Locals Receive State Awards

At the State Garden Club Convention held in Raleigh last week, the Perennial Junior Garden Club was the recipient of the Lois C. Thompson Silver Bowl Award. This award is given to the Junior Club staging the best flower show in the state, during the club year, either alone or with a senior club.

Also received by the Junior Club were: an Honor Roll Certificate, Junior Achievement Award and a blue ribbon for their year book.

Mrs. Marvin Pleasants, Junior Counselor and district junior director, received a junior achievement award for the outstanding rating sheet for the year 1965-1966.

At the awards banquet the Louisburg Garden Club won a scroll for the best open-house (Mr. and Mrs. Herman Spencers Christmas house) without a standard certification card, Honorable mention in the Hazel Kepler Silver Bowl for conservation of birds project and a red ribbon for their year book.

Those attending the convention for the Louisburg Garden Club were Mrs. Mary Lumpkin, Mrs. John Mills, Mrs. Juanita Pleasants and Mrs. Marvin Pleasants.

Women Voters Attend 7th Council Meet

The Louisburg League of Women Voters was represented at the 7th Biennial Council of the North Carolina League which was held at Blair House in Durham on Wednesday, April 27th.

The morning session was devoted to matters of business concerning the League with emphasis on reports from the various branch presidents on what they considered their most stimulating program of the past year.

Malcolm Seawell, Chairman of the State Board of Elections, addressed the group after lunch. He discussed some of the election and polling problems in North Carolina.

The afternoon session was taken up with panel discussions on League membership. Those attending from Louisburg were, Mrs. Mamie B. Clayton, President, Mrs. Adeline Berger, Dr. Ann Blumenfeld and Mrs. Mary Matthews.

Attend DKG Convention

Local members of Xi Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma attended the annual Eta State Convention held in Raleigh at the Sir Walter Hotel Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Xi Chapter was hostess at the luncheon held in the ballroom of the hotel Saturday. Those attending from Franklin County were from Franklinton, Mrs. Dorothy Shearon, Mrs. Tommie Stephens, and Miss Edith Jackson; and from Louisburg Mrs. Margaret Holmes, Miss Gertrude Winston and Miss Elizabeth Johnson.

Between four and five hundred state members attended the convention.

A diet may be good for the health, but a good menu can do wonders also.

Congregation Has Covered Dish Supper

A Congregational covered dish supper was sponsored by the Churchwomen of St. Paul's Episcopal Church Sunday evening at the Parish house.

Episcopal College students of Louisburg College were special guests.

Throughout the hall, dining room and assembly room were placed large arrangements of pink and white dogwood and lavender lris among various greenery. Tables were set with pink place mats, complimenting the colors of the flowers.

Ready cash, it seems, is able to outdo magicians in a disappearing act.
