

Cook-Anthony Marriage Solemnized

Farmville, Va. -- Miss Kathryn Anthony of Patrick Springs became the bride of Noel Harvey Cook of Martinsville Thursday afternoon, August 12, at four o'clock, in the Farmville Baptist Church. Dr. W. Otis McClung officiated at the double-ring ceremony in the presence of the immediate families.

The altar was decorated with baskets of white gladioli and ferns.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Penn Alvin Anthony of Patrick Springs and is a granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Marks, Sr., of Louisburg. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Lewis Randolph Lovell of Martinsville and the late Mr. John Clayton Cook of Glen Rogers, West Virginia.

Miss Carolyn Gates, organist, presented a program of nuptial music including "All Glory Be to God on High," Johann S. Bach; "Come, Holy Ghost, God and Lord," Andreas Armsdorf; "Bridegroom of Our Soul," John Hackburn; "Lord Jesus Christ, Be Present Now," Johann Walther, and the traditional wedding marches for the processional and the recessional.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a short gown of white satin overlaid with domestic lace, fashioned with a portrait neckline, fitted bodice, and three-quarter length sleeves. The bell-shaped skirt was accented in the back by a satin, pleated panel and satin bow. Her veil of illusion was attached to a headpiece of white roses trimmed with seed pearls and crystals. She carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Charles Willis Perry, Jr., of Louisburg, N. C., cousin of the bride, was matron of honor. Her dress was fashioned with a semi-off-shoulder neckline, a bodice of white Irish lace over pink taffeta, and a pink chiffon full skirt. She wore a matching veil of illusion attached to a headpiece of pink rosebuds and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Mr. Lovell, step-father of the bridegroom, served as best man. Ushers were Willis Perry, Jr., of Louisburg, N. C., and Robert Dandridge of Martinsville, Va.

Mrs. Anthony, mother of the bride, wore a blue shantung silk dress designed with a lace bodice, black accessories, and a corsage of white gardenias. Mrs. Lovell, mother of the bridegroom, wore a pink jersey dress overlaid with white lace, white accessories, and a white gardenia corsage. The couple left on a wedding trip to Virginia Beach. For traveling the bride chose a navy blue linen sheath dress with matching jacket, and white accessories. She wore the orchid lifted from her bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Hardin Reynolds Memorial School, Critz. She attended Patrick Henry College in Martinsville for two years and is now a junior at Longwood College in Farmville, where she plans to earn her Bachelor of Science degree in Elementary Education.

The bridegroom was graduated from Glen Rogers High School, Glen Rogers, West Virginia. He served in the United States Air Force for four years and has attended Patrick Henry College for two years. He is now employed by the Roy Stone Transfer Company and will pursue his major in science at the University of Virginia.

MRS. NOEL HARVEY COOK

Thanks

We wish to express our sincere thanks to Dr. Perry, Dr. Medders, and the nurses on the third floor of Franklin Memorial Hospital for every kindness shown our beloved wife and mother, Mrs. Iva W. Leonard, during her recent illness and death.

To all our friends and neighbors we deeply appreciate your kind expressions of sympathy, your visits, cards, letters, flowers, gifts, prayers and all the many things you did. You will be long and tenderly remembered.

May God bless each one.

C. T. Dean Says

Folks, you can do your pasture and lespedeza fields a lot of good by keeping the weeds clipped with a mowing machine. Weeds and grass have grown unusually well during the past few weeks. Weeds not only crowd and shade out your desirable plants, but they compete for a lot of moisture during dry weather. The mowing machine blade should be set as high as possible, preferably four to six inches.

Don't lose excellent lespedeza hay by waiting too late to cut. We suggest you cut when the plant is 8 to 12 inches high, leaves begin to shed, or blooms appear, whichever comes first.

Gardeners can continue harvesting vegetables until frost if those long-season crops such as okra, beans, peppers and eggplant are kept in a growing condition. To do this clean

Ruth Mercer Circles Meet

(Frk. B.W.) Ruth Mercer Circle No. 1 of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Franklinton Methodist Church met at the home of Miss Kathleen Rowe on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Woodrow Haskins, chairman, opened the meeting with The Lord's Prayer.

During the business session, Mrs. E. A. Harris, Jr., read the minutes. A financial report was given by Mrs. Phil Franklin Whitfield. Plans were

Outlives Enemies

"Wal," bragged the ancient patient. "I'll be 80 my next birthday and I haven't an enemy in the world."

"Gee, that's remarkable," said the young one.

"Yep," went on the old one, "I've outlived every durned one of 'em."

made for the supervision of the church nursery. A visiting committee, composed of Mrs. Lawrence Bridges, Miss Edith Jackson and Mrs. Haskins was named.

Mrs. Haskins discussed the new program book for 1965-66 which is "Living in Such An Age." She called attention to the five divisions: (1) Christian Imperatives in a Scientific Age, (2) Concepts of Christian Outreach in Such An Age, (3) The Ecumenical Age, (4) Special Programs, and (5) Worship Resources.

During the social hour, the hostess served refreshments with Mrs. Garland Sandling assisting.

Ruth Mercer Circle No. 2 of the Franklinton Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. Tommie Stephens on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Floyd Bell, Chairman, opened the meeting with scripture. The program, "What Is Outreach," was presented by Mrs. Bell. She spelled out eight factors. Outreach is born in daily conversion, is nourished by spiritual vigilance, is perpetuated by bursting commitment, is amplified by God's presence in us, is faith spilling over, is commitment emancipated, is conviction in contagion, and lastly Outreach is love wide-awake. A prayer concluded the program.

During the business session, Mrs. Richard Gollightly read the minutes in the absence of the secretary. Mrs. Bell gave the financial report in the absence of the treasurer.

The church nursery was discussed. Flowers were assigned for the first two Sundays in September.

A visiting committee composed of Mrs. Gollightly, Mrs. B. N. Williamson, Jr., and Mrs. Osborne was named.

During the social hour the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Richard Whitfield, served ice cream topped with peaches and pound cake.

Miss Nancy Jane Collins was a visitor at the meeting.
