Space Tale

Barker had been boasting of the accomplishments of his 19-year-old son while his companion listened quietly.

"Say, Peters," he said suddenly, "how about your boy? Doesn't he have any special talents?"

"Well," replied Peters grimly, "he should be quite an authority on interplanetary travel. In school he took up space."

"Yes," said the personnel manager, to the job applicant, "what we're after is a man of vision; a man with drive, determination, fire; a man who can inspire others; a man who can pull our bowling team out of last place!"
