

Teenage Chat

By Mary Ann Fleming

Once again Franklin County school students will be going to school on Saturday. Some of us are beginning to regret all those free days during the slow, and during those long, hot June days before school ends, I'm sure we'll regret it even more.

Last Friday night, everyone at Epsom High School enjoyed a sock hop in their gym.

The students at Gold Sand received their annuals Wednesday. These seniors, who worked so hard to make this year's annual a good one, should be proud of themselves.

The members of the Louisburg Monogram Club will soon be selling candy to raise money for this spring's Monogram Banquet. This money will also be used to obtain a good speaker for the banquet.

Monday night the Y. W. A.'s of the Louisburg Baptist Church met at Mrs. Ralph Knott's house. The members present were Jackie Cassell, Emma Ruth Bartholomew, Mary Ann Fleming, Sara Collier and Nancy Mitchiner. Thought: "I never found the companion that was so companionable as solitude." --Thoreau.

Honor Roll

Peter M. B. Young, Jr., son of Mrs. J. A. Moore, 101 North Main Street, Franklin, N. C. received honor roll grades at Virginia Episcopal School in Lynchburg as announced by the Headmaster, Austin P. Montgomery, Jr. for the period ending March 10, 1966. Peter is in the senior class.

A British bishop was very upset when he received the following note from the vicar in his diocese:

"Sir, I regret to inform you of the death of my wife. Can you possibly send me a substitute for the weekend?"

She: "Oh, waiter, I don't like all these flies in this restaurant."

He: "Point out the ones you don't like and I'll chase them out."

Pearce, Wood Wed At Peachtree Church

MRS. RONNIE FORD PEARCE

Spring Hope--The Rev. Reuel Westbrook of Peachtree Baptist Church on Sunday, March 27, performed the double-ring ceremony uniting Miss Barbara Anne Wood and Ronnie Ford Pearce in marriage.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Douglas Wood of Spring Hope, is a graduate of Spring Hope High School and Troutman's College of Hair Styling. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Pearce of the Cedar Rock Community near Louisburg, and he is a graduate of Edward Best High School.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white satin with empire waistline, bodice of chantilly lace and detachable trim applied with reembodyered lace. Her headpiece was a crown of seed pearls with elbow-length veil of silk illusion. She carried a white Bible covered with lace and topped with a bouquet of white roses centered with a white orchid. Her only ornament was a strand of cultured pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was her cousin, Miss Annie Mae Jones of Rocky Mount, whose floor-length gown of rose satin was styled with fitted bodice and bell-shaped skirt. Her headpiece was a bow of matching material with shoulder-length veil of silk illusion. She carried one long-stemmed Better Times rose.

The bridesmaids, wearing gowns of deep pink fashioned after the honor attendant's, were Mrs. Bob Landreth of Greensboro, the bridegroom's sister; Miss Jackie Savage of Spring Hope; Miss Barbara May of the Peachtree Community; and Miss Rebecca Pearce, the bridegroom's cousin, from near Louisburg. Each carried a long red rose.

Junior bridesmaids, whose floor-length dresses were in pale pink, were Nancy Edwards and Joan Wester, the bride's cousins, of Peachtree.

Mona Frazier of Spring Hope, who was dressed in pink and who dropped rose petals along the aisle, was flower girl.

Bill Pearce of near Louisburg was best man for his brother. Ushers were Bob Landreth, the bridegroom's brother-in-

Play To Be Given At College

Gerald Kennedy's play, "The Terrible Meek," one-night play of long established standing and seasonal interest, will be given as a dramatic reading at Louisburg College Auditorium Sunday evening at 6 p.m.

It will last 45 minutes and the actors will be James Houck, Douglas Fitzgerald and Veronica Haun.

The name of the West African nation, Dahomey, means "Belly of Dan." The name honors a 17-century king who ate his victims, the National Geographic says.

Mrs. C. Gordon Maddrey Speaks To Woman's Club

Mrs. Maddrey, a delightful and inspiring former first lady of the NCFWC, was guest speaker at a special institute for club members held at the Methodist Church on March 30. Mrs. Becky Dean, club president, presided over the meeting and recognized Mrs. Betty Weathers, District 14 President, from Youngville, who introduced Mrs. Maddrey to the club women.

Mrs. Maddrey told the club of the exciting history of the organization from its beginning 75 years ago with 72 women. It has grown and become the largest organization of women in the world and is this year celebrating its Diamond Jubilee. There are 50 State Federations composed of 15 thousand clubs and about 50 foreign clubs.

The theme of the Federation has been "Unity in Diversity." Mrs. Maddrey pointed out that when club members join hands and clubs in turn join hands what we can do is unlimited.

The organization has a three-fold purpose today. However, the initial purpose of the organization was two fold: (1) Cultural, geared to self-improvement of the members and (2) Fellowship, out of these two grew the third purpose, Service.

Mrs. Maddrey went on to say that there were frontiers to be conquered when the organization was first founded and that there are still frontiers to be conquered today. It is the responsibility of each club member today to be informed. It is the responsibility of each
