

Bride Is Granddaughter Of The Late A. W. Wilson

Miss Janie Wilson Milholland and Thomas Maxwell Neely were married Tuesday, August 31, at four o'clock at the First Presbyterian Church, Statesville, N. C., Rev. Neil R. McGeachy officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Locke Milholland, Jr., 642 N. Race Street, Statesville, and the granddaughter of the late A. W. Wilson of Louisburg, the great niece of John O. A. N. and Miss Lucy Wilson of Louisburg, and the great granddaughter of the late John Owen and Mary Perry Wilson.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. William Lloyd Neely, Jr., and the late Mr. Neely of 620 Greenway Drive, Statesville, N. C.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of silk organza over taffeta with a scoop neck and elbow-length sleeves made on princess lines and trimmed in soutache braid in a leaf and scroll design. A chapel train caught with a bow attached to a low back. Her veil was a bouffant ballerina-length of English silk illusion attached to a forward cap of organza and lace, edged in seed pearls and crystals. Her flowers were a cascade of Amazon lilies. For something old she carried a handmade lace handkerchief, over 150 years old, given to her by her great-aunt, Miss Bessie Milholland. In her shoe she wore a three pence, gift of a great-uncle, brought to this country from Scotland when he returned from the first World War.

Maid of honor was Miss Mary Palmer Deaton of Statesville, the bride's roommate at college. Other attendants were Misses Cherry Rosanne Causey, Helen Dianne Lumsden, and Mary Ann Phifer of Statesville, and Miss Sheryl Crowe of New Bern. Junior bridesmaid was Jean Story Milholland, sister of the bride. All wore floor-length dresses of leaf green imported linen with blue velvet accent. They featured scoop neck, bell-shaped skirts with blue velvet at the empire waistline. Headpieces of matching green satin roses set on a double bow were worn.

Miss Ann Kimberly Raymer, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She wore a leaf green floor-length linen dress with blue trim matching that of the attendants. It featured the scoop neckline, short sleeves, an empire waist with a blue velvet sash and matching cap. Mr. Nathan Tomlinson Neely served as his nephew's best man. Ushers were John Locke and James Brandon Milholland, brothers of the bride; Dewey Little Raymer III, brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Nathan Tomlinson Neely, Jr., cousin of the bridegroom; and David Vance Odom, all of Statesville; and Thomas Nolan Morrison of Chapel Hill.

MRS. THOMAS MAXWELL NEELY

Candelabra, brought from the ante-bellum home of the bride's grandfather, "Cypress Hall," near Louisburg, were used in the sanctuary. These candelabra had been used for weddings in the home for three generations. Miss Gladys Stephens, organist, played "Clair de Lune," "Melodie," "Love Song from Romeo and Juliet," and "Estrelleta." Mr. David Brown, soloist, sang "The Song of Ruth" before the ceremony and closed with "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride's mother wore a beige, re-embroidered Moynaghel linen with matching accessories. Her corsage was of green cymbidium orchids. The groom's mother wore a blue peau de soie with lace applique and matching accessories. Her corsage was a white phalaenopsis orchid.

The bride is a graduate of Statesville Senior High School, attended Meredith College in Raleigh for two years and is now a senior at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She made her debut at the Terpsichorean Ball in Raleigh in 1963.

The groom is a graduate of Statesville Senior High School and is presently a senior at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He is a member of Chi Psi Fraternity.

Reception

Immediately following the wedding, a reception was given by the bride's parents in the Church Fellowship Hall. A love bird theme was carried out in the decorations throughout the hall.

The table, spread with an imported outwork cloth, was centered with an arrangement of two love birds on a silver tray, embellished by satin-covered hearts, nestled in yellow sweetheart roses, white snapdragons and pompons.

Guests were greeted by Rev. and Mrs. Thompson B. Southall. Mrs. Neil R. McGeachy completed cutting the cake. Punch was served by Mrs. James Dick of Charlotte, Mrs. Ralph Sherrill of Statesville and Mrs. Rose Mary Wilson Deaton. Assisting in serving were Misses Susan Stimpson, Nancy Gilliam, Ann Johnson, and Salley Purifoy. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene B. Howard presided at the guest book.

