

Centerville Pastor Weds Sunday

Fayetteville--Miss Martha Jane Swain and Frank Balch Wood were united in marriage Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Eutaw Heights Baptist Church. The doubling vows were pledged in a wedding ceremony which was an original composition of the bride and bridegroom placing emphasis on worship.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ephraim Lennon Swain of this city, and the bridegroom is the son of Judge Roy Smith Wood of Miami, Fla., and the late Helen Balch Wood. The prelude was Adagio Sostenuto (Sonata quasi una fantasia) Opus 27, No. 2, Beethoven, played by Kleunter Wesley Lacy, Jr., of Ahsokie, pianist.

The call to worship and invocation were by the pastor, the Rev. Lawrence Childs, followed by the processional, "Now Thank We All Our God," Cruger, arr. Bach. The singing of the processional hymn was by the congregation.

Mr. Swain gave his daughter in marriage, after which Miss Jeannette Maurison Stone of Rowland, soloist, sang "Ich Liebe Dich," Goethe-Beethoven.

The Declaration of the Marriage was in charge of the minister, the Rev. James Redden Everett of Rocky Mount, former pastor of the bride, followed by the recording of the marriage by the minister and witnesses. The Minister's Message was followed by the Pastor's Charge, taken from Deuteronomy 30:11-20.

The benediction was said by the father of the bridegroom, followed by the singing of the Benedictional Hymn by the congregation. The recessional was Allegretto Opus 27, No. 2, Beethoven.

The front of the church was decorated with four white pillars on which there were white urns filled with white roses. Also featured were brass tree candelabra. Pews were each marked with a single white candlestick entwined with greenery.

The bride designed and made her wedding gown, which was of antique satin. Made on Victorian lines, it featured a fitted bodice and rounded neckline accented with appliques of French lace and seed pearls, and a chapel-length train extending from the shoulders. Her full-length veil of English illusion was held by a crown of lace and pearls. She carried a white lace handkerchief which had belonged to the mother of the bridegroom and a single white rose. She also wore a pearl and sapphire brooch, a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Janet Faye Haskett of Elizabeth City, college roommate of the bride, was maid of honor. She was attired in a full-length two-piece costume of royal blue satin made of Victorian lines. The A-line skirt was worn with a fitted overblouse featuring a scoop neckline, and long sleeves. She wore a matching pillbox hat and carried a white lace handkerchief, a gift of the bride, and three pink roses. Her costume was designed by the bride.

By Jean Zealand

Hi! This is another guest reporter, sitting in for Jean. Let's see what has been going on.

This rainy weather may have slowed some of the Franklin County teens down, but most are busily enjoying the first few weeks of their vacation.

At Atlantic Beach this week are Jo Ann Hale, Mary Ann Fleming, and Emma Ruth Bartholomew. Also in the Morehead area last weekend was Jean Zealand. These girls may not be soaking in too much sun, but I'm sure they're enjoying themselves.

Bill Bartholomew and Bill Williamson are spending the week in Florida. They should have many tales to tell us when they return, and there is no doubt that they are having a fabulous time.

Leaving Sunday for Girls' State in Greensboro are Louisburg's representatives, Jo Ann Hale and Jane McKinnis. Their report after this trip should be very interesting.

The rock n' roll show at Memorial Auditorium in Raleigh Monday night drew many local teens. Cliff Edwards, Al Bland, Charles Holmes, Becky Moseley, Trudie Gupton, Paulette Mullen, Susan Lancaster, Claudia Speed, and Pam Lancaster were only a few of the many teens present for the night's entertainment.

Many Louisburg teens are traveling to Raleigh to the new Embers Club. The Embers are a popular combo in the eastern North Carolina area. If you haven't heard them yet, they are usually playing on Wednesday and Saturday nights.

Last weekend the State Teen Democrat Convention was held on the State College campus in Raleigh. Patsy Green, Tracey Winn, Mike Fuller, Billy Fuller and Tommy Fuller were the teens attending from the Louisburg club.

Visiting Kate Huggins this week is Cookie Foreman from Wilmington. It's always nice to see you, Cookie. Hope you enjoy your visit.

Goodbyes were said by Mrs. Erika Royek of Miami, Fla., and Mrs. William B. Foster of Falls Church, Va., aunt of the bride.

The newlyweds left for a wedding trip to the Outer Banks of North Carolina. The bride selected for traveling a two-piece outfit of blue flowered silk, which she designed and made.

Upon their return they will make their home in Louisburg, Rt. 2.

Mrs. Wood was graduated from Fayetteville Senior High School in 1961 and from Wake Forest College on June 7. She will enter Duke University this summer to work toward a MAT degree.

Her husband is a graduate of Miami Senior High School and a 1964 graduate of Wake Forest College. He is in his second year at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary at Wake Forest and is also serving as pastor of Centerville Baptist Church, Centerville.
