

Wed At Popular Springs

Miss Linda Lou Cooke and Mr. Clyde Maurice Mullen were united in marriage Sunday at 4:00 p.m. at Popular Springs Baptist Church, Bunn, N. C.

The Rev. Dale O. Steele, pastor, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Graves Cooke of Indianapolis, Indiana and the groom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Clyde Mullen of Route 2, Zebulon, N. C. Mr. Cadwin Cone presented a program of music at the organ.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an original Alfred Angelo antique white silk faced peau de sole gown with a bateau neckline and a fitted basque bodice featuring three-quarter length sleeves with deep French Alencon lace cuffs encrusted with seed pearls and crystals. The controlled skirt featured a detachable chapel train. Her bouffant elbow length veil of silk illusion was attached to a crown of seed pearls studded with crystal teardrops. She carried a colonial bouquet of white sweetheart roses and stephanotis centered with a pink throated white orchid corsage.

Mrs. J. E. Johnson, Jr. of New York was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Faye Mullen of Zebulon, Miss Sherran Bailey of Bunn, Mrs. C. P. Dowlin of Spring Hope and Mrs. L. J. Akerman of Zebulon, sister of the bride.

The bridesmaids wore pink orchid full length empire gowns of French silk crepe with long sleeves featuring matching lace cuffs. The high necklines were accented by strands of pearls, a gift from the bride. Their headpieces were whimsies of pink orchid netting crowned with a single handmade rose of French silk. They carried colonial bouquets of pink orchid roses. The matron of honor was dressed identical to bridesmaids in pink crepe. Little Miss Deborah Jean Johnson was flower girl. She was dressed in frosted organza and carried a petal basket of pink sweetheart roses.

The bride's mother wore a platinum three piece suit of silk with matching accessories and a white orchid. The groom's mother chose a blue two-piece wool suit and wore a white orchid. Mrs. O'Dayne B. Mullen was his brother's best man and John Ed Johnson served as ringbearer. Ushers were Mr. Buddy Johnson of New York, Mr.

WOMEN PAST 21 WITH BLADDER IRRITATION

After 21, common Kidney or Bladder Irritations affect twice as many women as men and may make you tense and nervous from too frequent, burning or itching urination both day and night. Secondly, you may lose sleep and suffer from headaches, backaches and feel old, tired, depressed. In such irritation, CYBEX usually brings fast, relaxing comfort by curbing irritating germs in strong, acid urine and by analgesic pain relief. Get CYBEX at drugists. Feel better fast.

Mrs. Crawford Kearney was the recipient of guest high and Mrs. H. H. Utley received second high for guest.

At the conclusion of the third progression, the hostess served black walnut pie and coffee. Miss Mary Elizabeth Kannon and Mrs. Fred Blount assisted in serving.

Special guests were Mesdames Kearney, Utley, B. N. Williamson, Jr., John Gonella, R. W. Moore, Fred Blount, Bruce Honeycutt and Vance Estes.

Mrs. D. H. Sowers came in for refreshments.

White Level Homecoming

The annual Homecoming-Harvest Day will be held at White Level Baptist Church, Route 2, Louisburg, Sunday, October 23.

Following the morning service, lunch will be served on the church lawn. At 2:00 p.m. an afternoon service in song will be presented under the direction of the music Director, Mr. Douglas Mitchell. Groups from neighboring churches will sing.

Rev. F. G. Barnhill, Pastor, invites all members, former members and friends to attend.

Women's Club To Meet

The regular monthly meeting of the Louisburg Woman's Club will be held Wednesday, October 19, at 8:00 at First Citizens Bank and Trust. All members are urged to be present.

Thanks

We wish to express our sincere thanks to Dr. Thomas Wheelless and the entire staff on second floor at Franklin Memorial Hospital for their attention and kindness shown during the illness of wife and mother.

We also wish to express our appreciation to our friends for the many visits, cards, flowers and other expressions of sympathy extended to us at her death.

Bride-Elect Honored

On Saturday night, October 15, Mrs. William R. Rose and Mrs. R. Lee Johnson entertained a few intimate friends of Miss Hannah Sykes at a dessert hour at the home of Mrs. Rose on Sunset Avenue.

Upon arrival, Miss Sykes was presented a white cymbidium orchid.

Guests were invited into the dining room, where the table was centered with a lovely arrangement of white mums and greenery in a silver Revere bowl. Mrs. Johnson served the guests coffee from a silver service. Accompaniments were bridal cake squares iced with green and topped with white lilies, green and white mints and assorted nuts.

In the living room, a beautiful arrangement of various kinds of white flowers and greenery, flanked by white candles in hurricane holders were used on the credenza.

The honoree was given a silver tray by the hostesses. Miss Sykes is to be married to Mr. Gordon Wilson Bohannon next month.

Louisburg

Mrs. P. A. Wood spent the past weekend in New York City, visiting her son, Mr. Joseph Wood.

Franklinton

Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Pickard and sons of Greensboro visited Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Mode on Sunday. Carroll Mode of Woman's College in Greensboro visited her parents on Sunday.

Miss Leah Whitfield of Salisbury visited Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Whitfield during the weekend.

Thanks

We the brothers and sisters of Julian W. (Jock) Adams would like to express our sincere thanks to the many people of Franklinton for their many acts of kindness shown during the illness and death of our brother.
