Symphonic Band To Appear Here

N. C. STATE SYMPHONIC BAND

The eighty-piece North Carolina State Symphonic Band will appear here March 11, at 8 p.m. in the College Auditorium to conclude Louisburg College's concert series for the season. Conducted by Donald B. Adcock, the Symphonic Band is now on its eighth annual concert tour of the state. Solo performers appearing with the Band are Steve Seawright, French horn soloist, of Charlotte, Benjamin Sloan and Robert Johnson, trumpeters, from Waynesville and Wilmington. The Wednesday evening program will be the same as that performed in the Reynolds Coliseum in Raleigh March 9. The repertoire will include selections from Mozart, Strauss, Bizet, Vivaldi, Sousa and others. In addition to these, several specialty compositions and military marches will be provided. An informal reception will honor the performers in the Social Hall of Main Building following the concert. Admittance is by membership only.

Choral Group Sings For Woman's Club

(Frk. B. W.) The Franklinton High School Choral Group, under the direction of Mrs. Bruce Honeycutt, presented a musical program at the meeting of the Franklinton Woman's Club, Thursday evening at the Community House.

The Fine Arts Department sponsored the program. Jane Toler, Connie Toler, Judy Kearney, Margaret Weston, Susan McLemore and Lane Langston made up the Choral Group. Soloists for the evening was Lane Langston.

Mrs. D. O. Langston was recognized by the club president. Mrs. Langston introduced Dr. James Rascher, a local physician, who gave an informative talk about the Polio Vaccination Drive. He announced that three clinics would be held on three Sundays, March 22, April 19 and May 17 at which times he hoped as many as possible would be inoculated. The Franklinton High School Gym and the Albion Person Gym will be opened from 12 noon to 5 P. M. on each of the above dates. The local club will furnish the volunteer workers.

Mrs. Raymond Harris presided over the business session at which time Mrs. T. J. McGhee gave a financial report.

Mrs. J. E. Whitfield gave the corresponding secretary's report.

The President announced the opera, "The Old Maid and the Thief", to be held in Warrenton on March 22 at 8 P. M. under the sponsorship of the Warrenton Woman's Club.

The State Convention of the N. C. Federation of Woman's Clubs was announced for April 28-30 in Greensboro.

The local club voted to give a contribution to the current drive for Crippled Children and Adults.

The Home Life Department delivered a basket of fruit to a Senior Citizen on his 81st.

Attends Irrigation School

Clyde Perdue Route 3, and Jack Hunt, Louisburg Tractor and Truck Co., attended a five-state area Wade Rain Irrigation School held in Farmville, Virginia, March 4th and 5th.

The purpose of the school was to train irrigation technicians in local areas how to assist farmers in getting properly designed irrigation systems for high operating efficiency.

Mr. Howard M. Ellis, Head of the agricultural Engineering Extension of North Carolina State College at Raleigh, North Carolina, and Mr. Ed Hale, Extension Agricultural Engineer of V. P. I. in Blacksburg, Virginia, discussed in detail at this school the many advantages and uses of irrigation in this five-state area.

New developments and new equipment in sprinkler irrigation were shown during the school.

Students Receive Awards

Anne Shearin, senior student at Edward Best High School, has been awarded the Crisco trophy for outstanding work in home economics.

The coveted gold trophy was presented during assembly at school on March 6, by Mrs. Melver Neal, her home economics teacher. In recognizing Anne as an outstanding home economics student Mrs. Neal also took into consideration that she had contributed to her school in several ways. She is pianist for the glee club and other school events, and she has set an example for the student body as cheerleader.

For her class project in clothing, Anne made a blue plaid,

She Did

A housewife picked out six apples and handed them to the grocery clerk. "That'll be 65 cents, madam," he said. She handed the clerk a dollar bill and started walking out.

Health Hint: It won't do you any good to know what caused you to suffer a physical collapse after your health is ruined. Take it easy now.

"Wait lady, you forgot your change." "That's all right," she replied sweetly. "I stepped on a grape on the way in."