The couple will reside at East Wood Lake Road, Chapel Hill, following a wedding trip. The bride changed to a blue linen suit and a brown blouse with matching blue trim. She wore a blue hat and the flowers lifted from her bouquet.

Marriage Announced

Mr. and Mrs. John Ellis Smith have the honor of announcing the marriage of their daughter, Julia Smith Dyer, to Mr. Benjamin Thorpe Banks on Saturday, the fourteenth of August, nineteen hundred and sixty-five, St. John's Lutheran Church, Salisbury, North Carolina.

Mr. Banks is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas G. Banks of Greensboro, N. C. He is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Thorpe Green of Franklinton, and of Mrs. Felix G. Banks and the late Mr. Banks of Franklinton.

Hoyle, Frazier Speak Vows

Henderson--In a ceremony of dignity and beauty performed Sunday afternoon at five o'clock in New Bethel Baptist Church Miss Jacqueline Frazier, daughter of Mrs. Louis Opte Frazier, Sr., and the late Mr. Frazier of Epsom, and Wilson Smith Hoyle, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Smith Hoyle, Sr., of Henderson, were united in marriage.

Rev. Willis Joiner, pastor of Liberty Congregational Christian Church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Rendering a program of nuptial music were Mrs. Robert L. Kittrell, organist, and Mrs. Harold N. Frazier, sister-in-law of the bride, soloist. Mrs. Frazier sang "Entreat Me Not To Leave Thee" by Gomod and "The Lord's Prayer" by Mallotte. Attendees marched in on "Religious Procession" by Lorenz. Traditional wedding music also was used for the procession.

In keeping with the simplicity of the church, tall, stately emerald palms stood at intervals forming a setting for the large mass arrangement of white mums, pompons, snapdragons, stock and tuberose. Flanking the flowers were brass spiral candelabra holding burning white tapers. Completing the pulpit decorations was the brass and white prairie, while pews were decorated with cascading sprays of white flowers and satin ribbons forming a bridal aisle to the altar.

Given in marriage by her brother, Harold N. Frazier, of Raleigh, the bride wore a formal gown of candlelight re-embroidered lace appliques with pearls on illusion over silk-faced peau de soie. It featured a jewel neckline, fitted waist, with sleeves of alencon lace and moderate bell skirt with a detachable chapel train of peau de soie. Her chapel-length veil of illusion augmented with appliques of lace and pearls was attached to a circlet matching the dress, and she carried an eloquently styled bouquet of white Georgiana orchids, roses and stephanotis accented with English ivy.

Mrs. Lebert Andre Howes of Henderson; Mrs. Willie Floyd of Kinston, Miss Teresa Stubbs of Rocky Mount, the bride's cousin, and Miss Cynthia Currin of Oxford, cousin of the groom. The honor attendants wore street-length, custom-made dresses of white Vermont, with portrait necklines, elbow sleeves, fitted waists and modified bell skirts. Their headpieces were circlets of the same material with illusion and their nosegays were of autumn gold chrysanthemums.

Bride-elect Entertained

Youngsville -- Miss Kathy Murphy entertained her sister, Miss Judy Murphy, on Sunday afternoon with a Coke Party at their home. Guests called at the home at three o'clock.

Upon arrival, guests were greeted by the hostess and introduced to the bride-elect and her mother, Mrs. George Murphy. Guests were then directed into the gift room where the bridal gifts were displayed.

Refreshments of iced Cokes, potato chips and dip, assorted cookies and pretzels were served the following guests in attendance:

Mesdames Richard Cash, Sherwood Keith, Linwood Perry, Gary Carter, Wilbur Pearce, J. E. Jones and Misses Kay Hall, Vickie Baker, and Betty Pearce.

