

Randsdell WMS Meets

The WMS of Randsdell Chapel met Monday evening with Mrs. Addie S. Cash.

There were six members and one visitor present. The program was entitled "Assignment! Missionary Associate." All of the members took part in discussing various parts of this interesting program.

Following the program, the hymn, "Blessed Be The Tie," was sung, after which Mrs. Doc Cash closed the meeting with prayer.

The hostess served homemade chocolate pie, pickles, potato chips and soft drinks.

The July meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Norman Frazier.

Bunn WSCS Meets

Bunn -- The WSCS of the Methodist Church met Monday night at the church.

Mrs. C. B. Richardson called the meeting to order. During the business session plans were discussed for changing the shrubbery planting about the building.

Mrs. Rudolph Benesh ably presented the study "Our Children and Theirs." The purposes of the program are to illustrate the contributions each differing race and culture has brought to the United States and to emphasize our responsibility as Christian citizens in the community of new nations.

Attend Grand Chapter

Among the Eastern Stars attending sessions of Grand Chapter of North Carolina this week were Mr. and Mrs. George M. West, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Joyner, Mesdames Cecil Sykes, Forrest Joyner, Florence Wells, John Godfrey, H. M. Dickens and Anne Mae Griffin, all members of William B. Barrow Chapter and Mrs. Hugh W. Perry, representing Wellons Chapter at Epsom.

DEATHS

RAYMOND FULLER JONES

Durham -- Funeral services for Raymond Fuller Jones, 70, of 407 E. Trinity Ave. were conducted Wednesday at 2:30 p.m. at Hall-Wynne Funeral Chapel with interment following in Old Maplewood Cemetery.

Rev. M. Dewey Tyson, pastor of Calvary Methodist Church, officiated.

Pallbearers included Ross F. Brignani, W. Earl Fowler, Jr., Ralph E. Robertson, Jr., all of Charlotte, Robert F. Adcock, Jr., James E. Leathers, and A. L. Walton, all of Durham.

Mr. Jones died Tuesday at 2:20 at Veteran's Hospital, following a long period of ill health and a critical illness of three weeks.

A native of Franklin County, he was the son of the late George W. and Panola Fuller Jones. He had lived in Durham since 1908, receiving his education in Franklin County and Durham schools. He was a veteran of World War I and was the first person to volunteer for the 113th Field Artillery when it was organized in Durham County.

He was a member of Flat Rock Baptist Church in Franklin County.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Shirley J. Bryant of Durham; a son, Raymond F. Jones, Jr., of Durham; 11 grandchildren; and five sisters, Mrs. H. C. Harton, Mrs. S. L. Hunt, Mrs. W. E. Fowler, Mrs. Jeanette J. Woods, all of Durham, and Mrs. Mabel J. Brignani of Charlotte.

Members of the family will be at the home of Mrs. S. L. Hunt, 402 E. Trinity Ave., prior to the funeral services.

FOSTER M. HARRIS

Foster Man Harris, 59, of Rt. 3, Louisburg, died Wednesday. Funeral services will be conducted Friday at 2:30 p.m. at Mount Grove Baptist Church, of which he was a member, by the Rev. Billy Martin. Burial will be in Oakwood Cemetery.

Surviving is his wife, Mrs. Jodie Harris; two sons, Henry of Raleigh and Roger Harris of Rt. 3, Louisburg; two brothers, B. T. of Louisburg, Rt. 3, and Howard Harris of Rt. 2, Louisburg; three sisters, Mrs. John Jones, Mrs. Roy Moore and Miss Lizzie Harris, all of Rt. 3, Louisburg; and one grandchild.

A wise man knows just how far to go and when to stop.

Mrs. Robert Glenn Phelps

Franklinton WSC Meets

(Frk. B.W.) Circle No. 1 of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Franklinton Methodist Church met at the church on Monday afternoon.

Mrs. L. A. Thompson, Sr. opened the meeting with a scripture reading followed by prayer.

Mrs. George Cooke gave a financial report. She announced that a 25% increase in collection was being sought.

Miss Nelle Joyner gave the program entitled, "We Would See Jesus." She stressed the need to live in close touch with Jesus. At intervals she read scripture from the Upper Room.

Thanks

I would like to express my thanks to our many friends and neighbors for their acts of kindness rendered me during my stay in the hospital. Thanks to Dr. Perry, Dr. Medders and the nurses on third floor for their kindness to "Tammy" and me.

Mrs. Robert Glenn Phelps

Great car

Here's how Plymouth's 5-year/50,000-mile engine and drive train warranty protects you: Chrysler Corporation confidently warrants all of the following vital parts of its 1965 cars for 5 years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first, during which time any such parts that prove defective in material and workmanship will be replaced or repaired at a Chrysler Motors Corporation Authorized Dealer's place of business without charge for such parts or labor: engine block, head and internal parts, intake manifold, water pump, transmission case and internal parts (excepting manual clutch), torque converter, drive shaft, universal joints, rear axle and differential and rear wheel bearings. Required maintenance: The following maintenance services are required under the warranty—change engine oil every 3 months or 4,000 miles, whichever comes first; replace oil filter every second oil change; clean carburetor air filter every 6 months and replace it every 2 years; and every 6 months furnish evidence of this required service to a Chrysler Motors Corporation Authorized Dealer and request him to certify receipt of such evidence and your car's mileage. Simple enough for such important protection.
