

Bryson, Cheatham Vows Spoken

Miss Judith Carol Cheatham of Franklinton and Doyle Winston Bryson of Sylva exchanged wedding vows Saturday, June 25, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon in the Franklinton Baptist Church.

The Rev. Lloyd Jackson officiated at the double ring ceremony. Nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. Bruce Honeycutt, organist, and Mrs. Sara Eason Clayton of Hillsboro, soloist. White and green floral arrangements and candelabras holding lighted candles formed the background for the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Burton Cheatham of Franklinton and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Winston Bryson of Sylva, North Carolina.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of silk organza over taffeta with motifs accenting the lifted waist, the portrait neckline, tea cup sleeves, and the chapel train. Her bouffant veil of illusion was attached to an open crown of matching lace embellished in seed pearls and she carried an old fashioned bouquet of daisies.

Miss Brenda Faye Langdon of Raleigh was the maid of honor and the bride's only attendant. She wore a maize floor-length gown designed with an empire waist line with a brocade neckline. Her matching headpiece was designed with a picture hat illusion. She carried an old fashioned bouquet of yellow and white daisies.

Mr. Bryson was his son's best man. Ushers were James M. Hill, Jr. of Johnson City, Tennessee; Ralph James Cox of Pilot Mountain, Clarence B. Cheatham, Jr. and Ronald Mitchell Cheatham of Franklinton, brothers of the bride.

The mother of the bride wore a street length dress of silk in light blue with matching accessories. The mother of the groom wore a pink street-length linen dress with matching accessories.

Immediately following the ceremony, a cake cutting was held at the home of the bride for the bridal party and members of the immediate families.

Bride-elect Honored

Elaine Debnam, bride-elect of July 24 and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Debnam, was honored at a tea given by Mrs. Edgerton L. Watson and Mrs. Q. S. Leonard at Mrs. Leonard's home on the Rocky Mount Road on Wednesday, June 29, from 4 o'clock until 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Mrs. Leonard received and welcomed the guests. In the receiving line were Miss Debnam, Mrs. Thurston Allen, mother of the groom-elect; Mrs. R. B. Debnam, mother of the bride-elect; and Miss Waunda Debnam, bride-elect's sister.

Mrs. Walter Debnam, bride-elect's paternal grandmother, presided at the bridal register. Mrs. G. E. Phelps, maternal grandmother, presided over the punch bowl. Assisting in the dining room were Mrs. R. T. Hayes and Mrs. Elwood Hight.

The living room was decorated with all white arrangements. The dining table was centered with an arrangement of white gladiolus in a silver bowl. White gardenias were arranged in a silver container on the buffet. Punch, bridal cakes, ribbon sandwiches, nuts and mints were served.

Miss Debnam was presented a corsage of gardenias upon arrival. The hostesses also gave her a place setting in her chosen silver pattern.

Mrs. Charlie Hudson, maternal great, great grandmother of Miss Debnam, was among the guests who were received.

Miss Debnam will become the bride of Harold Allen in ceremonies at the Mapleville Baptist Church on Sunday, July 24, at 5 p.m.

Thanks

We wish to express our deep appreciation to Dr. Patterson, the nurses of Franklin Memorial Hospital, and our many friends for their kindness, cards, food, and expressions of sympathy during the illness and death of our loved one, Mrs. Betty L. Tucker.