Engagement Announced

VIVIAN GAYLE PLEASANTS

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Pleasants of Route 2, Louisburg, announce the engagement of their daughter, Vivian Gayle, to William Franklin Raley, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Raley of Cary, North Carolina. A December 5 wedding is planned.

Mrs. David Hoyle and Mrs. George Barnes of Oxford, grandmothers of the groom, both were attired in navy blue with matching accessories and orchid corsages.

Wilson Smith Hoyle, Sr., was his son's best man. Serving as ushers were Louis Opte Frazier, Jr., brother of the bride; Lebert Andre Howes, the bride's brother-in-law; Johnny Hoyle, cousin of the groom, all of Henderson; George Otto Wells of Atkinson, Bill Orrick of Portsmouth, Va., and Robert Barnes of Oxford, cousin of the groom.

Junior ushers were Lebert Andre Howes, Jr., nephew of the bride, and Waverly Barnes, Jr., cousin of the groom. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Frazier chose an aqua one-piece sheath styled with a Venise lace bodice and scoop neck. The ensemble was complemented with matching accessories and a white hybrid orchid.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Hoyle, was attired in a mauve pure silk linen sheath accented with lace appliques and See HOYLE page 5

Mrs. Utley Entertains

(Frk. B.W.) Mrs. Hubert Utley entertained her bridge club on Thursday evening. Arrangements of roses decorated her home.

Mrs. R. W. Moore received high score prize while low went to Mrs. George Cooke.

The hostess served a frozen salad at the conclusion of the third progression.

Mrs. Mode Entertains

(Frk. B.W.) Mrs. J. D. Mode entertained her bridge club on Monday evening. Seasonal flowers decorated her home.

Mrs. Woodrow Haskins received high score prize while second high went to Mrs. Ben Wilder.

Mrs. Walter W. Cooke was presented the guest prize.

Assisted by Carroll Mode, the hostess served chocolate-ple and coffee at the conclusion of the third progression.

We believe most people are ready for autumn this year

FAT OVERWEIGHT

Available to you without a doctor's prescription, our product called Galaxon. You must lose ugly fat or your money back. Galaxon is a tablet and easily swallowed. Get rid of excess fat and live longer. Galaxon costs $3.00 and is sold on this guarantee: If not satisfied for any reason, just return the package to your drugist and get your full money back. No questions asked. Galaxon is sold with this guarantee by: SCOGGIN DRUG STORE - Louisburg - MAIL ORDERS FILLED.

after you see your doctor, bring your prescription to O'Neal Pharmacy

HAVE YOU HAD YOUR ANNUAL CHECK-UP?

We Now Pay 4% Interest On ALL PASSBOOK SAVINGS Open or Add to your Account Today

CITIZENS BANK and TRUST COMPANY

"THE LEADING BANK IN THIS SECTION"

WE INVITE YOUR BUSINESS MEMBER FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION HENDERSON, N. C.

DANCE REGISTRATION DATES FOR MRS. JUDI HINTON ARE

- Sept. 3, Friday, 3:15 - Franklinton High School
- 4, Saturday, 2 p.m.-4 p.m. - Louisburg, At 122 Edgewood Drive
- 8, Wednesday, 3 p.m. - Gold Sand School Auditorium
- 9, Thursday, 3 p.m. - Edward Best Elem.
- 10, Friday, 3:15 p.m. - Bunn High School

FORD WAREHOUSES

3RD SALE WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 8TH

RECEIVING TOBACCO FOR SALE 6 A. M. TUESDAY, SEPT. 7TH

We Appreciate Your Patience Last Year During The Big Rush. We Hope This Year That We Have Worked Out A Plan That You Will Like And Will Keep You From Waiting So Long To Floor Your Tobacco.

WE APPRECIATE YOUR BUSINESS

FOR FLOOR SPACE CALL 496-3520

FORD WAREHOUSES

THOMAS CARTER
BRODIE MARTIN

CHARLIE FORD

BUCK SYKES
HARRIS TURNER

JIMMIE R. GUPTON, Ticket Marker
EARLIE (Peacher) LIGHTSEY, Auctioneer