

Louisburg At Norlina, Wakelon At Franklinton

Coach Ivie Bolton of the Louisburg Bulldogs reports that his squad is ready for Norlina Friday night. Bolton said that except for a pulled muscle plaguing "Little" Billy Fuller, the squad is in good physical condition. He declined to make any predictions on the outcome. However, since Norlina is Bolton's home town, it is suspected that he is looking forward to a win by his charges.

Norlina tied W. R. Davie in the season opener on September 2 and fell to Gaston, 19-6, last Friday night. The Blue Waves finished the season last year with a 3-4 record in the Roanoke Conference and an overall record of 4-5-1. Veteran coach Bob Price, who has headed Norlina football for the past sixteen years and coached Louisburg's coach while he was a student there, reports that he expects the Waves to have a 50-50 season.

Norlina has eleven lettermen returning this year. Louisburg lost the only game played this year to the Spring Hope Raiders, a Nash-Wake-Edgecombe Conference foe last Friday night on a 90-yard pass play with 23 seconds left in the game.

Even in the loss, Bolton was high in his praise for the performance of the squad. Many seasoned observers termed the Bulldog squad one of the best fielded here in several years.

The series with Norlina dates back to 1958 and is even at four wins a piece. The Bulldogs downed the Waves here last year 18-6 in a real slugfest. Norlina will be looking for revenge when the Bulldogs visit them Friday night. The biggest score margin in the series came in 1959 when Norlina massacred the locals 46-0. The 37-6 Louisburg win in 1962 was the largest margin for the locals.

Speedway To Hold Powder Puff Derby

Franklinton - The second "Powder Puff" Derby of the season will be an added attraction Friday night, featuring most of the twelve lady drivers who took part in the last event as well as several newcomers.

Julia Christmas, who drove her husband Kent's car to a victory in the last event, will be back, hoping to repeat her performance. Also expected back are Charlotte Long of Oxford who finished second, Judy Rigsbee of Durham, Sue Coley of Durham, Linda Jones and Faye Wilson of Franklinton, Joan Green of Butler, Phoebe Beckham of Youngsville and several others. Newcomers to the ladies event will be Mrs. Hubert Senter of Franklinton and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Hubert Senter, Jr.

In addition to the ladies event there will be the usual six events including three each for the late model Sportsman and the Hobby drivers. Thirty cars are expected including most of the years feature event winners thus far such as Earl Moss, Bennie Davis, Roy Murphy, Bill Taylor, David Trawick, and David Massey, along with other top competitors such as Sandy Tharrington Glenn Simpkins, Fouts Arnold, Jimmy Brown and several more in the Sportsman races.

Top winner Donnie Watson, the Durham city fireman, will be back trying for his third

The winless Franklinton Rams make another attempt to bring home the bacon Friday night as the Wakelon Bulldogs invade Franklinton Athletic Field for a Nash-Wake-Edgecombe Conference tilt.

The Rams lost the opener on September 2 to Helena, 40-0 and dropped their second conference game last Friday night to Oxford Orphanage, 47-6. Wakelon squeaked by the Whitley Warriors Friday night, 20-19 for their opening game victory. Whitley is not a member of the conference this year and has moved up to a Class 2-A rating.

There has been no report this week from Coach Stan Bowles on the injury riddled Rams, but they are expected to be ready for Friday's game. Tommy Cooke, returning letterman, who was late reporting for practice prior to the opening of the season and Charlie Goswick teamed together last week to score the only Ram touchdown of the season against the Red Devils.

Wakelon defeated the Rams last year in the first meeting of the two teams since Franklinton established a football program in 1958.

There is no more doubt whether hot weather will arrive this summer.

straight win. Also expected are Wayne McGhee of Hillsborough, Bobby Proctor of Durham, Ernie McBroom of Hillsborough, Kent Fogleman and Tex Rigsbee and C. D. Nichols of Durham, Donnie Lloyd of Creedmoor, Pete Dease, Leroy Beam, Terry Redd and Dee Oakley of Oxford and many more. Also returning to the scene will be the one and only "Steam Jenny" Simmons of Louisburg.

Starting time for the big seven-event program will be 8 p.m. with the gates opening at 6.

Big Game At Granville Friday

While Franklin County's Bulldogs and Rams are not involved directly, the big game this week in the Nash-Wake-Edgecombe Conference will take place in the Viking's yard at South Granville.

The defending champion, Oxford Orphanage, meets the Creedmore eleven in a head-on clash of the powers in the conference. Oxford made mincemeat of the Franklinton Rams last week in their only outing and South Granville has played the giant killer in downing two Class 3-A teams in flooring the Southern Durham Rebels 21-14 and the Oxford Webb Wildcats 15-13.

The clash could prove to be the deciding game in the conference this year, although the season is young and several teams are in contention.

DEATHS

Franklinton -- Mrs. Nellie Wheeler Fuller, 64, died Wednesday. Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Friday at Union View Baptist Church. The Rev. Glenn Short and the Rev. W. M. Dameron will officiate. Burial will be at Bunn Cemetery in Bunn.

Mrs. Fuller was a native of Franklin County.

Surviving are her husband,

John T. Fuller; one son, Avon Fuller, of Wallace; five sisters, Mrs. Clydia Young and Mrs. Durwood Fuller, both of Louisburg, Mrs. Charlie Jeffries, of Zebulon, Mrs. Clarence Warren and Mrs. Waylon Pleasants, both of Wake Forest; one brother, Robert Wheeler, of Dover, Del., and two grandchildren.
