made that Reenie Edna May of Edward Best School and Jane Elliot McKinge of Louisburg have been selected to participate in the Governor's School of North Carolina which will open at Salem College on June

These students were among 400 from over North Carolina selected from more than 3,000 who were nominated. Dr. Joseph M. Johnson stated in his correspondence that many excellent students were not selected because of factors beyond anyone's control.

The Governor's School is a experiment in North Carolina to give students of the State who have indicated talent in certain subject area fields summer experiences which will broaden their knowledge in these fields. It is to be held in Winston-Salem on the campus of Salem College from June 10 to July 31.

The following students from Franklin County were nominated: Susan Lloyd, Kate Huggins, Emma Ruth Bartholomew, and Elliot McKinne from Louisburg; Gerald Lee Marshall from Bunn; Jimmy Currin of Epsom; and Reenie May of Edward Best. In making this announcement, the Franklin County Board of Education feels that it is an honor to have two students selected from the schools of the county and wish to compliment the entire group of nominees
