

Musical And Dance Revue In Franklinton

(Frk. B.W.) The Franklinton High School Glee Club and Mrs. Judi Hinton's dancing students presented a musical and revue in the Franklinton High School auditorium on Tuesday evening. Soloists in the first group of songs were Judy Kearney, Jane Toler, Connie Woodlief and J. B. Paschal.

Toler, J. B. Paschal, Barry Mangum and Bill Day.

Dance students, who participated on the program were Paula Puckett, Ashly Hinton, Mary Jo Denton, Cheryl House, Janet Carr, Richie Whitfield, Martha Whitfield, Tony Gupton, and Claudia Speed. Mrs. Judi Hinton concluded the dancing numbers with a solo dance.

The final group of songs, which related to America, included four numbers. A large seal of the United States, painted by Bill Day, extended from the ceiling of the stage. It was flanked by an American flag and a North Carolina flag. In the final number, "I Am An American," Margaret Weston served as narrator while the Glee Club sang background music.

Mrs. Bruce Honeycutt directed the Glee Club. Accompanists were Ann Pearce, Harriet Hight, Margaret Weston and Colleen Grissom.

This is my program... to keep North Carolina Growing

- EDUCATION...
Smaller class size in public schools for better teaching.
Free our schools from book fees and other charges.
More clerical assistance for teachers to provide more teaching time.
Makes teachers' salaries competitive with the national average.
"I believe that education must be the first priority of every Governor, not just one every six years."
- ROADS...
A new 300 million dollar bond issue, without new taxes.
Fair treatment to all counties in road improvement.
- LOBBY CONTROL ACT...
Sweeping reforms against lobbyists... A new Control Act to put teeth in our lobby laws—requiring registration, detailed statements of expenses, strict enforcement and regulation.
- ECONOMY IN GOVERNMENT...
No new taxes.
A six-point economy-in-government plan which could save from 10 million to 20 million dollars in the next budget, including:
1. Save 8 million dollars by taking a "hard look" at every state job that goes unfilled for six months, to eliminate unneeded positions.
2. Stop overexpending on state road equipment.
3. Impartial, businessmen's committee to review state government operation.
4. Perpetual inventory of all desks, typewriters, and other state property.
"I believe that the only way to save money is to stop spending some."
- AGRICULTURE... to lift farm income:
New Tobacco Research Facility.
Pave more farm-to-market roads.
Full price supports for tobacco farmers.
Increased food science research to attract more processors and canneries.
Grow more food for our own people to close the "food-gap" — the annual billion dollar cash loss to other states.
- INDUSTRY...
180,000 new jobs with better pay-checks.
Massive state-local program for new and expanded industries.
Expand Industrial Education Centers to provide people with skills for new industries and better paying jobs.
Support for the Right-to-Work law.
Increasing minimum wage to $1.00, keeping present exemptions including farm exemptions.
- POVERTY...
A solid program to lift North Carolina out of a cycle of poverty into a cycle of hope. It includes:
Launching an assault on adult illiteracy through television and after-hours use of school buildings.
Vocational Training in high schools for better job opportunities.
North Carolina is a great state, but we can be greater. That means a greater concern for older people with mounting medical bills; for our natural resources and wildlife; for the mentally ill, the retarded, and the handicapped. I believe that in race relations we should continue the North Carolina tradition of good will and law and order on the part of all. After talking with people in every county, I know that we can keep North Carolina growing.
I ask your help.
