EIGHTH GRADE STUDENTS GET LITERARY AWARDS

Two Gold Sand students have been awarded medals by READ Magazine, an American Education Publication, for outstanding work done by them. Kathy Gupton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Gupton, for writing the best story among a group of twenty-five students, was selected to receive the Read, Creative Writing Medal, and Charles Keith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Keith, was selected for exhibiting the most outstanding qualities of citizenship in his class and received the Charles Palmer Davis Award.

Wood G. A. Club Meets

The Wood G.A.'s met on Thursday evening at 7:30 p.m. in the Intermediate Room of the Wood Baptist Church. Nine members and three leaders were present for the program.

The president, Judith Gupton, called the meeting to order with the group singing, "He Lives on High." The devotional reading from John 8:31,32 was read by Mary Jo Denton. Margaret Jones was in charge of the prayer calendar. A short business meeting was held by Judith Gupton, after which the secretary, Tony Gupton called the roll and read the minutes of the last meeting which were approved as read. Then Patricia Hamlet led the members in repeating together the G.A. allegiance.

After hymn "I gave My Life for Thee", the meeting was then turned over to the program chairman, Ava Sue Brunette and Patricia Hamlet, who was in charge of the programs entitled, "Sweet Land of Liberty" and "U. S. at Worship." Those who took part on the program were Mary Jo Denton, Debbie Gupton, Phillis Pleasant, Judith Gupton, Paula Gupton, and Tony Gupton. Before this meeting all the members with the three leaders carried a miscellaneous box to a family and held a short service in the home. (DP)

Louisburg Book Clubs Meet

The O'Henry Book Club met with Mrs. F. L. O'Neal at her home on Spring Street Tuesday. Upon their arrival, the following members were served a delicious two-course meal: Mesdames Harvey Bartholomew, Ed Bartholomew, M. G. Davis, Charles Davis, Q. S. Leonard, Earl Murphy, Frank Read, Jr., Robert Smithwick, W. H. Allen, Cecil Sykes, George Weaver and Gordon Zealand.

An interesting program on "Stage and Screen" was given by Mrs. W. H. Allen, who told of the motion pictures of today. Mrs. Allen pointed out that "most movies are now being made on location and the trend is toward more daring films."

Some of the most popular pictures of 1964 were mentioned by Mrs. Allen. She told of two new stage plays which just opened on Broadway, "Baker Street" and "The Odd Couples."

The Current Literature Club met on March 23 with Mrs. Malcolm McKinne at her home on Sunset Avenue. The following members were present: Mesdames I. D. Moon, A. S. Tomlinson, M. S. Davis, L. L. Brinkley, Collin McKinne, D. T. House, C. W. Robbins and Miss Sarah Richardson. Upon their arrival Mrs. McKinne served a dessert course with coffee.

Mrs. Moon, president of the club, called the meeting to order. As there was no business to come before the club, the president called for the program. The program subject for the day was the continuing study of "Other Peoples Lives." The topic for this meeting was "Medical Outposts." Mrs. Moon discussed the difficulties experienced by the people in the Hudson Bay area. Mrs. Tomlinson gave an account of the hardships of a missionary in China.
