Duke Memorial

REV PEVERALL

The Duke Memorial Baptist Church of the Justice Community has scheduled a series of revival services for the coming week. The meeting will begin Sunday evening, June 20, at 8:00 and continue through Friday evening at the same hour. Each evening at 7:50 the Primaries and Juniors will present special music as a prelude.

The pastor of the church, Rev. Albert A. Peverall, Jr., will preach. Rev. Peverall attended Virginia Polytechnic Institute at Blacksburg, Va., for one year before transferring to Wake Forest College at Winston-Salem where he studied three years. He graduated this spring from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary at Wake Forest. While living in Wake Forest he was pastor of the Mountain View Baptist Church at Catawba, Va.

A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to attend these services. The church nurseries will be open each evening for the benefit of parents with small children.

An open mind is an asset, but don't let your mind become so open that nothing stays in it.

Flat Rock

REV. SIMPSON

Revival services will be held at the Flat Rock Baptist Church June 20-27. Services will begin at 8 p.m. each evening.

Rev. J. Marvin Simpson, pastor of the Northside Baptist Church in Calhoun Falls, S. C., will be the guest speaker.

Special music will be conducted under the direction of Rev. W. J. Taylor, pastor of Flat Rock Baptist Church. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Thanks

I wish to thank Dr. Medders and Dr. Perry and the staff of the third floor at Franklin Memorial Hospital who were so kind to me during my stay there. Also, my neighbors, friends, and loved ones for their visits, flowers, cards, gifts and prayers. May God richly bless each of you.

H. Kenneth Frazier

Thanks

I wish to express my appreciation to my many friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness shown to me at the death of my wife.
