

Trogdon-Murphy Vows Spoken

Judith Gale Murphy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson Murphy of Youngsville, N. C., became the bride of George Curtis Trogdon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lando Trogdon of Toccoa, Georgia, on Saturday, September 11, 1965, in the chapel of Southeastern Seminary at Wake Forest, North Carolina. The Reverends Jack Wilder and John Darnell officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Prior to the ceremony, a program of nuptial music was presented by the organist, Mr. Max Smith of Wake Forest, and soloist, Mrs. Rufus Potts, the bride's former voice teacher. Music consisted of "How Do I Love Thee" by Lippe, "Entr'act Me Not To Leave Thee" by Gounod, and "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte. The traditional procession by Wagner and the recession by Mendelssohn were used.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore the traditional bridal gown of deep luster satin with reem-broidered French alencon lace along the sides of the empire-styled skirt and the edges of the full rounded-train. Her fingertip veil was held by a half bonnet of alencon lace embroidered in seed pearls. Her only ornament was a pearl necklace, a gift from the groom. She carried a bouquet of orchids, roses and stephanotis.

Miss Cathy Murphy was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Kay Trogdon of Toccoa, Georgia, sister of the groom; Miss Jean Timberlake of Youngsville; Miss Betty White, Mrs. Richard Cash, Miss Betty Pearce, cousin of the bride, all of Raleigh, N. C.; Mrs. William Godwin and Mrs. Millard Maloney, both of Greenville, N. C.

The maid of honor and bridesmaids wore identical empire dresses in two tones of gold. The high waisted bodice was of autumn gold velvet and the slim skirt a lighter tone of gold in crepe. Their headpieces were crowns of gold velvet with short veils. Their bouquets consisted of bronze mums and ribbon. The maid of honor's bouquet was of white roses and mums. Mr. Trogdon was his son's best man. Ushers were Mr. James Curtis, Jr., of St. Louis, Mo., cousin of the groom; Mr. John Nuckolls and Mr. John Crowe, both of Toccoa, Georgia; Mr. Lord Clay of Macon, Georgia; Mr. Charles J. Coble of West Field, N. J.; Mr. Roger Davis of Athens, Georgia; and Mr. Simeon Wooten of Raleigh, N. C. Junior ushers were Ricky Murphy and Wilson Murphy, brothers of the bride. The mother of the bride chose a ribbon lace dress and coat ensemble of peacock blue with matching accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid. The groom's mother wore a three-piece silk suit. The slim skirt and jacket were toast with a jeweled overblouse of bone.

Toast colored accessories and an orchid corsage completed the costume.

Mrs. Trogdon attended East Carolina College in Greenville with a major in music.

Mr. Trogdon attended North Carolina State University where he studied furniture manufacturing. He was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity.

Immediately following the reception given by the bride's parents, the couple left for a wedding trip to Gatlinburg, Tenn. For going away, the bride chose a three-piece suit of olive green with matching accessories. She wore an orchid corsage lifted from her bridal bouquet. The couple will make their home at 422 Boulevard, Toccoa, Georgia, where Mr. Trogdon will be associated with his father at Trogdon Furniture Company.

Newport News, Va. -- St. Bede's Roman Catholic Church, Williamsburg, was the setting August 21 for the marriage of Miss Janie Carolyn Whitaker, daughter of Mrs. Ann G. Whittaker of Williamsburg, to Richard Reginald Shamrock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shamrock of Renton, Pa.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Vernon J. Bowers.

Mrs. Glenn Kirk was organist and Mrs. Reginald Exton, soloist.

Given in marriage by her grandfather, A. L. Goswick, the bride wore a formal gown of silk peau de soie. The fitted bodice featured a scalloped Sabrina neckline and long sleeves ending in wedding points over the hand. The bouffant A-line skirt ended in a chapel train. Re-embroidered Alencon lace embroidered in seed pearls accented the neckline, skirt and train. Her shoulder-length veil of silk illusion fell from a leaf cap of pearl-lace and pearls. She carried a cascade of white roses and variegated ivy.

Miss Dorothy E. Goswick was maid of honor. She wore a formal gown of sea green crepe. The fitted bodice was styled with a scoop neckline and short sleeves. The sheath skirt was accented with a wateau train of lace. Her nose veil fell from an organza rose and pearl trim. The bridesmaids wore yellow gowns and carried cascades of gaisies. Bridesmaids were Miss Judy Nightengale, Miss Jeanie Weymouth of Williamsburg and Miss Carol Shamrock of Renton, Pa., sister of the bridegroom.

Paul Shamrock of Renton, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Groomsmen were Larry Whittaker of Williamsburg, brother of the bride, Leroy Mazar, Dennis Chillsky of Renton, Pa., and Robert Cackowski of Arlington.

Mrs. Alroe Jagers of Vlen-na was mistress of ceremonies. Mrs. Whitaker chose for her daughter's wedding a beige embroidered sheath dress and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Shamrock, mother of the bridegroom, wore a blue dress and a white orchid corsage.

A reception was held at the Congress Inn, Williamsburg. For traveling, the bride wore a beige two-piece dress and a white orchid corsage. After a trip to the Great Smoky Mountains, Mr. and Mrs. Shamrock will make their home in Williamsburg.

Miss Whitaker is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Goswick, formerly of Youngsville, N. C.

Mrs. H. C. Goswick, Mrs. Henry Goswick and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Roberts of Franklin County attended the wedding.

Youngsville--Mrs. J. T. Moss entertained her bridge club with a party at her home on Friday evening, September 10, with two tables playing.

Following the first progression of bridge, the hostess served a dessert course of homemade peach ice-cream and assorted cookies. During play, guests enjoyed iced Cokes and mixed nuts.

At completion of three progressions, high score prize for the evening was awarded to Mrs. Susan Green, and Mrs. H. H. Reddick received second high score prize.

The following members were in attendance: Mesdames Green, Reddick, N. A. Brown, L. A. Woodlief, A. N. Corpening, Wiley Brown, G. W. Barnes, and William R. Fleming.
