

League, Jaycees Draw Praise For Candidates Meet

around 200, who braved a light of local interest attended. All unopposed this election, was in-shower last Thursday night to five of those seeking election troduced and spoke briefly to the Speed, John T. Church, Wilton burg-Cypress Creek, Clint A H. Spencer, also a candidates for dustrial development, school attend the meeting of the candi- to the two House seats from the audience. Both candidates for R. Drake, T. T. Clayton and Fuller and Walter Ball. All was not present. dates held here in Louisburg 16th District of Franklin-Vance Sheriff, William T. Dement and James Burton, Jr. were given three minutes to state their address the group. G. Frank Hinson was the only positions, these included the one of three candidates present House. Commissioners and with laudits for the League of hand. Five of the eight seeking the gathering with two-minute aims in running. Women Voters and the Louis- County Commissioner posts speeches. burg Jaycees for a program well were present and four of the five seeking Board of Education Court Twenty of the twenty-three seats were present.

estimated at candidates in the various races Clerk of Court Ralph Knott, also alloted two minutes.

Candidates for Recorder's Court Solicitor W. H. (Jack) in candidates from the 4th Dis-Taylor and Charles Davis were trict of Cedar Rock-Gold Mine Driver, all Democrats and Rep- Following the prepared state- facilities, East Carolina college reply on any issue unless they spoke as did candidates for the ubican Willis Dupree, wach ment period, questions were and minimum wage increase the three

County Commussioners candi- running in the District 1 Co- Board of Education candidates, stitutionality of the Civil Rights policy-making consolidation, and education. One question asked of school Commissioners and Board candidates on the condistrict level, local airport were not required to make any wanted to do so

Woman Of The Year

Mrs. Dot Clay, above left, was chosen,"Woman of the Year" by the Louisburg Jr. Woman's Club at a special picnic meeting held last Saturday night. Mrs. Becky Dean, right, was honored as outgoing president. Both were presented gifts. Mrs. Clay was cited for her "outstanding service and devotion to the club" for many years. Mrs. Dean was praised for her work as --Staff Photo By Clint Fuger. president during the past year.

Mayor Peoples Proclaims Saturday As Poppy Day

Mayor V. A. Peoples has de-ignated May 28th as Poppy Day 9665 in Louisburg according to second in the second seco ing the period. Driving was ment and ran the Town of Louisburg Monday and as one ob- mental problems. He reportedserver put it, "Neither came by paid it put any the worse."

The event, which was held last Candidates ear also, is designed to acuaint the students with the operation of their town governnent. Bobby Pope of the Louisourg faculty is the Governmen Instructor and arranged the Fund Report program in cooperation with own officials.

Mayor V. A. Peoples handed his authority to Glenn ver Woodlief, high school semior and Town Administrator Er'S. law, to file a report of all Ford relinquished his positio to Pete Joyner as General Administrator and George Drewett as City Administrator.

Donny Southerland was named Chief of Police and Jay Taylor, assistant. C. B. Patterson was full report is due within 20 days Fire Chief and Al Wilson was assistant chief.

Town clerks were Phyllis Jeffreys and Jo Ann Wolozin and expense and contribution record registrars Roger Kornegay, Jr. was Super-intendent of Public Works, Wil-

Members of the Louisburg of the new officials was tagged The Franklin Times will High School Government Class with a parking ticket and quickly again act as Elections ook over the reigns of govern- found that even top officials are Headquarters, Saturday unable to cope with such monunight.

Must File

Board of Elections secretary John King issued a reminder do not call for results. This today that all candidates for ties up the telephone and public office are required, by delays the incoming calls' contributions and expenditures in their campaign. A preliminary report should have been made to the Clerk of Court Ralph S, Knott by not following the elections, Acheck with Knott disclosed that only one candidate has filed his Registrars are urged to call in their returns as soon as the ballots are counted. Call Gy6-3283, collect when necessary. As in the past few years, results will be posted on the big board placed in the window of the Times office on Bickett Blvd. The public is invited to come by and check the returns. Please do not call for results. This Precinct results will be posted as soon as they are received and a running total will be kept. Due to the limited space inside the Times office, those not having business inside are requested to check the big board for returns and leave the office to candidate's, and personnel working the returns.

