue Squad direct traf- car on his way to meet the school instantly near his home on February 2nd. Bud Bunn 44-yearold Negro man, was killed near Pearce's last Sunday afternoon

The annual drive for Crippled Children and Adults in Franklin' County begins this week end. Mrs. Donald Grif-fin, chairman of the drive, reports that envelops with Easounty residents on Monday, March 2.

As there will be no school solicitations, everyone is urged to send a contribution for the Easter Seals to Mrs. W. H. Horton, Jr., in Louisburg one daughter.

Mangrum said in filing, 341

Local Youth Named To Honor Guard

William Rowe of Louisburg Smith said, "The has been assigned to the famed child stepped right old Guard honorary unit in out in front of the car Washington, D. C., according about five feet away. " to a letter from Col. J. B, Con-State Highway Patrolman D. C. The Louisburg youth is the first my, Jr., commander of the unit. Day investigated the accident ever to receive such an honor and reported it as unavoicable. from this county, according to Day said that skid marks at Capt. Harold E. Luck, local

The Old Guard is the oldest He only drove, he re- ducting military funeral, and States and other American and The Negro youth lived with foreign government officials. his elderly grandfather, Al- Because of its unique and highly pert H. Williams, near Trinity important mission, only select-

"You may take pride in your son being a member of The Old in his letter to Mr. and Mrs.

The Old Guard, known officially as the 1st Battalion, 3rd Infantry, and stationed at Fort Myer, Va., just outside Wash-ington, maintains very high standards. Its training and duties are rigorous and demanding. The Old Guard performs before more people than any other unit. Millions saw them in action during the recent ceremonies surrounding the death of President Kennedy. The soldiers of the Honor Guard were from The Old Guard unit at Fort Myer.

Rowe, 19 years old, is a graduate of Louisburg High School where he was an outstanding ter Seals will be mailed to an entire regiment at Ft. Gor-

Rescue Call

The Louisburg Rescue Serhave retired from these po-sitions, but 1 am not 'Tired'.-terville Wednesday morning a-He added, 'II elected, I shall round 11:30 to aid J. B. Richwork-for the best interes of ardson, 60-year-old Negro, who

Two File For Dist. One Com.

Third Road Fatality Of Year

filed for the May 30th Democratic Primary in Franklin fic at Wednesday morning scene bus.

on Highway 401. Six-year-old

County, John P. Mangrum and W. House have both filed for the District I County Commissioner position being vacated by Commissioner Norris Collins. Collins has filed for the House of Representatives seat now held by Representa-tive James D. Speed.

John W. House, 59-year-old farmer of Franklinton, paid his filing fee Monday and John P. Mangrum, Franklinton Negro Minister, filed last Friday. House had announced his in-Mangrum has been a resident is engaged in the poultry, cat- Christ of Franklinton.

-Times Staff Photo.

House has been a deacon in afternoon at 2:50 to the home of Nathanial Davis, 914 South Main St. A bed had caught fire reportedly from an electric hot plate. The bed, springs and mattress were total losses. Firemen removed the burning furniture from the house.

The post of the past 50 to the home of Nathanial Davis, 914 South Many Jones. Many had asked about these names and other articles shown.

The post of the past 50 to the home into a second round meet with had asked about these names and other articles shown.

The post of the past 20 to go into a second round meet with had asked about these names and other articles shown.

The post of the post of the past 20 to go into a second round meet with had asked about these names and other articles shown.

The post of the post of the past 20 to go into a second round meet with had asked about these names and other articles shown.

The post of the post of the past 20 to go into a second round meet with had asked about these names and other articles shown.

The post of the post of the past 20 to go into a second round meet with had asked about these names and other articles shown.

The post of the post of the past 20 to go into a second round meet with had asked about these names and other articles shown.

The post of the post of the past 20 to go into a second round meet with had asked about these names and other articles shown.

The post of the post of the past 20 to go into a second round meet with had asked about these names and other articles shown.

The post of the post of the past 20 to go into a second round meet with had asked about these names and other articles shown.

The post of the past 20 to go into a second round meet with had asked about these names and other articles shown.

The post of the post of the past 20 to go into a second round meet with had asked about these names and is a member of the past 20 years, and is a member of the past 20 years and is a member of the past 20 years and is a member of the past 20 years and is a member of the past 20 years and is a member of th

Basketball Tournaments Are For

Housecleaning . . . .

Cheering . . . . . .

Hugging .

Worrying

Protecting .

Or Napping .