

Justice HD Club Has Annual Christmas Dinner

The annual Christmas dinner of the Justice Home Demonstration Club was held Friday evening, December 3, in the private dining room of the Murphy House in Louisburg. Mrs. E. J. Wheelless was in charge of the decorations. On the head table she used a beautiful silver floral arrangement with candles and on the other tables, red candles in white holders.

Mrs. Montagress S. Mercer, club president, presided. Devotional thoughts were given by candlelight. The seventeen club members, the husbands and two honored guests, Mrs. Frances Fuller and Mrs. Polly O'Neal, enjoyed a delicious country style dinner.

WSG Meets

The Wesleyan Service Guild met December 6 at 7:30 with Mrs. I. D. Moon and Miss Ruth Merritt as co-hostess.

The president, Miss Gertrude Winston, presided. The opening prayer was offered by Mrs. Earle Murphy. The secretary and treasury reports were read and approved. The business was attended to as follows: A Christmas project was taken by the Guild and it was decided that a gift be sent for the work of deaconesses and missionaries in foreign countries.

Miss Ruth Merritt had charge of the program. She opened with "O Do This In Remembrance." The guests were Zohreh Modirzadeh and Mohammad Modirzadeh from Iran, Persia, students at Louisburg College, and Miss Maria Andrea Vargas from Santiago, Chile, who told how Christmas was celebrated in their countries, their customs and habits. It was very interesting to note the difference in ours and their Christmas. Miss Merritt closed the program by showing colored slides of nativity scenes from the National Art Gallery of London.

The hostess served party-fours, brown bread, open-face sandwiches, date nut balls, tumbler cookies, nuts and cranberry punch to the 17 members and 3 guests. Christmas gifts were exchanged by members.

Mrs. Ollie Layton gave the response to the toast. While the tables were being cleared the group sang a melody of Christmas carols.

Mrs. Mercer then introduced three club members, who gave their impressions on the theme for the program which was "Evaluation of Home Demonstration Club Work."

Mrs. Curtis Gatling told what one year in club work had meant to her. Mrs. Joseph Perry talked about her twenty-five and more years in club work and Mrs. Mary S. Williams told some amusing incidents and what her fifty years in club work had meant to her. Mrs. Mercer then presented gifts to the Home Economics agents, Mrs. Fuller, Mrs. O'Neal, and Mrs. Bernice Harris, who was unable to attend due to illness. The new club officers for next year were recognized and asked to stand. After a few remarks by Mrs. Fuller, Mrs. Mercer led the group in singing "We Wish You a Merry Christmas." Then the Club Collect was used prayerfully for the benediction. (JAP)