political campaigns, candidates has marked the star The which began many weeks ago for of the final week of campaignthe horizon Increased activity by most some and months ago for others, ing. Less emphasis is now is in its final week as Primary being placed on sticking up Day, Saturday, looms large on posters and passing out cards and more is being placed on newspaper and radio advertising. Few can remember when a campaign involving as many ocal personalities, has been as quiet. Except for a few isolated cases, comments on any parti-ular race have been extremely

The usual rash of predictions of the outcome of the elections, while being made in some quar-

Most observers note that per-limited.

Woman Passes

Louisburg.

Bickett of Raleigh.

Local

Mrs. Richard Fenner Yar-borough died Monday in Rex prevalent than in the past. Hospital, Raleigh. Funeral service will be conducted at St. haps more posters and cards Paul's Episcopal Church in have been used this year than Louisburg, at 4:00 p.m. Tues- in the recent past. There have day, May 24, by The Reverend Frank E. Pulley, Rector, and The Reverend W. M. Latta, candidate believe they are help-Executive Secretary of the De- ing their cause by removing the partment of Missions of the opposition's posters. This has Diocese of North Carolina, thus far been contained to about Burial will be in the family three candidates and is not plot in Oak Wood Cemetery in believed to be widespread.

Increased activity is expected

1966 in Louisburg according to a special announcement made today. The proclamation was signed by Mayor People as members of the American Le-gion Auxiliary, Unit No. 105 looked on. "The hearts of all our citizens in Franklin County will be with this worthy effort this year as a means of paying tribute to all out war dead," the Mayor declared. "We well know the great contribution and sacrifices made by members of the armed forces and on this inches fell at the weather station day each year we have an opportunity of paying our humble respects to those gallant that a rain gauge near Louis-Americans who laid down their burg recorded 6,25 inches durlives in order that we may continue to enjoy our usual hazardous during some per-lods due to the heavy down

"It is also an opportunity for pour, but no accidents have been all of us to pay tribute to those reported due to the rain. brave men and women who still Some farmers report that fer-live as victims of the wars" tilizer was washed away and Mayor Peoples pointed out, some erosion took place on the Air Force To Make Posthumous Award Here

Lt. Dave Garber of Seymour, was killed in the crash of Johnson Air Base reported that C-130 airplane in Vietnam. the Air Medal and the Purple Mitchell, 34 years old at the Heart was awarded this morn-time of his death, is survived ing at 11:30 A. M. of a Frank- by his widow, his father, Willie error carried him astray. in County airman killed in Mitchell, Sr. of Wood, N. C. vietnam last December 20. and five children. He had Lt. Richard Lewis of the Air been first reported missing last Force made the awards to Mrs. December, later to have been Einora J. Mitchell, Rt. 3 Box captured and finally the tele-14, Louisburg, widow of Air-man Willie Mitchell, Jr. who been killed in action. gram came saying that he had

The State of the State

Up To 6.25 Inches Of Rain Reported In Area

Heavy rain and some hail land, but hail was apparently fell on Franklin County Saturday confined to the Louisburg area afternoon and night, with little and only in brief spurts.

if any damage reported. Louis-burg weatherman G. O. Kennedy Landed At reported officially that 2,55 Wrong here during the period. Kennedy said he had a report Franklinton

Richmond Times-1966 **

Franklin, May 18 - State Sen. William F. Spong Jr. had the political field to himself Wedbecue.

The barbecue was a nonpolitical affair, but Spong went jured. as a guest -- and got a chance to make a few more friends in his campaign to unseat U, S. Sen. A Willis Robertson. Sen. Harry F. Byrd Jr., fighting to hold his seat against a challenge by Armistead L. Boothe, attempted to further his cause there, too. But a pilot's Byrd set out Wednesday in a lin airport. But the pilot app-arently misunderstood the de-suffered a full stination and flew him to Frankstination and flew him to Frank-linton, N. C., 31 miles north of to Franklin Memorial Hospital Raleigh.

