On Army Talk

General Harold K. Johnson, the Army Chief of Staff, has issued an order suggesting that his instructors clean up their language. He fears that continued use of off-color language is going to harm the Army's image among the general public.

Quite A Few

A revivalist said to his congregation: "There is a man among us who is flirting with another man's wife. Unless he puts $5 in the collection box, his name will be read from the pulpit." When the collection box came in there were six $5 bills in it, and one for $2 with a note pinned to it, saying: "This is all the cash I have, but will send the other $3 on Wednesday."