Carpenter and Charlie Griffin Overall control of the town was in the hands of the Town Council Members serving for the one day term were: Howard Stallings, Jr., Wauna Oxnevad, Jerome Cheek, Brenda Cooper, Judy Capell and Donna Strickland. A check downtown Monday revealed that everything was going as usual in the orderly operation of the town's business. One

Reminder

A total of 16 persons died on Dispatch, Thursday, May 19, the State Highway Patrol and the death toll well below that Hocutt received minor back

Memorial Day of 1965 saw total of 529 persons were inthat of 1964, when 9 persons were killed. 411 were injuried on the 1964 Memorial Day.

Rescue Call

The Louisburg Rescue Ser-vice was called this morning around Il a.m. to the home of by the Service.

Man Saved By Seat Belts In Local Wreck

A Charlotte sailor, on his way dents proved that failere to back to the Norfolk Naval wear these essential safety de-back station, escaped serious injury vices were a major factor in Station, escaped serious injury vices were a major factor in Station, escaped serious injury vices were a major factor in Station, escaped serious injury vices were a major factor in Station, escaped serious injury vices were a major factor in Station, escaped serious injury vices were a major factor in Station, escaped serious injury vices were a major factor in Station, escaped serious injury vices were a major factor in Station, escaped serious injury vices were a major factor in Station were serious injury vices were a major factor in Station were serious injury vices were a major factor in Station were serious injury vices were a major factor in Station were serious injury vices were a major factor in Station were serious injury vices were a major factor in Station were serious injury vices were a major factor in Station were serious injury vices were a major factor in Station were serious injury vices were a major factor in Station were serious injury vices were a major factor in Station were serious injury vices were a major factor in Station were serious injury vices were a major factor in Station were serious injury vices were a major factor in Station were serious injury vices were a major factor in Station were serious injury vices were serious injury vices were serious injury vices were serious injury vices were series were Julius Henderson Hocutt, 22/ running off the road. w/m was driving an MG TD was the biggest offender.

Roadster when he was blinded by oncoming lights at inter-section of Highway 401 and 56 North Carolina highways last Memorial Day. This year, P.M. Friday night. The car overturned and was completely other law enforcement agencies demolished, according to will make every effort to hold Kearney.

injuries and scratches. Kearney credited the use of nesday at the Hunterdale Ruri-tan Club's annual beef bar-288 injury accidents and 456 property damage accidents. A ing the youth's life and urged all drivers to use them.

The North Carolina Depart-The death toll on Memorial Day in 1965 was almost twice that nine of the 33 lives lost on the state's streets and highways last week could have been saved if seat belts had been worn. The Department also says that failure to wear seat belts caused five of the 12 deaths last weekend alone. "Investigations of the acci-

The Motor Vehicles Department's summary of traffic deaths through 10 a.m. Monday, May 23: KILLED TO DATE KILLED TO DATE LAST YEAR

Mrs. Yarborough was the for- through the remainder of the mer Mattie Ballard of Frank- week and most candidates have linton, and was the widow of expressed their hopes that there Dr. R. F. Yarborough. She is will be no last minute leaflets survived by a daughter, Miss with mud-slinging and that what Martha Yarborough of Louis-burg; a daughter- in- law, Mrs. gery clean campaign, will con-station, escaped serious injury vices were a major factor in Kate Ballard, and a niece, Miss throughout the county and close by using an old World War II Commissioner A. Pilston God-seat belt, according to State win, Jr. Trooper Gary Kearney of State Seventeen of the week's fata-lities resulted from vehicles Greenville, North Carolina; and suits will be promptly posted to see Speed a nephew, William Yarborough on the window for all to see.

" - Sport in

Scouts Camp Out

12

Louisburg Boy Scouts, under direction of Scoutmaster Hoke Steelman, are shown above last Friday night as they prepared for an all-night camp-out. The camp site was on the farm of Mr. 585 and Mrs. Maynard Baker; Rt. 4, Louisburg. The boys built fires, cooked hamburgers, pitched tents and all in all had themselves a fine time. --Staff Photo by Clint Fuller;